

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

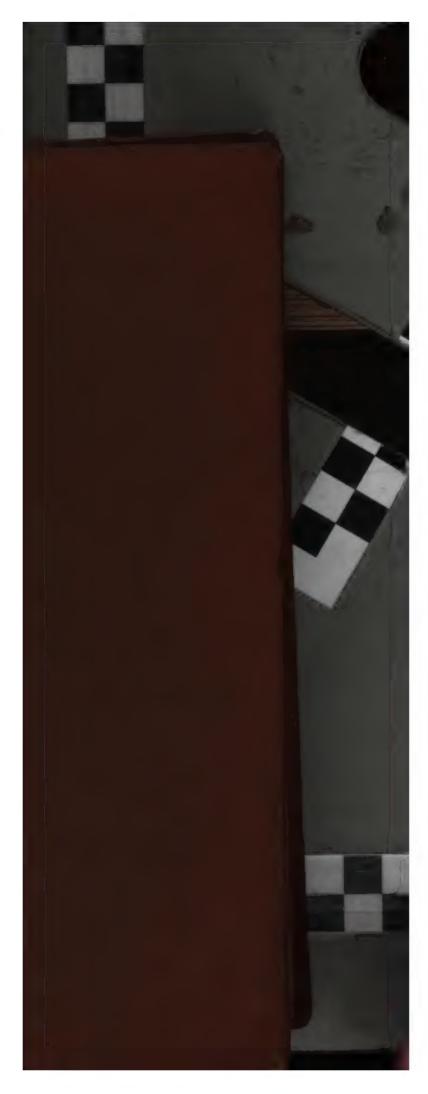

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at http://books.google.com/of the Journal of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Connecticut from the Convention of 1901 to the Convention of 1902

ABSTRACT

The members of the Committee elected on the 11th day of June, 1901, were the Rev. Drs. Storrs O. Seymour, Samuel Hart, William G. Andrews, John Binney, and the Rev. George T. Linsley. The Committee held ten meetings.

I. The first meeting was held at New Haven, June 11th, 1901. The Rev. Drs. Seymour, Hart, and Andrews, and the Rev. Mr. Linsley were present. The Rev. Dr. Seymour was elected President, and the Rev. Dr. Hart, Secretary.

II. The second meeting was held at Bridgeport, July 1st, 1901. The Rev. Drs. Seymour, Hart, and Andrews, and the Rev. Mr. Linsley were present. Consent was given to the election of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Samuel Cook Edsall as Bishop Coadjutor of Minnesota. The Committee sat with the Bishop to consider an application from members of the Mission of St. George in the city of Bridgeport for permission to organize as a Parish. The parties interested agreed to submit to arbitration the question of the present ownership of the property occupied by the Mission, and the hearing was adjourned.

The Bishop having asked the judgment of the Committee as to whether, in the case of a hearing under Title II., Canon 4, § ii. of the Digest, the parties might, if they desired, be represented by counsel, the Committee expressed its opinion that the parties should not be so represented.

Edward Schofield Travers were recommended to the Bishop to be ordered Priests; and Franklin Hoyt Miller, Ph.B., was recommended to the Bishop to be admitted a Candidate for Holy Orders. The Committee sat with the Bishop to consider an application from members of the congregation in East Norwalk, in the Town of Norwalk, for permission to organize as a Parish; and after hearing divers parties interested, the Committee voted that it do not give to the Bishop advice and consent to the organization of the proposed new Parish.

Advice and consent were given to the Bishop for the constitution of the Parish of St. James's Church in the Town and Borough of Farmington. The Committee acted with the Bishop in preparing the roll of Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention; and having adopted this abstract of its Journal to be presented to the Convention, adjourned without day.

Attest,

SAMUEL HART, Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. Joseph Hooper, the Rules of Order were suspended, and consent was given to the reception of the following Report, which was presented by the Rev. William G. Andrews, D.D.

REPORT

The Commission on Parochial Archives respectfully presents its annual report.

The most interesting discovery made during the past year is to be credited to a member of the Commission who was conducting an investigation for other parties. He has, however, reported it to us, and it clearly pertains to Connecticut, since it brings to light the papers relating to the ordination by Bishop Seabury of Henry VanDyke, one of the four who were made Deacons at the first ordination in the Diocese, August 3, 1785. These papers were found among the Schroeder manuscripts at New Milford, and include the promise of conformity made to the "Church in Connecticut," Mr. VanDyke being then, apparently, of this commonwealth; the letters of orders, as Deacon and as Priest, the latter being dated September 16; and the license to officiate at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., to hold good until a Bishop should be consecrated "for the State of New York." It is expected that photographic copies of these documents will be placed in the diocesan archives. Of the letters of orders of the four Deacons mentioned, only those of Ashbel Baldwin now remain undiscovered. Other papers relating to Mr. VanDyke were found at the same time, together with some letters from Bishop Brownell concerning Washington (Trinity) College, and the General Theological Seminary, then (1820-1) established in New Haven.

Measures are in progress for securing catalogues of the Johnson and the Seabury papers. The former are to be examined carefully, and the results will be reported hereafter.

Some miscellaneous papers relating to St. Peter's, Plymouth, have been found, including rate bills and a plan of pews. The former are of a class from which instructive facts bearing on former monetary conditions are often derived; the latter, when the names of occupants are given, offer help to local historians, and genealogists.

The Secretary of the Commission, as copyist of Parochial Archives, has reported the transcription of entries relating to other Parishes from the Church records at Hebron, Huntington, Litchfield, Marbledale, Naugatuck, North Guilford, Oxford, Plymouth, and Portland. This task is now substantially completed, and the transcripts will remain in the keeping of the Registrar of the Diocese.

The quantity, if not the value, of this material is apparently less than was anticipated; but some of it has been of great service to students of parochial history; not far from seventy baptisms of the eighteenth century, belonging to one Parish, have been found in the records of two others. The Registrar has already, while the work of transcription was in progress, and before such a service could have been expected of him, notified the Parishes concerned of his possession of facts connected with their history, by means of lists printed in an appendix to the Journal of 1900 (pp. 106-110). It is, however, lamentably certain that various Rectors and parish officials are totally ignorant of the sources of information now accessible to them in the diocesan archives, sources which must be consulted before the former can preach the right kind of historical sermons, or before any of them can compose the right kind of parish histories. And this ignorance is due to the very common habit of not making a careful inspection of the appendices of the Convention Journals. It is hoped to make this particular form of ignorance nearly impossible (nobody can make it quite impossible), by sending marked copies of the printed lists of 1900 or of 1902, to all the Parishes named in them. It is proper to say that such lists must contain names now gone out of use, but the effort to identify the localities intended may lead to a profitable course of study in historical geography.

The action of the Commission respecting the records of the early Convocations (or Conventions) of the Connecticut Clergy, ordered to be brought to the notice of the present Convention by the Rev. Mr. Hooper, will, it is earnestly hoped, lead to measures which will result in their early publication. They ought by all means to be rescued in this way from something like oblivion, and to be secured against the possibility of total loss. What a calamity this would be may be inferred from the prefatory note to Dr. Hart's valuable "Index to Matters of Permanent Interest in the Journals," prepared by him, as Registrar, in 1897, where it is made apparent that the documentary history of the Diocese is utterly incomplete without these records. Dr. Hart called attention to the importance of printing them, as he did again three years ago in the first report of this Commission, of which he was then Chairman. That he is not such still is a serious misfortune, and would be a far greater one but for the unvarying kindness which has already made his unrivalled knowledge of our field of labor available in saving his successor from some sad blunders, and on which the Commission will still confidently rely.

Two interesting and curiously similar facts were reported at our recent meeting, which are not in any sense included in our work. But they are so far related to it, and are in themselves so deserving of commemoration, that it is right to mention them here. One is the gift to the Berkeley Divinity School by the Rev. S. F. Jarvis, a member of the Commission, of a paten and chalice which once belonged to his distinguished father, having been presented to him by an English congregation in Siena, Italy. The other is the gift by friends on Long Island, of a very ancient Communion service to the Archdeaconry of Middlesex, by which it is to be used at two Mission stations.

This report is prepared under the authority of the Commission by both the undersigned.

W. G. Andrews, Chairman. Frederic W. Bailey, Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. Joseph Hooper, it was Resolved, That "The Records of Convocation," now in the archives of the Diocese, be published under the supervision of the Commission on Parochial Archives, with such annotations as may be necessary, at an expense not to exceed Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars.

Notices of New Business to be introduced at the proper time were given by the Rev. George R. Warner, the Rev. Harry I. Bodley, Mr. Schuyler Merritt, Mr. E. C. Johnson and Mr. Henry E. Rees. On motion of the Rev. Dr. Hart, the Report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons appointed last year was made the Order of the Day immediately after the Bishop's Address.

On motion of Archdeacon Buck, the Report of the Committee to prepare a Form for the Organization of Missions in the Diocese was made the Order of the Day to follow the Report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

About one o'clock a recess was taken until 2.30 P. M.

Tuesday, 2.30 p. m.

After the recess the Rev. Storrs O. Seymour, D.D., on behalf of the Committee to coöperate with the General Board of Missions, presented the following

In the course of my visitations and at other times I have officiated on one hundred and ninety-six occasions, preached and delivered two hundred and forty-six sermons and addresses, celebrated the Holy Communion thirty-four times, solemnized one marriage, officiated at three funerals, and confirmed one thousand five hundred and sixty-two persons.

During the year death has taken from our Clergy list conspicuous and honored names:

The Rev. James Lawrence Scott, who entered into life on Easter morning, was both in years and in canonical residence the oldest Clergyman of the Diocese, being at his death eightyeight years of age, and having been connected with this Diocese 1902] since 1849. For some years he was the Editor of "The Calendar," a paper which became "The Churchman." As a Parish Priest he labored until 1881; and then, for a score of years, as physical disability and blindness overtook him, he enjoyed the affectionate respect of all who knew the purity and simplicity of his character.

The Rev. Cornelius Gardner Bristol served first in St. Alban's Mission, Danielson, where a beautiful new Church witnesses to his energy and devotion; and for the past eight years as Rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hartford. In this city he had won a unique place both as pastor and citizen. At an early age he had become one of the most efficient and useful men in the Diocese. Since 1894 he had rendered invaluable service as Secretary and Treasurer of the Church Scholarship Society. On behalf of the Berkeley Divinity School he was largely instrumental in furthering the Memorial Library; and, in raising the Fund for the endowment of the Bishop Williams Professorship, he showed his characteristic qualities. Always ready to answer to the call of duty, faithful and wise, unsparing of self, public-spirited, devoted in ministration to the needs of men and in service to the Church, in the brief term of his ministry he left an example to us all.

The Rev. Dr. Edwin Harwood was from 1854 to 1859 Professor of the Literature and Interpretation of the Scriptures in Berkeley Divinity School. For thirty-six years he was Rector of Trinity Church, New Haven, and for seven years Archdeacon of New Haven. From 1877 on, he was elected a Deputy to seven General Conventions. There he served on important committees; he was a member of the first Joint Commission on the Revision of the Prayer-Book, and he was Chairman of the original Commission on Marginal Readings in the English Bible. Characterized by a robust masculinity of mind and temper, with his deepest feelings and experiences kept under the lock and key of a masterful will, he manifested always the gravity and dignity of a noble seriousness. Harwood was a typical scholar, of vast reading in theology. Devotion to truth was with him a passion. His reverence for truth made him fearless. He was not afraid of the truth and he was not afraid for the truth, nor did he ever fear to speak out what he believed to be truth. It was impossible that such a man should be content with any narrow position in theology. He was conspicuous among a number of prominent Churchmen who moved on out of the old Evangelical party into a larger position, characterized by a tone and temper at once less given to literalism and less emotional, more scholarly and thoughtful, with a wider outlook and broader sympathies. His was a mind that must bring truths into relation with each other in a large unity, and with him the intellect must have its rights. To Dr. Harwood, more than to any other man, was due the inception of the American Church Congress, an institution which has done much to moderate the rancour and to elevate the tone of theological controversy by bringing representatives of differing schools and parties together and bringing them to a better understanding of each other. The Diocese may well take pride in his memory. And there are lessons to be learned from his valiant faith in truth as he saw it, and in the living God of truth. In this day there are temptations to neglect learning and undervalue scholarship. The Church needs this type of man,—the scholar, the man who thinks, and who, after much study, profound reflection, and brooding meditation, has won his place among "those who know."

Very recently has died the Rev. Alfred Lee Royce, D.D. For twenty years he had been a Chaplain in the United States Navy. In the late war with Spain he served in that capacity on the flag-ship of Admiral Sampson.

Among the laymen who are missed here and in their Parishes let me mention:

Mr. James H. Barnum, who for thirty years had been a Warden of Trinity Church, Lime Rock, and before that had served in a like capacity at Salisbury; Mr. Henry W. Clark, Senior Warden of Grace Church, Windsor; Mr. Frank Day, of St. Alban's Church, Danielson, and Mr. Arthur C. Northrop, of Trinity Church, Waterbury.

Four of our Bishops have been removed by death:

The Rt. Rev. Abram Newkirk Littlejohn, Bishop of Long Island; the Rt. Rev. Henry Benjamin Whipple, Bishop of Minnesota; the Rt. Rev. Alexander Burgess, Bishop of Quincy; and the Rt. Rev. John Franklin Spalding, Bishop of Colorado.

The first Bishop of Long Island was my own Bishop for nine years. The early years of his ministry belong to Connecticut. To his Diocese he has left enduring foundations. the whole Church may cherish the possession of his reputation as a profound student of philosophy and of Holy Scripture, a sound and sober theologian, a wise counsellor and strong administrator, a preacher singularly impressive by his personal dignity and the massiveness and weight of his thought. pronounced conservative, his was no narrow outlook. He had discernment not only of men, but of the times, and he had the largeness of mind, the candour and the courage, to acknowledge when the time had come to move forward. was Bishop Littlejohn who alone and, as he himself told me, chiefly on his knees, wrote the paper which, with the change of the Latin "depositum" to the English "deposit," was issued in 1886 by the House of Bishops at Chicago as "A Declaration in regard to Church Unity."

In the death of the Bishop of Minnesota there was a prince and a great man fallen in Israel. Picturesque and stately in figure, a born leader, a pioneer in missionary labor, sagacious and far-seeing in laying foundations, the devoted friend and fearless champion of the red man, with the fervor of an Apostle and the daring and dash of a soldier, he made a strong personal impression upon his generation: while his simple and unstudied but potent eloquence had won the ear of the Church and the nation, and captivated multitudes beyond the sea. His name will be prominent in the Church history of the nineteenth century.

The first Bishop of Quincy, bearing a name honored in the annals of the American Episcopate, had before his consecration achieved distinction in the service of the Church and as President of the House of Deputies.

Bishop Spalding had for twenty-eight years endured hardness, "in journeyings oft, * * * in perils in the wilderness, in weariness and painfulness." He had the reward of seeing his Missionary District become a well-equipped Diocese fraught with promise for the future.

These servants of God and others we remembered at the Lord's Altar to-day. May He give us grace so to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of His heavenly kingdom!

The year since we last met has been memorable. dent McKinley, foully stricken down by an anarchist, met his death with a bearing altogether worthy of a Christian. successor has entered upon the great office with characteristic energy and with an evident earnestness and purity of intention. The national faith, pledged to the independence of Cuba, has been kept. In the Philippine Islands there have come to light acts, on the part of certain of our soldiers, that were, to use the language of the General in command there, "more in the nature of unlawful retaliation than justifiable warfare"; also measures of barbarous cruelty and of brutal torture such as we have been quick to condemn in other peoples. These revelations have aroused in our people shame and indignation. can be no question of the President's attitude. Under the circumstances it behoves Christian citizens to set an example of respect for authority and of self-restraint in accusation, and patiently and loyally to trust the President's evident purpose that these matters should be probed to the bottom and punishment meted out to any who have brought dishonor upon the nation's name and flag.

Here in Connecticut, where at the beginnings of the Colony the first constitution, in the words of an eminent historian, "marked the beginnings of American democracy," the essential principles of democracy have recently been again on trial. It is not my province or purpose here to discuss merely political questions. It is proper, however, to say that, as Christian citizens, it is well for us, whether in the affairs of nation or commonwealth, to rise above partisan politics, to endeavor so far as in us lies that the foundations of the state be not out of line with righteousness, and to remember that nothing is ever settled to stay settled until it is settled right.

In the Church the year has been signalized by the meeting of the General Convention last October, in San Francisco. It is unnecessary for me now to speak of what was there done and not done. There have been sent by the Secretary of the House of Deputies certain proposed alterations of the Constitution of the Church, now made known to the several Dioceses in order that they may be adopted at the next General Convention in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution. These proposed alterations will be printed as an appendix to the Journal (Appendix A.), where all may read and examine them. most important of them is the proposed amendment in accordance with which the Presiding Bishop of the Church is to be triennially elected by the House of Bishops for approval by the House of Deputies. It is worthy of remembrance that this change from the principle of seniority to the principle of election is in accordance with the suggestion and desire of our present Presiding Bishop, who, having overpassed his three score years and ten by very nearly a score of years, has the affection and veneration of us all.

More worthy of note than any definite legislation enacted is a result which could not fail to ensue upon the gathering of the Church's leaders and representatives in council on that far-off coast in the first year of a new century. Inevitably there resulted a deepened impression of responsibility, a sense of widening relations, and an enlarged vision of opportunities before the Church. The journey across the continent made one realize the extent, the latent resources, and the future possibilities of that western country, and the claims upon us of Church work there. And then, to look off upon the Pacific, to gaze, beyond the Golden Gate, on the waters that wash the shores of Alaska, the Hawaiian and the Philippine Islands, and the Empires of China and Japan, put men upon thinking how our recent national experiences and the logic of events are making nigh at hand that which was once afar off, and bringing home to us the obligation of Christian Missions in distant lands and the islands of the sea.

A consequence was that the sum of one million dollars was determined upon as the amount which the Church's offerings for general Missions this year ought to reach, and that the Board of Managers was authorized and directed, in raising this amount, to adopt the system of apportionment. In the discharge of this duty the Board has, with as much moderation as possible, apportioned among the Dioceses and Missionary Districts the amount which it is absolutely necessary this year to receive in order to carry on work already undertaken.

It has gratified me to observe in this Diocese a very general appreciation of the situation and a loyal response to its demand. The apportionment plan, it has been recognized, is not a tax, nor an assessment. It is not intended as a measure of ability, nor need it interfere with free-will offerings. It is simply a business-like endeavor to inform the Church of the amount needed for the work, to ask each congregation to give at least its proportionate part of that amount, and thus to secure success where heretofore there has been failure. The plan seems to have appealed to the common sense of our people. As I have gone about the Diocese, I have found the Parishes almost without exception adopting the plan. Indeed, some Parishes have not only contributed what was asked, but have gone on to give more. It is my earnest hope that by September first there may be no Parish or Mission in this Diocese that has failed to make a liberal offering to the general Missions of the Church. Thus we may rise above parochialism and diocesanism. We get out of the isolation and contraction of restricted views and petty purposes through the uplift of the sympathy and companionship of a concerted effort by the whole Church.

I am not without hope that in this larger and more liberal spirit our interest in our own Diocesan Missions may receive a quickening. It is interesting to note that just twenty-five years have passed since you began to work under the present Canon of Diocesan Missions. Previous experiences had forced upon the Diocese the idea that, if the Convocations or Associations, which were only voluntary unions, could be legally organized and brought into close and living connection with the Diocesan missionary work, the conviction of responsibility for it would be wider and deeper among the Parishes. Therefore at the Convention of 1877, in St. John's Church in this city, there was brought in by the Rev. Dr. Tatlock, and after several amendments adopted, what was substantially the same as our present Canon XI. At the beginning of another quarter of a century it behoves us to take a fresh hold of this work. It may lack the romantic interest of some work farther off; but it appeals as strongly to our loyalty as Churchmen, and it devolves upon us in this Diocese with a weight of responsibility which we do not share with others.

After all it is worth while to remember that there is no conflict or collision here, and that the work is one, whether it be done beside the quiet Quinebaug or the broad Yang-tse. It is all the work of Christ and His Church, work to be carried on and pushed forward in His name and for His sake. As we look at our part therein, there is reason to thank God and take courage. The number of Candidates for Holy Orders in this Diocese is larger than it was a year ago. The number of Postulants has more than doubled. Allusion has been made to the general coöperation in the apportionment plan. Evidence of increased personal interest in Missions is to be found among the men in the Church Club as well as in the Woman's Auxiliary and the Junior Department with its successful agencies for the study of Missions, and in our Sunday School Auxiliary.

To speak only of this city of Hartford, three of our laypeople have recently, one after another, gone out to the field in China. And who may tell the sacrifice involved to those who have seen their loved ones go! In Trinity College a little circle of students have of their own motion organized themselves into a band with purpose to devote themselves to the aggressive work of the Church.

It is just that devotion of self that is the thing needed all along the line. Brethren of the Clergy and Laity, in our work for Christ and His Church, it is not to-day a question of further organization. We are certainly organized enough. It is, indeed a question whether there be not too many organizations within the Church. What we do want is not more machinery, but more power. And genuine power in these things is personal power. We need an increase of personal interest, a more earnest and entire personal consecration.

Of this personal power there is but one source. "Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts." It is easy to see the danger, it is still easier to fall into the habit, of merely mechanical because unspiritual activity even in God's name. It is easy in methods of what we call Church work to regard the outside shell rather than the life within, and to lose sight of the personal motive and meaning of it all.

It is well to pray to be delivered from dulness and blindness of heart here.

When the hand of the Lord came upon the prophet by the river Chebar, he saw not only the mechanism of the wheels, but also the wings that connected the vision with heaven. It is possible and it is vitally essential for us to-day, amidst the whirl and noise of our revolving machineries, not to forget the spirit of life in the wheels.

Let us pray for vision and for the spirit that is granted thereunto. It has been vouchsafed to faithful men, engaged in busy prosecution of the Church's work, or in discussion of ecclesiastical rules and methods, to see in the midst of the candlesticks one like unto the Son of Man. Jesus Himself has walked with them, and their hearts have burned within them and their eyes have been opened to know Him. May it be so in this Diocese! May it be so with us, Brethren, assembled here and now! May He who has vouchsafed His presence in blessed Sacrament abide with us into the evening, and teach us to do the things that shall please Him, guide us to a right judgment in all things, quicken, enlighten and enkindle us by His Spirit, the Spirit of love and power.

CHAUNCEY B. BREWSTER.

The Order of the Day being now the Report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons appointed at the last Convention, (which had been printed and distributed by mail to the Clergy and Lay Delegates about ten days before the Convention,) the Rev. Dr. Hart presented it as follows:

REPORT OF THE

COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden on the second Tuesday in June, 1902.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons begs leave respectfully to report in regard to the matters which have been referred to it.

(1) The last Convention (Journal, pages 37, 38) referred to this Committee two resolutions proposed by the Committee to prepare the Roll of Lay Delegates. The first, though suggested as a Standing Resolution, is really a proposition of an amendment to the Constitution, to the effect that "when the annual meeting of a parish neglects to choose Lay Delegates to the Convention, or substitutes, a subsequent meeting of the parish may supply the deficiency." The Constitution in Article IV. expressly directs that "each Parish in the Diocese shall at its annual meeting elect" its Lay Delegate or Delegates, and also gives authority for the election of substitutes. The Committee is of the opinion that a matter of so great importance as the election of members of the Convention should continue to be restricted to the annual parish meetings, and that it is not expedient to adopt an amendment to the Constitution for the advantage of parishes which neglect to comply with one of its express and most important requirements.

- (2) The second resolution proposed by the Committee to prepare the Roll of Lay Delegates was to the effect that "if a Parish Clerk neglects to certify the election of Lay Delegates, any other officer of the Parish may do so." There is no canonical or other provision at present that the election of Lay Delegates shall be certified by the Clerks of the several Parishes; and the Committee is of the opinion that a certificate of the action of a Parish meeting may be signed by either its presiding officer or its clerk. In the conceivable case of the impossibility of securing the attestation of either presiding officer or clerk, it would seem that it is in the power of the Committee on the Roll to accept such evidence as is satisfactory to it, or else that the matter should be referred to the Convention. It does not seem expedient to authorize the signing of a certificate by "any" officer of the Parish, a course of action which might lead to great confusion.
- (3) The Bishop in his address of last year (Journal, page 55) urged the importance of taking more time for the business of the Convention, and expressed the opinion that it might be "better to meet biennially, and then stay longer, than annually to hold a hurried session." The suggestion was (page 56) referred to this Committee. The members of the Committee find themselves entirely in sympathy with the Bishop's judgment that the work of the Convention demands more time than is ordinarily given to it, and that it is not wise or just to the great interests involved to crowd its acts of worship, of business, and of deliberation into one day. But, in the judgment of the Committee, it would be better to meet for two days, or at least for a day and a half, each year than to hold a meeting which could not well be longer than this, once in two years. Doubtless, the amendments which would be required in Diocesan Charters to adapt them to biennial reports could be secured from the General Assembly; but it may be questioned whether it would be expedient, under all conceivable circumstances, to require but biennial reports from Diocesan boards of trustees. The missionary work of the Diocese, not to mention other matters, ought to be brought before the Convention as often as once a year. And we cannot but believe that there will be found to be a sufficiently large number of the members of the Convention able to give more than one day to the details of its work, to ensure earnest and wise consideration of such business as may be deferred to the second day. The Committee, therefore, is of the opinion that the purpose of the Bishop's recommendation may be better attained by making allowance for longer sessions of the annual Convention; and, with the Bishop's consent, it recommends no change in the Constitution as to the time of holding the Convention.

- (4) The Committee was asked (Journal, page 65) "to consider whether it may not be expedient under some circumstances to permit a member of one Parish in this State to be at the same time a member of another Parish also." It is the judgment of the Committee that there is at the present time no sufficient reason for a change in the requirement that any person elected to membership in a Parish of this Diocese shall not be a member of any other ecclesiastical society in the State.
- (5) It was also referred to the Committee (Journal, page 65) "to consider whether some improvement may not be devised in the method of electing Deputies to the General Convention." The Committee is of the opinion that, inasmuch as the Constitution in Article X., while it requires a concurrent vote of the two orders voting separately in the election of Deputies to the General Convention, does not require that the orders shall separate and organize separately, an improvement in the method of such election may be made by the adoption of a Rule of Order; and it recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the following be adopted as a Rule of Order, to be numbered Rule XV.:

RULE XV. At the time appointed for the election of Deputies and supplemental Deputies to the General Convention, the clerical and lay members shall be seated in different parts of the place of meeting, and tellers shall be appointed for each order. After nomination in open Convention, the President shall call upon the clerical members to vote for clerical Deputies and also upon the lay members to vote for lay Deputies; and when either order has completed the balloting for Deputies of its own order, he shall call upon it to ballot for Deputies of the other order; and he shall declare those elected who have been chosen by concurrent vote. At any time during the election when neither order is balloting for Deputies or supplemental Deputies, the Convention may transact other business.

- (6) The Committee was also instructed (Journal, page 65) "to consider the possibility of adopting the method of the Diocese of Massachusetts in voting for Deputies to the General Convention and for members of the Standing Committee." The Committee is of the opinion that this method, involving the presentation of nominations in advance and the preparation of a large "Australian" ballot, is not necessary or expedient for use in this Convention.
- (7) The Committee was further instructed (Journal, page 65) "to consider the desirability of amending Article X. of the Constitution by omitting the words "in the order of priority of election." The Committee is of the opinion that it is not desirable to lay upon the Bishop or the President of the Standing Committee the responsibility, which might at times appear invidious, of choosing among those elected as supplemental Deputies the one who shall represent the Diocese in the General Convention. If a change is to be made, it seems to the Committee preferable to provide that a substitute shall be chosen for each of those who are elected Deputies.

- (8) The Convention still further referred to the Committee (Journal, page 71) a proposal to insert in Section 5 of Canon I. the following as (6): "By neglect to exercise any of the prerogatives of membership for a period of three successive years." The Committee appreciates the difficulty which it was proposed to meet by this provision for the termination of membership in a Parish; but it is of the opinion that in practice it would be impossible to give an accurate definition to the wording of the clause, and that the power given to the Vestry to revise the roll of the Parish is sufficient.
- (9) The Committee has been asked whether an unnaturalized foreigner may become a member of a Parish. Neither Canon nor Statute Law interposes any bar to an alien wishing to become a member of an ecclesiastical Society.
- (10) The Committee has also been asked to consider whether it might not well be provided in Rule of Order XVII. that all reports of Committees shall be considered as accepted and the Committee discharged, without motion, unless the Convention direct otherwise. The rule now provides that all reports of Committees shall be received as of course, but this involves no legislative act. The Committee is of the opinion that it would be unwise and of doubtful legality to provide for the acceptance of a report per incuriam without a motion made and a vote taken.
- (11) It has further been suggested to the Committee that in the form of Parochial Reports the entry as to contributions to the Bishop's Fund should be made to include the canonical assessment as well as the offerings for the increase of the Fund; and the Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the form of Parochial Reports in Section 3 of Canon II. the words "Bishop's Fund" be substituted for the words "Increase of Bishop's Fund."

And the Committee asks that it may be discharged from the further consideration of the matters referred to it.

All which is respectfully submitted.

Sylvester Clarke,
Samuel Hart,
Edwin S. Lines,
Morris W. Seymour,
Gardiner Greene,

Committee.

The matters contained in this Report having been taken up seriatim and explained by Dr. Hart, it was Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the propositions in Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8 and 10.

1902] 65

Resolved, That the proposition contained in Section 5 be indefinitely postponed.

Resolved, That in the form of Parochial Reports in Section 3 of Canon II. the words "Bishop's Fund" be substituted for the words "Increase of Bishop's Fund."

The second Order of the Day being the Report of the Committee appointed at the last Convention to prepare a Form for the Organization of Missions in the Diocese, Archdeacon Buck, Chairman of the Committee, presented the following

If the Standing Committee shall deem the offence charged as coming within the offences enumerated in the Canons of the Diocese of Connecticut, or of the General Convention, they shall present the charge to the Bishop in the following form:

To A. B., Bishop of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Standing Committee of this Diocese respectfully represent that C. D. has been accused under the hands of E. F. and G. D. for trial, agreeably to the Canons in such cases made and provided.

[Signed by the Standing Committee.]

All of such Presbyters not objected to or found disqualified shall sit as a Court.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep the records of the Archdeaconry, and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive contributions from the Parishes, and to forward to the Treasurer of the Missionary Society the amount required of the Archdeaconry less the amount appropriated by the Board to the Archdeaconry; to keep and account for the money of the Archdeaconry, paying out only such sums as he shall be authorized to pay by a regular meeting; and to present each year to the Board of Directors, at its annual meeting, above mentioned, a report of his receipts and disbursements during the year past.

- SEC. 4. Each Archdeaconry shall have control and distribution of the money received from the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society in aid of Mission Stations and feeble Parishes; shall apportion among its several Parishes and Missions the sums from time to time desired of it by the Board of Directors; and may at its own discretion, with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special missionary work, and raise funds for such purposes, provided it shall first have complied with the requirements of the Directors of the Missionary Society.

Appropriation shall be made by the District in aid of any organized Parish, except on the application of the Wardens and Vestrymen of said Parish, with the written consent and approval of the Minister, if there be one; and no Appropriation shall be made by any Archdeaconry in aid of any organized Parish, except on the condition that such Parish shall concede a portion of the time and services of its Rector to other work under the direction of the Archdeaconry, and comply with any other condition that by the Archdeaconry may be required of it.

CANON XII.—Repealing former Canons

All former Canons of this Diocese, not included in these Canons, are hereby repealed.

The Secretary shall make such changes in the numbering of Canons or Sections, or in references to Canons or Sections, as may be required at any time by resolutions of amendment to the Canons adopted by the Convention.

CHARLES L. HUTCHINS,

CONCORD, MASSACHUSETTS, March 1, A.D. 1902.

RESOLUTIONS

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Amend Article I., Section 2, of the Constitution by striking out the word "and" at the end of the second line and inserting in place thereof the word "or," and also by striking out the words "arising therefrom" in the third line, so that the section shall read as follows:

Section 2. Every Bishop of this Church having jurisdiction, every Bishop Coadjutor, and every Bishop who by reason of advanced age or bodily infirmity has resigned his jurisdiction, shall have a seat and a vote in the House of Bishops. A majority of all Bishops entitled to vote, exclusive of Foreign Missionary Bishops and of Bishops who have resigned their jurisdictions, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 3. The House of Bishops, by vote of a majority of all the Bishops entitled to a seat in the said House, shall elect one of the Bishops having jurisdiction within the United States to be nominated for confirmation by the House of Deputies to be the Presiding Bishop of the Church. The Presiding Bishop shall hold office for three years. He shall discharge such duties as may be prescribed by the Constitution and the Canons of the General Convention. But if the Presiding Bishop shall resign his office as such, or if he shall resign his episcopal jurisdiction, or if in the judgment of the House he shall become disabled by reason of infirmity, or if for any other reason a vacancy in the office shall occur, the senior Bishop by consecration having jurisdiction within the United States shall thereupon become the Presiding Bishop until the House of Bishops shall elect an acting Presiding Bishop, who shall hold office until the next meeting of the General Convention, at which the Presiding Bishop shall be elected.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

That Article I. of the Constitution be amended by adding thereto the following as Section 6, and changing the number of the present Section 6 to Section 7:

SECTION 6. Add to the first sentence of Article II., Section 1, after the words "Convention of the Diocese" the words:

Provided, however, that when a Diocese shall be formed out of a Missionary District, the Missionary Bishop in charge of said District shall become the Bishop of said Diocese, if he shall so elect.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Strike out Article 5 of the Constitution and insert the following as Article V. of the Constitution, viz.:

ARTICLE V.

SECTION 1. A new Diocese may be formed, with the consent of the General Convention and under such conditions as the General Convention shall prescribe by general Canon or Canons, (1) by the erection into a Diocese of the whole or of any part of one or more Missionary Districts; (2) by the division of an existing Diocese; (3) by the junction of two or more Dioceses or of parts of two or more Dioceses; or (4) by the junction of the whole or part of a Missionary District with a Diocese, or with any part of one or more Dioceses. The proceedings shall originate in a Convocation of the Clergy and Laity of the Missionary District called by the Bishop for that purpose; or, with the approval of the Bishop, in the Convention of the Diocese to be divided; or (when it is proposed to form a new Diocese by the junction of two or more Dioceses or of parts of two or more Dioceses) by mutual agreement of the Conventions of the Dioceses concerned, with the approval of the Bishop or the Ecclesiastical Authority of each Diocese. In case the Episcopate of a Diocese be vacant, no proceedings toward its division shall be taken until the vacancy is filled. During a vacancy in a Missionary District, the consent of the Presiding Bishop must be had before proceedings to erect it into a Diocese are taken. When it shall appear to the satisfaction of the General Convention, by a certified copy of the proceedings and other documents and papers laid before it, that all the conditions for the formation of the new Diocese have been complied with and that it has acceded to the Constitution and Canons of this Church, such new Diocese shall thereupon be admitted to union with the General Convention.

SECTION 2. In case one Diocese shall be divided into two or more Dioceses, the Bishop of the Diocese divided may elect the one to which he will be attached, and he shall thereupon become the Bishop thereof; and the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, may elect the one to which he will be attached, and (if it be not the one elected by the Bishop) he shall be the Bishop thereof.

SECTION 3. In case a Diocese shall be formed out of parts of two or more Dioceses, each of the Bishops and Bishops Coadjutor of the several Dioceses out of which the new Diocese has been formed shall be entitled, in order of seniority of consecration, to the choice between his own Diocese and the new Diocese so formed. In case the new Diocese shall not be so chosen, it shall have the right to choose its own Bishop.

SECTION 4. Whenever a new Diocese is formed and erected out of an existing Diocese, it shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese, out of which it was formed, except as local circumstances may prevent, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitution and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese. Whenever a Diocese is formed out of two or more existing Dioceses, it shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of that one of the said existing Dioceses to which the greater number of clergymen shall have belonged prior to the erection of such new Diocese, except as local circumstances may prevent, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitution and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese.

SECTION 5. A Diocese formed out of a Missionary District shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons to which such Missionary District was subject, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitution and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese.

SECTION 6. No new Diocese shall be formed which shall contain fewer than six Parishes, or fewer than six Presbyters who have been for at least one year canonically resident within the bounds of such new Diocese, regularly settled in a Parish or Congregation and qualified to vote for a Bishop. Nor shall such new Diocese be formed if thereby any existing Diocese shall be so reduced as to contain fewer than twelve Parishes and twelve Presbyters who have been residing therein and settled and qualified as above provided.

SECTION 7. The consent of the General Convention to the erection of a new Diocese shall not be given until it has satisfactory assurance of a suitable provision for the support of the episcopate.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed addition be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Add to Article X. of the Constitution the following:

And provided, further, that nothing in this Article shall be construed as restricting the authority of the Bishops of this Church to take such order as may be permitted by the Rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer or by the Canons of the General Convention for the use of special forms of worship.

APPENDIX C.

Report of the Registrar

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden on the second Tuesday in June, 1902.

The Registrar of the Diocese begs leave to present his report.

There have been sent me in the course of the past year, in part upon special request, the Journals of twelve Dioceses and Districts for 1900, those of thirty-six Dioceses and Districts for 1901, and the Journal of one District for 1902; the Secretary has also deposited with me four copies of the Journal of the General Convention of 1898 and the Journals of fifty Dioceses and Districts for 1901.

I have received from the Secretary official copies of the text of the Journal of the last Convention of the Diocese printed on record-paper; which, with those of the preceding years, acknowledged in my last report, have been suitably bound and lettered.

The Official Copyist of ancient records has deposited with me the extracts made by him from the Records and Registers of several Parishes, of an earlier date than 1800 and relating to other Parishes or places. His work for the year 1900-1901 was in the Parishes in New Cambridge, New Milford, Cheshire, Brookfield, New Canaan, Woodbury, Danbury, Newtown, and Brooklyn; that for 1901-1902 was in the Parishes in Huntington, Portland, Naugatuck, Plymouth, North Guilford, Oxford, Marbledale, Litchfield, and Hebron.

There have been placed in my custody the records of St. Peter's Church, Oxford, from 1769 to 1899, with a bundle of papers relating to the Parish; a package of old records of Grace Church, Saybrook (now in the Town of Old Saybrook); and the records of the Parish in New Cambridge, afterwards St. Matthew's Church, Plymouth, from 1747 to 1800.

I have received the Year-books of the Church Club of the Diocese for 1901 and 1902; the Year-book of St. John's Church, Hartford, for 1900; the twenty-first Annual Report of the Connecticut Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary with the twelfth Annual Report of its Junior Department; the Litchfield Archdeaconry Record; and the Minutes of the General Association and General Conference of Connecticut for 1901.

Mr. Isaac R. Cornwall of New Haven, in continuance of former gifts, has sent me Volume XI. of Christ Church Chronicle in numbers. There have also been sent me the Rev. Stewart Means's Sermon in memory of the Rev. Dr. Harwood, the Rev. George Brinley Morgan's Address on the fifteenth anniversary of his rectorship, the Rev. William A. Beardsley's Sermon on the bicentenary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, and the Rev. Hermann Lilienthal's historical Sermon at Christ Church, Hartford.

Dr. S. E. Emery and his sisters, of Newburyport, Mass., have presented from the library of their father, the late Rev. Dr. Samuel M. Emery of Portland, the first seventeen volumes of the Spirit of Missions (1836-1852) bound in eleven, and one volume containing the proceedings of the Board of Missions for years between 1823 and 1838, these included.

The Rev. Dr. John Binney has presented eleven Connecticut Journals and four other pamphlets; and I have obtained from the Rev. F. W. Harriman by exchange eight Protestant Episcopal Almanacs and one Living Church Almanac.

From the library of the late Miss Elizabeth Woodward of Middletown, there have been given me sixteen years of The Churchman between 1882 and 1901, these included, lacking eighteen numbers, and parts of six other years; also, several numbers of the Parish News of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Middletown, and eleven copies of Annual Reports of the Connecticut Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. The Churchman Company has given me five of the numbers lacking in Miss Woodward's set, thus completing three years. We have now in the Archives thirty-six half-yearly volumes of The Churchman complete and three volumes which lack but one number each, besides many numbers of other volumes.

I am indebted to the Rev. Wm. Lloyd Himes, Registrar of New Hampshire, for a very generous gift, including a set of Connecticut Journals 1840-1896, with the reprint of 1820 and thirteen duplicates; four Journals of the Eastern Diocese and one pamphlet relating to the same; Journals of Maryland 1843-1846, with a Sermon and a Charge by Bishop Whittingham; three Journals of Maine and four of Rhode Island lacking in our sets; six other Journals; twenty Almanacs; and three other pamphlets.

I am also greatly indebted to the Rev. Dr. Edmund F. Slafter, Registrar of Massachusetts, for the four Journals of the Eastern Diocese needed to complete our set from 1830 to 1842 inclusive, and also for a copy of the original Constitution of that Diocese.

I have secured by purchase a set of original Journals of Connecticut 1792-1819 inclusive; the General Convention Journal of July 1789; a set of General Convention Journals 1847-1895 (except 1877), with some duplicates; Journals of Delaware, 1791 and 1798; twenty Journals of New Jersey between 1787 and 1815; sixteen Journals of Kentucky between 1836 and 1858; and twenty-five Journals of Missouri between 1840 and 1869.

I have sent to the Registrar of Central New York the reprint of our Journals to 1820 and seventeen of later date, and one General Convention Journal; and to the Registrar of New Hampshire five Journals of other Dioceses.

During the year I have had all the Church periodicals and all the unbound Diocesan Journals in the archives arranged; a good number of the Journals are now ready for binding.

All which is respectfully submitted,

SAMUEL HART, Registrar.

APPENDIX TO REGISTRAR'S REPORT

In an appendix to his Report presented at the Convention of 1900, the Registrar announced that he had received from the official Copyist transcripts of entries found in the Records and Registers of the Parishes in Stratford, Derby, Stamford, Norwich, New Haven, and North Haven, of earlier date than 1800 and relating to other Parishes or places than the immediate cures of the Missionaries or Rectors by or under whom the entries were made; and a list of the other Parishes or places named in the entries of official acts in each of the six Parishes was published, in accordance with a resolution of the Convention, for the information of officials or other persons interested.

During the past two years the Copyist has searched the Records and Registers of twenty-six other ancient Parishes, and has made transcripts, as in the cases just mentioned, of all entries relating to places without the respective cures and all votes relating to extra-parochial matters. The memoranda and lists which follow contain the names of places entered as those in which extra-parochial ministrations were held, including (presumably) some instances where the places named were other than that of the Clergyman's residence, although they cover societies or districts of the Town which was accounted his Parish.

The authorities of Parishes interested are notified that the copies of entries relating to them are in the custody of the Registrar, and that they may be consulted and used.

Missionary Society

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

To the Convention:

Pursuant to Article V. of the Constitution, the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society makes its annual report of Appropriations and other proceedings for the year 1901-1902, as follows:

Appropriations and Apportionments

The last Convention (see Journal 1901, page 66) appropriated a sum not exceeding $12,000 for carrying on the missionary work of the Diocese during the ensuing year, in addition to the proceeds from the funds of the Society and other sources available for the purpose; and it was ordered that said sum be apportioned among the several Archdeaconries the basis of "Current Expenses (including salaries)," as reported in the last Journal; and that said sum be apportioned among the several Archdeaconries, as the Directors of the Society might deem best.

The net proceeds from the funds held by the Society and from other sources were estimated at about $750, thus making, with the $12,000 to be raised, the sum of $12,750 for missionary work.

For this work Appropriations were made as follows, viz.:

DONATIONS

The Board gratefully acknowledges the receipt of special of from Pequot Chapel, New London, The Woman's Church Miss Association, and St. Paul's Parish, Norwalk; and contributions to the debt of the Society from St. Andrew's Parish, Bloomfield, Rev Draper, New Milford, and Mr. James J. Goodwin.

LEGACIES

The legacy of $1,000 under the will of Flora M. Mallett, 1 Trumbull, notice of which was given in our last report, has bee during the year.

The Society has received $4.850 on account of the legacy of under the will of Caroline L. Sanford, late of Stamford.

A legacy of $100 under the will of Susan A. Tryon, late of N town, has been received during the year.

These legacies were used towards the payment of the debt Society, except $500 of the Mallett Legacy, which was used to co St. John's Chapel, Forestville.

LIABILITIES

By virtue of the legacies received, the amount of the liabilities has been reduced from $8,000 to $3,000. This indebtedness is due entirely to the failure of Fairfield and New Haven Archdeaconries to pay their Apportionments, and has been incurred for running expenses only. It is the accumulation of several years.

Additions

A new Rectory has been built on the land of the Society at Danielson. The Mission Chapel at Noank, the product of the Sunday School Advent offerings, is in process of construction.

A valuable sum has also been received for the benefit of St. Paul's, Southington, under the will of Mrs. O. D. Payne.

Conclusion

For the names of the several Parishes and Missions contributing to the Society, with the amount of their contributions, and for the names of the Parishes and Mission Stations receiving aid, with the amounts paid to them, as well as for a description of the condition and progress of missionary work in the Diocese, we refer you to the reports from the several Archdeaconries, all of which are herewith presented. (Appendix F.)

We are grateful for all efforts on our behalf, and welcome any contributions of money or labor; and we take this opportunity to thank all those who have helped us in this way.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board,

BURTON MANSFIELD, Secretary.

New HAVEN, CONN., August 12, 1902.

APPENDIX F.

REPORTS OF THE ARCHDEACONRIES

I.

fairfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Fairfield respectfully reports that the Archdeaconry has given aid to the same Parishes and Mission Stations, eight in number, as last year.

At Easton the customary services have been held regularly, and nearly a hundred pastoral visits have been made. We have not lost any of the members of this Parish during the past year, and have had three additions to our number. When considering the importance of the work at Easton, it is well also to remember that this assistance given there makes it possible to keep open the Church at Tashua, as the two Parishes are combined in one cure.

There is much, very much, to encourage us in the work in old St. Paul's, Huntington. The vacancy here was filled, on the first of January, by the appointment of the Rev. H. L. Everest, a Clergyman of ability and experience, who says in his last report that "the congregations and the Sunday School have increased largely. We had a good Lent and Easter. The people are in earnest in doing their part, trying to help themselves. We have organized a branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, also an Altar Guild of six efficient members. With help from outside friends we are beginning to refit our chancel."

The Rev. Mr. Goldsborough continues in charge at St. Peter's Church, Monroe, and the condition of the work remains about the same.

At Nichols the Parish Church is in good repair, and services have been held regularly. The Parish has held its own, and is out of debt for current expenses. In December a class of five received Confirmation.

At Redding the present Rector has been in charge only since September first. He reports that everything connected with this Parish is in a very encouraging condition. The fencing formerly surrounding the rectory was in ruins, but it has now been newly built. The Rector has raised nearly two hundred dollars and turned it over to the Parish treasurer to be used for repairs on the rectory.

Emmanuel Church, Weston, has been served by the Rector of Redding since November third. Matters were discouraging and so continued for some time. The Parish was in debt, and it was slow work paying it off. But within the last two months things have brightened considerably. Both the congregations and the offerings have increased.

The Rev. W. I. Magill has continued his faithful work at the in the town of Greenwich. At Glenville the same conditions obtalast year's report. Some progress has been made at Round H outlook, however, is more hopeful than at any time since the Missionary has been in charge. The Church building, within at out, is in the best condition. At St. John's Chapel, Byram, this a good year. Financially, and in other ways, the Mission gives of increasing strength. The Missionary, who has seen the day things, is greatly encouraged for the future. He wishes to put o his sincere thanks to the Rector of Christ Church, Greenwich, for aid during the year.

The Rev. Eaton W. Maxcy, D.D., an example to his brethindevoted Parish Priest, has continued to push the work at St. Bridgeport, and the year has been marked by many tokens of blessing. The services are well attended, there is excellent must the Sunday School is still the largest of any that we have in The people are doing all they possibly can; but their means are and an appropriation from your Society is still a necessity.

At St. George's Mission, Bridgeport, the transfer to it of the used by the congregation from the beginning has been accomplist a trustee appointed on behalf of the Mission now holds the tithere is considerable encumbrance upon the property. The Mi in charge, the Rev. George A. Robson, still continues to engage in work because of insufficient financial support.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

II.

Litchfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Litchfield respectfully reports that the work of the Archdeaconry has been carried on during the past year in much the same quiet, effectual way which has long characterized it.

The Archdeaconry, near the close of the year, lost the effective leadership of Archdeacon George, who removed from the District.

During the year two Parishes. Marbledale and Roxbury, have become self-supporting. This was due to the generosity of Miss Salome Morehouse, who left by will to each Parish about $10,000 to become a permanent fund.

In Bridgewater hard and faithful work has been done by the Rector, the Rev. W. H. Dean, in spite of considerable disability owing to sickness. A class of eight was presented for Confirmation, and the services have been regularly maintained. The conditions in Bridgewater are not all that could be desired, and probably never will be; but the good work of the present Rector deserves recognition, and doubtless will bear fruit.

Christ Church, Canaan, continues to do its quiet work under the rectorship of the Rev. M. H. Mill. This Parish will probably be the next to become self-sustaining, and we hope to see it so at no distant day. Already it has almost reached the point, but hesitates to take the final step.

St. Andrew's, Kent. has prospered under the care of the Rev. G. H. Smith. Though the Parish is small in numbers and in means, it has ever been characterized by a high sense of honor and duty. Such is the spirit that should be encouraged, and it is the desire of the Archdeacon to increase their appropriation this year.

Plymouth, East Plymouth and Terryville are under the charge of the Rev. J. D. Gilliland. A class of nineteen was confirmed this year in the Parish Church at Plymouth; and of these, twelve were from the Terryville Mission. It is needless to say that good and satisfactory work is being done in spite of many discouragements through losses by death and removal.

Marbledale and Roxbury received aid until January 1st, when both decided to ask for help no longer. In both places the best of work is being done, and the Parishes builded on firm and solid foundations.

Riverton continues to be a problem. We cannot desert the few faithful souls there, yet neither is there prospect of betterment in the conditions. The only solution seems to be the present one, of granting to Riverton an appropriation to be given to the Rector of St. John's Church, Pine Meadow, for regular ministrations.

St. Paul's, Woodbury, continues to prosper under the rectorship of the Rev. L. Robert Sheffield. Besides this Parish, Mr. Sheffield has charge of Christ Church, Bethlehem, and also holds services in Southbury. It is a hard field, and requires much physical as well as mental labor; but the present incumbent has proved equal to it, and the Parishes have been strengthened and increased year by year.

Oakville has not had a resident Minister in charge during the last half year. It is under the care of the Rector of Christ Church, Watertown. No appropriation has been asked for.

The Parish of Trinity Church, Northfield, seems to be awakening to new life. An appropriation has been asked for. For many years dissensions within the Parish have prevented any work being done; but a disposition to unite and work for the Master's cause seems now to prevail and deserves encouragement.

The services in the Church of the Transfiguration, Norfolk, were maintained as usual during the summer season last year. All expenses were paid and all canonical assessments met. This year many of the chief supporters of the Chapel are not expecting to return, but it is hoped that others will take their places.

This year the Archdeaconry asks for less than last year by $175, and though it may be but a vision, it seems to see the day approaching when it shall give as much as it receives.

Every Parish and Mission has paid its apportionment in full.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. Plumb, Archdeacon.

New haven Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of New Haven respectfully reports:

Ten Parishes and one Mission have been aided during the past year. The assisted Parishes are Christ Church, Bethany; Grace Church, Hamden; Christ Church, East Haven; St. Luke's Church, New Haven; Zion Church, North Branford; St. Andrew's Church, Northford; St. John's Church, North Guilford; St. Peter's Church, Oxford; Christ Church, Quaker Farms; and St. James's Church, New Haven (Westville).

The assisted Mission is in South Meriden, under the care of the Rev. Robert C. Tongue, Rector of All Saints' Church, Meriden. This is a most encouraging work and worthy of the small amount ($50) which the Archdeaconry appropriates each year. There is a Sunday School of fifty-five scholars and teachers.

St. James's Church, New Haven (Westville), is still under the efficient care of the Rev. J. Frederick Sexton, who has been diligent in all the parish work. The services have been well attended. The Church building has been repaired during the past year, and the Rectory made comfortable by the gift from a friend of a hot-water heater.

The Rev. Lewis F. Morris reports that Christ Church, Bethany, goes along as usual. It being strictly speaking a rural Parish, there is very little chance for growth. "We are the only religious society that maintains a resident Minister in Bethany. The Parish is out of debt, and has in the bank a little money, which will be used in making needed repairs on the Church building."

It is a great pleasure to report that St. Luke's Church, New Haven, our work among the colored people, is in a most flourishing condition. The faithful Rector, the Rev. Eugene L. Henderson, says in his report that St. Luke's "shows indications of life, and notwithstanding some serious drawbacks during the year, the past has been one of steady progress. One of the hopeful signs for St. Luke's is that people hitherto prejudiced and antagonistic are becoming friendly, and some of them have become candidates for Confirmation." The day is not far distant when St. Luke's congregation must have a new Church building. A class of thirty-one was confirmed the past year.

Christ Church, East Haven, is under the care of the Rev. John H. Jackson, Deacon. Mr. Jackson seems to be infusing new life into this Parish, and confidence seems to be restored.

Christ Church, Quaker Farms, and St. Peter's Church, Oxford, have been under the pastoral supervision of the Rev. William S. Rafter the past year, as Minister in charge. The Bishop made a visitation to both of these Parishes in April last, and confirmed ten persons. The Archdeacon accompanied the Bishop.

The Rev. James E. Coley, Minister in charge of Grace Church, Hamden, reports that the condition of the Parish is encouraging, although weak financially. It is only by the assistance of the Archdeaconry that the Parish is able to report anything like a possibility of meeting necessary expenses.

The Rev. J. D. S. Pardee, Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Northford, reports that the services are well attended, and says, "I am pleased to report there is a gradual increase in number, especially at the evening service. The Church has been repaired, and a new carpet placed upon the floor. The people seem deeply interested, and the future prospects of St. Andrew's are encouraging."

St. John's Church, North Guilford, and Zion Church, North Branford, are still under the spiritual care of the Rev. A. MacDougall, Ph.D. In his report the Rector says: "I have but little to write. We move along quietly and most agreeably, but we cannot possibly make the advance which we would wish. The material is not here. Services in both places are supported largely by endowment. There are but few persons who are in a position to contribute to any fair extent to the schemes of the Church."

From the above reports it will be noted that the work of the New Haven Archdeaconry is entirely given, with one exception, this year, as last, to the support of established Parishes. Apparently in several cases, as the Archdeacon remarked in his first report, there is not much encouragement for the future; and yet it is most desirable and only proper that the services of our Church should be given to the faithful few who are still residing within the boundaries of these rural Parishes.

The Parishes and Missions receiving assistance have been paid their appropriations. The Parishes, with few exceptions, have paid their apportionments in full for the current year, and the total amount received by the Treasurer is larger than last year.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

George Hickman Buck,

Archdeacon of New Haven.

Hartford Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Missionary work in the Hartford Archdeaconry has been, on the whole, encouraging. Most of the Churches have been well manned, and progress has been steady. We have only words of praise for our Missionaries. They are earnest, self-sacrificing, consecrated and efficient.

Trinity Church, Collinsville; Grace Church, Newington; St. Luke's, South Glastonbury; and the Churches in Suffield and Windsor Locks, have all had a year of quiet prosperity.

The people of St. John's, Forestville, are happy in their new, beautiful Chapel. It was consecrated by Bishop Brewster, June 20th, in connection with a large meeting of the Archdeaconry. In their prosperity they have reduced their application for aid from $100 to $80. The Rev. Wm. H. Morrison is still Rector.

St. Gabriel's, East Berlin, has had a most disappointing year. Nearly half of the active supporters of the Mission have moved away. The income fell off from over six to four dollars a week. The Minister in charge, the Rev. Stephen H. Alling, was compelled to resign for lack of support, the first Sunday after Easter. Since that time the Rev. Robert H. Burton, a Deacon, has supplied from Hartford. He has found little there to encourage him. There seems to be a sad lack of both harmony and interest among the people.

St. James's Church, Glastonbury, has had an awakening under the vigorous ministry of the Rev. Joseph R. Peckham. Unfortunately Mr. Peckham was called to a larger field, May 1st. Immediate steps have been taken to fill his place. The people have increased their subscriptions from $400 to $500, and there is a better outlook than for many years.

The Rev. Herbert B. Pulsifer assumed the charge of the Church of Our Saviour, Plainville, December 1st. The field is a discouraging one, but he has done as well as any one could ask. He has held 125 services, presented 3 for Confirmation, and baptized 9. The outlook is not as bright as we could wish.

The patient, wise labors of the Rev. J. F. George in Rockville are beginning to tell in permanent results. Church attendance has increased, new families have been added, the income has been enlarged, the Sunday School has been graded and otherwise improved, and the Church has taken a higher position in the city. They are still handicapped by a burdensome debt. If that was removed the Parish would be self-supporting.

St. Paul's, Southington, under the lead of the Rev. Alfred Taylor, keeps up its record of splendid progress. The event of the year was the consecration of a new organ costing over $1,600. The stipend of the Minister has been increased; and, best of all, the spiritual life of the Mission has deepened.

Christ Church, Unionville, after two years, has found a Rector. The Rev. Reginald R. Parker began his work there on Whitsunday. He was most cordially received.

St. James's, Farmington, is united and prosperous under the leadership of the new Rector, the Rev. E. B. Dean.

Grace Church, Broad Brook, has been admirably served by Mr. Edmund J. Cleveland, Jr., a student in Trinity College, under the direction of the Rev. William J. Brewster of Warehouse Point. Excellent progress has been made. They are anxious to secure a resident Rector, but we think it best to ask them to continue the present arrangement for another year. The stipend would be only $600. It is a real hardship to ask a Clergyman to support himself upon that sum.

Mr. Richard A. Edwards, a Trinity student, has been reading for St. Andrew's, Bloomfield, and will continue there.

The Rev. Jesse E. Heald has had a busy and most interesting year at Trinity Church, Tariffville. The students from Westminster School and Woodside Seminary, in Simsbury, have helped to swell the congregation. A large class was presented for Confirmation, and the financial condition of the Parish has improved.

We have opened up no new work. There is opportunity in Hartford and Manchester. We hope to take advantage of it.

The meetings of the Archdeaconry have been remarkable for both attendance and interest. The Missionary spirit among the Clergy is profound. The outlook for the Church is more encouraging than for many years.

JACOB A. BIDDLE, Archdeacon.

Middlesex Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Middlesex begs leave to report:

He is happy to be able to say that, in spite of the usual discouragements and drawbacks, in no year since he has become Archdeacon have the conditions in most parts of his field seemed healthier or more promising. Particular note will be made of this in the proper places. Five Parishes and five Mission Stations have been assisted by the Archdeaconry to about the same extent as they were assisted last year; viz.: the Holy Advent, Clinton; Epiphany, Durham; Emmanuel Church, Killingworth; St. Paul's, Middlefield; Christ Church, Middle Haddam; and the Missions at Ponsett, Westbrook, Ivoryton, Chester and Hadlyme.

The rectorship of the Holy Advent, Clinton, which was vacant at the beginning of the conventional year, has been filled, the Rev. George M. Stanley, for twenty-one years the faithful Rector of St. James's Church, Winsted, having been called to take charge. He reports that a rectory has been purchased at a cost of $3,200, and $2,000 paid upon it. This Parish is important out of proportion to its size, not only on account of the growing summer colony at Clinton, but also on account of the Morgan Boarding School nearby, which is attended by many pupils from Church families. The new Rector hopes for some strength and increase from these sources.

Epiphany Church, Durham, and St. Paul's, Middlefield, continue about the same under the Rev. Joseph Hooper, with nothing new to note, having all they can do to keep up against the constant drain by death and removal, and with very little chance of growth from new material.

The scattered flocks at Killingworth and Ponsett hold together remarkably well in spite of many discouragements, the farms about them fast falling into the hands of alien peoples who have no affinity for the Church. The Rev. Mr. Knowles, who has faithfully ministered to them for many years, has recently begun to hold occasional services at the old town of Haddam, where, though there cannot be much prospect of increase, there is opportunity for doing some good.

Christ Church, Middle Haddam, had some trying experiences at the beginning of the conventional year, its services having to be suspended for several weeks owing to an epidemic of small-pox in the town. It was also for some months without a Rector, the Rev. Mr. Sniffen having resigned in June and removed from the Archdeaconry. But, with the coming of Prof. S. R. Colladay to take charge in the fall, everything changed, the people took new heart and new interest was awakened, so that things look bright there now.

The Mission at Hadlyme, which was opened only a few years ago, has scored a great success in the erection of a neat and substantial Chapel at a cost of $1,250, all of which has been raised and paid. The Chapel was opened and consecrated by the Bishop in the fall, a large number from Middletown and other parts of the Archdeaconry being present to rejoice with the earnest people of the Mission. Great credit is due to the Minister-in-charge, the Rev. Mr. Griffith of St. Stephen's Church, East Haddam, whose patience and zeal have been mainly instrumental in achieving this success. Judge Willey, although 84 years old, still reads service and makes an address on the morning of every Lord's Day. The whole history of the Mission is an object lesson of Church interest and zeal.

The Missions at Ivoryton and Chester, which were a source of uneasiness to the Archdeacon at this time last year, have entirely changed for the better. They have taken on new life and developed much strength. There has been no lapse of a service at either place on a single Sunday throughout the year.

The Mission at Chester has been served, since January, by a lay-reader from Yale College, Mr. Burton H. Lee. The congregations have grown, the people are united and enthusiastic, and have begun a fund for a Chapel.

All Saints' Mission at Ivoryton was taken in charge early in the winter by the Rector and Vestry of St. John's Church, Essex, on the invitation of the Bishop and Archdeacon. The Rector at Essex holds service there on the evening of every Lord's Day, and celebrates the Holy Communion each month at 9 A. M. He reports that the hall where they meet is not adequate to accommodate the large number who wish to attend, besides being inconveniently situated; and a little Chapel of our own is an imperative necessity. Ivoryton certainly offers an unusual opportunity for the building up of a thriving Mission. It is full of young people working in the factories, and there is no place of worship for them to attend except a Congregational Chapel some distance from the center of the village. The Minister-in-charge gives assurance that if the Missionary Board would furnish the building lot, there would be no difficulty in obtaining funds in the place to build a nice Chapel. He has secured the refusal of a good site, awaiting the action of the Board. The Mission is at present feeling the impulse of a new awakening, and it is an opportunity not to be passed by. Much credit is due to the Rev. Percy Barnes for his earnest work there during the past six months.

The Mission at Westbrook is largely a summer one, although services have been regularly maintained throughout the year. But there is not much to work on in the winter. Mr. J. W. Walker, a student at Trinity College, has been the lay-reader. None of our Missions are strong enough to support a Clergyman, and they are too far apart to be easily united into one charge; so lay-reading is the best we can afford with the small means at our disposal.

Grateful acknowledgment is due to the Rev. H. L. Mitchell, Rector of Grace Church, Saybrook, who has kindly celebrated the Holy Communion once a month at Westbrook.

140 [1902

We shall need for our work the ensuing year quite as much assistance from the Board as we received last year, and a little more if it can be spared.

All of our Parishes, with one exception, have paid their apportionments. This one probably will soon be heard from.

Before closing this report, the Archdeacon would state, that the Rev. U. H. Spencer, whose break-down in health and resignation of his charge was noted last year, removed to California some months ago, where he died. Mr. Spencer came among us with the apparent determination and hope to do a good work for Christ and his Church. But the fatal disease which finally cut him off had a fast hold of him, unbeknown to himself and to us, and almost ere he had taken up his tools he was compelled to lay them down again. He was a man of quiet Christian worth and was well spoken of by the people of the Mission.

Respectfully submitted,

O. H. RAFTERY, Archdeacon.

New London Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

During the past year the Archdeacon has visited officially all of the Missions and aided Parishes in his territory except two. At these visitations the Lay Helpers, or Vestrymen, have been called together to meet the Archdeacon, to discuss the existing conditions and devise plans for future work. As the result of these visitations, the Archdeacon makes the following report:

St. Peter's, Hebron, is one of the oldest Parishes in the United States, and about it cluster some of the most picturesque incidents in American Church history. A former Rector, the Rev. Dr. Peters, was a most untiring missionary. Stories of his journeys through the Connecticut Valley as far north as to Claremont, N. H., and then across the Green Mountains and down the Champlain Valley, are still told by the grandchildren and great-grandchildren of those early settlers to whom he ministered. Who can ever know how much of the present prosperity of the Diocese of Vermont (of which he was elected Bishop, though never consecrated) is due to the Rev. Dr. Peters, of St. Peter's Parish. Hebron? In the days of Hebron's prosperity generous legacies were left for the support of the Parish; the income from these legacies is now scarcely one-third of what it has been, and the venerable Parish must be supported in thankful recognition of its past benefits to the Church at large. The Rev. John H. Fitzgerald, the present Rector, ministers also at Colchester, Andover, Turnerville and all the region about. At Calvary Church, Colchester, the people have responded cheerfully to the Archdeacon's requests, and are contributing as liberally as their means will allow to the support of their Parish.

The Rev. Theodore M. Peck is ministering to the three Missions in the Lymes. It seems to the Archdeacon that the time has come when Niantic, Flanders and Millstone require more services than it is possible for one man to give. The Girls' Friendly Society of the Diocese has agreed to support a member of the senior class of the New York Deaconess's Training School at Niantic during the coming summer. It is hoped that the problem of this region may be solved by making it an Associate Mission, with one Priest and a Deacon or layman to help him; or by putting two Priests into this field.

The Rev. Paul F. Hoffman resigned the Groton Mission last October. Since then the services have been maintained by Mr. William M. Stark as a lay-reader, with the Rev. Alfred Poole Grint, Ph.D., going from time to time to celebrate the Holy Eucharist. The Rev. Millidge Walker is expected to take charge of the Mission in May.

The Rev. Albert Corey Jones has taken charge of St. Mark's, Mystic, and the Ascension Chapel at Noank. Evidences of renewed and vigorous life at Mystic are plainly seen. Work is already begun upon the new stone Chapel at Noank; and the money to pay for it has been contributed by the Sunday Schools of the Diocese.

Calvary Church, Stonington, has made a decided advance in the last few years. The present Rector, the Rev. Richard D. Hatch, has recently presented one of the largest classes for Confirmation ever presented in the Parish. The establishment of electric lights in all the parish buildings, an enlarged organ and a redecorated Church, show signs of improved financial condition.

St. James's, Poquetanuck, the Rev. William H. Jepson, Rector, has met the requirements of the Archdeaconry. The Parish itself is in such good condition, that with its endowment and an increase of offerings on the part of the Communicants, it should soon cease to be an aided Parish.

The Rev. Henry Macbeth continues in charge of St. Paul's Church, Willimantic, and St. Paul's Church, Windham. The Church in Willimantic has lost through removal some of its best supporters, and therefore cannot become self-supporting this year. In several of the cities and large towns of eastern Connecticut the operatives in the mills form a large percentage of the population; and, owing to its shifting about from place to place, our Churches must be maintained as Missions, when it would seem that the cities were large enough to support Parishes.

St. Alban's, Danielson, the Rev. George A. Alcott, Missionary-incharge, rejoices in a new rectory, built and paid for during the past year. The funds were raised by the indefatigable Missionary, aided by the Archdeaconry's appropriation; and the Mission surrenders a large proportion of its appropriation. Both St. Alban's and its Mission at Moosup have made decided growth this last year.

St. Philip's, Putnam, under the care of the Rev. C. S. M. Stewart, has made healthy growth. The mortgage on the Rectory has been reduced, all its bills paid up to Easter, and the outlook is most encouraging.

Grace Church, Stafford Springs, has not been officially visited.

The New London Archdeaconry covers nearly one-half of the State, and that the most thinly populated portion. Except in the hill towns, where the population is decreasing, the Church is showing an increased life and activity. The Archdeacon has recommended in all Missions and aided Parishes the adoption of the envelope system, or a system of definite pledges, for the support of the Mission or Parish. And he is convinced that with a system of pledges some of the aided Parishes would soon become again self-supporting.

The Archdeacon recommends for the future a reduction of from five to fifteen per cent. on all appropriations to active Mission Stations; and that no Priest be located where the salary paid by the people is less than $600 per annum.

Respectfully submitted,

LUCIUS MARTIN HARDY,

Archdeacon of New London.

Church Scholarship Bociety

ANNUAL MEETING AND REPORT

TRINITY CHURCH, HARTFORD, June 10, 1902.

The annual meeting was held at this time and place, the Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., President, in the chair.

The Rev. Oliver H. Raftery, Secretary, presented the following

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The first thought of the Board of Education of the Church Scholarship Society, in summing up the record of the past year, is the great loss which the Society has sustained in the death of its late faithful and most efficient Secretary and Treasurer, the Rev. Cornelius Gardner Bristol, who passed into the rest of Paradise on the thirtieth of November last. He had held both these offices for a period of more than seven years; and it is not too much to say that anyone who has sat with him on the Board of Education and has watched his conduct of its affairs, will find it hard adequately to express his sense of the debt which this Society owes to him. The duties of these offices are not light when performed with even ordinary attention and care; but his discharge of them was far from ordinary. He threw himself enthusiastically into the interests of this Society, and spent himself unsparingly in its service; and its present sound and prosperous condition is due, in no small degree, to his wise, zealous and business-like administration of its affairs. It is gratifying to know that he lived long enough to see his ideals for the Society largely realized. In his last report a year ago he writes: "The Church Scholarship Society has come to the close of the seventyfourth year of its existence, after a very successful period, and with prospects of a bright future. That the policy of the Society still commends itself to its old patrons, and that it has raised up new friends, is evidenced by the fact that along four lines at least its success has marked. First, the amount of offerings received from Parishes during the past twelve months has been much above the average for the last ten years. Second, the number of Parishes contributing (66) is larger than in any year since 1880. Third, the amount of individual offerings has been larger than in any year of which the Secretary has record. And fourth, the number and amount of the repaid notes sur146 [1902 passed any year since 1876." If one should attempt to particularize and point out the special lines along which Mr. Bristol's services were most valuable and successful, they would be these; and no words could better summarize the difficult and delicate work which he did for the Society, and which will tell for years to come, deserving not merely present acknowledgment but lasting appreciation.

In respect to the business of the year, the Board would report that fifty-four Parishes have complied with the Canon in taking up offerings for the Society, as against sixty-six last year. But the total receipts from the Parishes have been larger than last year; $670 as against $614. Twelve notes aggregating $355 have been paid in full, and three in part. Eight students are at present being assisted by the Society, six at Trinity College and two at the Berkeley Divinity School; and good accounts have been received of the character and scholarship of all. A legacy of $100 has been received from the estate of the Rev. J. L. Scott of Wallingford.

In rounding out the period of 75 years of continuous service to the Church in Connecticut, as it does this year, the Church Scholarship Society may be pardoned if it takes just pride in its record and achievements. The Board expects to mark this anniversary by publishing a pamphlet next year on the history and work of the Society. It may therefore suffice to say now. (if we may quote the figures compiled by a member of the Board, Mr. Samuel Taylor of Hartford.) "that in the whole period since its formation in 1827 there have been 2,484 separate payments to beneficiaries, at an average of $35 each, making a total of about $81,000." Those benefited are to be found in every Diocese in the country, and have expressed the greatest gratitude for the aid extended to them. "Your Society helped me when I needed it, and the debt I owe it is near to me all the time." writes one: "I shall always have a kindly feeling for the Society, which relieved me of so much anxiety during my college days." writes another: and so on.

We are living in an age which requires, more than any age that has gone before it, a well-equipped, educated Ministry; and it is for this that the Church Scholarship Society stands. Surely its seventy-five years of useful and unselfish service ought to be remembered and speak for it. We commend it to the sympathy, the prayers and the generous support of the whole Church in Connecticut, until every Parish in the Diocese shall see not only its duty but its opportunity to take up an annual offering for its work.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board of Education.

O. H. RAFTERY, Secretary.

On motion, the Report was accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal.

Mr. Ward C. Powell. Treasurer, then presented his Report, which was disposed of in like manner.

REPORT OF DIOCESAN COMMISSIONERS

During the twelve months ending June 1, 1901, twenty-seven Paris Ites and one individual gave to the Fund the sum of $576.95. During the last twelve months ending June 1, 1902, nineteen Parishes have given the sum of $222.84. Comparing this conventional year with the last, our offering has decreased in the sum of $354.11.

Your Commissioners are somewhat at a loss as to what course O pursue to arouse an interest in the matter. The Convention of 1887 recommended annual contributions from every congregation. The recommendation has not been complied with during the last year by 129 Parishes out of the 148 that are in union with this Convention. Nearly one-half of these contributing Parishes, it is to be noted, have small Communicant lists. With but two or three exceptions, those Parishes with large memberships and well-known financial ability have failed to respond to the recommendation of this Convention. Perhaps it would be well for the Clergymen and laymen of Connecticut to read the report made to the Board of Missions in San Francisco, last October, by the special Committee through its Chairman, the Bishop of Central Pennsylvania. A portion of that report reads as follows: "This is one of our chosen Missionary agencies. We have created it, and called it into existence for a certain large and important purpose. The Bishops have, with striking unanimity, in the strongest language, commended it. It is ary now that the Church should recognize it as a part of machinery; as incorporated into its Missionary system, and ith our loyal support."

contributions is appended.

JNO. H. SAGE,
Diocesan Commissioners.

The number of Communicants appears smaller this year owing to those at South Lyme being reported separately. There are about ten other Communicants in the field of the Mission registered elsewhere.

The Neighborhood Guild, the Sewing School, and the Boys' Club have had an unusually successful season, with large and regular attendance, and good work accomplished.

During Lent the Guild prepared articles for the Mountaineers at Tryon, N. C., valued at $24.50.

During the year the balance due on the barn has been paid, and the barn thoroughly painted, at a cost of $25.00, which is also paid.

The Minister now in charge has only been there since the second Sunday after Easter. April 13th, so found it difficult to make a correct report on account of a new Treasurer having lately been elected, and from the fact of so many having moved from East Berlin within the past year. There is now a good prospect of the trolley being extended from Berlin to East Berlin, which ought to help the town and the Mission.

Would also add that the Guild have $75 in bank towards building horse sheds in Church yard. The Guild and the King's Daughters have been very helpful.

The Rector has been in charge of the Parish four months. This, in a measure, accounts for the omission of quite a few items which entered into last year's report. Substantial repairs, to the effect of beautifying and rendering the Rectory most convenient, have been completed, the expense being met by the hearty cooperation of the Men's and Ladies' Guilds. The latter Guild has in hand a sufficient sum to re-carpet and thoroughly renovate the Church building. Altogether the outlook is bright.

Zion Church, North Branford, gratefully acknowledges the gift of some four hundred (400) Sunday School books from Trinity Church, Branford, through the Rector, the Rev. Henry William Winkley.

On account of scarcity of material, progress is necessarily slow; but there is a brighter future for North Branford. Our people are loyal and the future is hopeful.

In addition to my work at St. James's, Ponsett, and Emmanuel Church, Killingworth, I began in May, 1901, to hold service in St. Luke's Mission Room, Chester. With the exception of three stormy Sundays, one service was held each Sunday until November. One adult and two children were baptized. These baptisms will appear in the Archdeacon's report.

Since March 16th I have held evening service once in two weeks at Haddam.

Here appears to be a suitable opening for a Mission.

Church, and is carried on by the July, 1901, to December, by Rev. Mr. Sidney A. Dixon, M.A., La	ie Re Clau iy Re	ly a branch of the Parish of Ch ctor of Christ Church, assisted, fi de N. A. Pooley, Deacon, and now ader. Little or no progress has b	by been made until lately. Now, however, the Lay Reader begins to see encouraging signs. No separate report of the finances need be made, as the Mission does not attempt to do more than raise the small amount required to keep up the Chapel and its services, and to pay its assessment to Diocesan Missions. The "Families," "Communicants," etc., reported above are really enrolled among those pertaining to Christ Church, but for convenience those residing in Oakville are enumerated separately. Baptisms, marriages, etc., are recorded in the Christ Church Register.

Note.—"Sittings" and "Free Sittings" are given as last reported, usually in 1899, but sometimes earlier. These items, being permanent and not changing annually, were omitted from the form for Parochial Report by the Convention of 1899, on the understanding that the Secretary would publish them in a separate list. Omissions in the list have been supplied so far as possible.

APPENDIX S.

Educational and Charitable Institutions

Maintained or conducted by Churchmen, and located in Connecticut, but not under the control of the Diocese

Extract from Title I., Canon 20, § vi. of the Digest; (Canons of the General Convention, Edition of 1901.)

"All incorporated schools, all parochial schools, all academies and colleges, and all hospitals, asylums for orphans or other children of either sex, maintained at the expense, or conducted under the management of members of this Church, are expected to report annually to the Bishop of the Diocese at the annual Convention, such reports to be disposed of as the parochial reports; and at every General Convention the tabular view of the state of the Church in each Diocese, and the report of the Committee on the State of the Church shall include the results of such reports."

In order to give effect to this Canon, the Secretary of the Diocese last year procured information from various institutions of the classes referred to, and submitted a brief conspectus, venturing also to suggest that the annual reports called for by the Canon be made hereafter regularly to the Bishop.

It does not seem necessary to reprint this information every year; and the inquirer is referred to the Journal for 1901, pages 282-287, for a statement of the history, object, endowment, management and terms of admission of each of the following institutions:

TRINITY COLLEGE, HARTFORD;

THE POMFRET SCHOOL FOR BOYS;

THE WIDOWS' HOME, HARTFORD;

THE CHURCH HOME, HARTFORD;

THE OPEN HEARTH, HARTFORD;

THE CURTIS HOME, MERIDEN; (for women and children);

St. Luke's Home for Destitute and Aged Women, Middletown;

THE TRINITY CHURCH HOME, NEW HAVEN; and

St. John's Church House, Stamford.

During the past year a new institution has been founded.

Matters of especial interest

The proposal to change the name of this Church, on which an expression of opinion was desired by a Committee of the General Convention, is discussed by the Bishop in his Address (pages 56 to 64), and the action of the Convention is given on pages 64 to 67.

A request from the Diocese of Milwaukee to join in petitioning the General Convention to establish a Provincial System with Courts of Appeal, was referred to a Special Committee to report next year. (Pages 74, 75.)

Three new Parishes were admitted to union with the Convention. (Page 65.)

A slight change was made in Canon I., Section 9, concerning the time of the annual Parish Meeting. (Pages 71, 72.)

The Assessment for the Convention Fund was reduced to one-half of one per cent. (Page 71.)

Apportionments and Assessments upon feeble Parishes were reduced by Resolution. (Pages 44 and 71.)

The working of the "Apportionment Plan" for General Missions was placed in the hands of the Committee to cooperate with the General Board of Missions. (Page 73.)

The Directors of the Missionary Society were requested to investigate the spiritual destitution of certain parts of the State, with a view to determining the duty of the Church in the matter (page 69); and they were authorized to employ a special agent to arouse interest in Diocesan Missions. (Pages 69, 70.)

A Committee was appointed to take measures for extending Church work among the Colored People of Connecticut. (Page 77.)

The Constitution of the Episcopal Academy was amended, and a Committee was appointed to conduct negotiations with certain of its Alumni who desire to aid it financially (page 70); the result being that the property has now been leased to a new corporation. (Page 107.)

The Charter of the Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes has been amended by the General Assembly so that they can hold property having a net revenue not to exceed twenty thousand dollars. (Page 73.)

A new fund for the benefit of feeble Parishes has been endowed by the late Mrs. J. M. Downes, of Waterbury. (Page 173.)

we last met two of our Clergy have been taken from us. Rev. Warren Hastings Roberts six years ago was by ill health to resign St. Andrew's Church, Northand after his long and faithful service retired to a disport well-earned rest. His heart was in Connecticut. He wered with frequent gifts our Aged and Infirm Clergy and loved to pray for the Diocese. On the tenth Suner Trinity he fell asleep.

Rev. Merritt Hubbell Wellman, who had also had a long norable record of service, was with us at the Convention ago, eager, at the age of fourscore, to be at work again n who had put him in the Ministry. He was called to and to be with Christ, which is far better.

ge number of Parishes have during the year lost their In the death of General William or former Wardens. ranklin, who had held that office in the Parish of the Shepherd, Hartford, the community, state and nation a man of heroic mould, a soldier distinguished by brilrvice in two wars, an earnest patriot, and a Christian Among those who have died are included Mr. pher Glens, Vestryman and Warden of St. John's , Salisbury, for fifty-seven years; Mr. Oliver Bulkley, y years, like his father before him, Warden and Vestry-Trinity Church, Southport; Dr. Nathaniel O. Cornf Trinity Church, Portland; Mr. Henry Couch, of n's Church, Washington; Mr. Timothy Guilford, Junior 1 of St. Peter's Church, Cheshire; Mr. John H. Hall, Warden of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hartford;

Mr. George E. Hatch, Junior Warden of Trinity Church, Hartford; Mr. Arza C. Morris, Junior Warden of St. Mark's Church, Bridgewater; Mr. George W. Woodward, Senior Warden of Christ Church, Bethany; Mr. Anson A. Root, Senior Warden of St. Paul's Church, Woodbury; Mr. Charles B. Sniffen, of Christ Church, Stratford; Mr. George W. Woolley, Senior Warden of St. John's Church, Hartford; Judge Hunter, of St. Paul's Church, Willimantic; Mr. Charles L. Phelps, of St. Peter's Church, Hebron; Mr. Ephraim Williams, Senior Warden of Calvary Church, Stonington; and Mr. Joseph White, of St. John's Church, Warehouse Point.

The Church at large has lost in Dean Hoffman one who not only re-created a great institution but also set an example in the consecration of wealth. Five of our Bishops have been removed by death: the venerable Bishop of Virginia, the Bishop of Alabama, the Bishop of Mississippi, the Bishop of Quincy and the Bishop of Newark.

Bishop Whittle was one of the old-fashioned Evangelicals, conscientiously firm in his convictions, in his austerity seeming harsh and hard, but with a heart of love toward all for Christ's sake, whose servant he rejoiced to be. The Diocese of Alabama, recently bereaved of its great Bishop, has this year lost his successor in all the promise of his opening episcopate. Likewise the Diocese of Quincy, which last year lost its first Bishop, a few weeks since was called to mourn its second Bishop, a man of theological learning and of zeal, wholly devoted to the Church. Bishop Hugh Miller Thompson with his pen had done the Church much service as editor and author. He left in what he wrote the evidence of his brilliant and trenchant intellect and of his robust manhood. Bishop Starkey has just died at a ripe old age. Like the Apostle whom we this week commemorate, "he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith."

The Church of England has this past year lost not only the Bishop of St. Albans and the Bishop of Southampton, but also Frederick Temple, Archbishop of Canterbury, one of the greatest of the line, great as a school-master, a writer, a preacher, a Bishop; above all, great in sturdy strength as a Christian man.

The year has been marked by certain physical condition which in many Parishes have proved unpropitious, notably the unusual number of stormy Sundays and the coal famin Nevertheless, the work has gone on in a way which is by no means without encouragement. The number of Confirmations is the largest reported in five years. In the classes presented, speaking generally, I have not observed the lack of men which is certain other Dioceses has been commented upon. On the contrary, the classes have been composed, sometimes entirely, and frequently in the larger part, of middle-aged and young men.

The number of Candidates for Holy Orders is very much larger than the number reported two years ago. The number of Postulants is increasing. What is more important, there is ground for encouragement in the quality of the men applying for admission as Postulants and Candidates.

Our Diocesan missionary work has progressed. In the Archdeaconry of New London particularly there have been marked advance and encouraging results. During the year there have been brought prominently before the public the moral and spiritual needs of some of the rural communities in the State. In the things alleged regarding their condition there was enough of truth strongly to emphasize the opportunity and demand involved in Diocesan Missions, and especially on the side which has elicited least enthusiasm and most criticism. Our thurch work in rural communities cannot be safely neglected. It must be maintained and ought to be pushed.

Let me also say that it is still my hope that there may be a leasurable concentration of effort at certain strategic points, see Willimantic, for example, with its mills and Normal School id its railroads leading out in six directions, so that influences r good might go forth to all the region round about. All this build require increased offerings. Certainly one might even we expect that no congregation would refuse to help on the ork. There is in this regard a steady improvement, for nich we may well be thankful. Genuine churchmanship has threatening foe in parochialism. The history of the Church ould, I think, teach the lesson that, for worthy results, there ust be recognized practically a larger unit of Church life and nurch action than that which is merely parochial.

There will be presented to you the report of the fund for e aged and infirm among the Clergy and for the widows and phans of deceased Clergymen. Canon VII. calls for an nual contribution to the fund. This canonical obligation a umber of congregations have ignored. How any of the ergy can neglect this duty I fail to understand. I am sure at true-hearted laymen would everywhere respond to an peal for such an object. It has been my desire that our riocesan fund should relieve the general fund of the care of ny beneficiaries we might under our Canon provide for. This has just been accomplished by action of our trustees, which will, I am confident, commend itself to you. Thus are ncreased our appropriations and our needs. At the same time let me commend to you the claims of the general fund, which aims to provide for those who have labored in mission fields and poorer Dioceses.

St. Margaret's School has just graduated the largest class in ts history. Trustees have secured as Principal Mr. Roland J. Mulford, son of a clergyman eminent for his theological and political writings. Under Mr. Mulford's headship it is expected that this venerable institution founded by Bishop Seabury will go on in increasing prosperity and usefulness.

The Holy Bible with the marginal readings adopted by the General Convention and authorized to be read in Churches has been printed. The lectern edition will be ready about the first of July. It is the only American Bible which contains the Apocrypha. In this work this Diocese may take a particular interest, inasmuch as on the Commission of Bishops and Presbyters appointed for this purpose, and among the most prominent in the performance of the laborious and gravely important task, is our own Dean of the Berkeley Divinity School.

The Secretary will lay before you a communication from a joint committee of the General Convention desiring the Convention to inform that committee whether it does or does not desire that the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America shall be changed at this time; and, if it does so desire, what name it wishes substituted therefor. It will be understood that no vote now taken on this question would be action; that is to say, it would settle nothing. It could be nothing more than expression of opinion. It is desireable that the question should not become an issue of ecclesiastical partisanship. If it is considered in this Convention, it will be partisan prejudice or animosity.

Certainly in this Diocese we may approach the question on the side of its merits and from a standpoint somewhat detached from present controversy. In Connecticut discussion of the Church's style and title is no new thing. It was anticipated here considerably more than a century ago. The Rev. Jeremiah Leaming, who would seem to have been selected before Seabury for the office of Bishop, and who in 1787 was chosen to be a coadjutor to Bishop Seabury, and again declined, wrote a letter which is to be found in Dr. Beardsley's Life of Seabury. In this letter, dated at Stratford, September 12th, 1786, and addressed to the Rev. Abraham Beach, Leaming writes:

"There is another thing your Convention ought to take into onsideration, that is, the style they have given to the Church, hich is this: the Protestant Episcopal Church. The Church England is not called a Protestant Church, but a reformed hurch; they never entered any protest against the civil powers: ey reformed as a nation: it never had the title of Protestant ven to it by any sensible writer, unless he was a Scotchman. will be a great pity that we should commit any blunder of this rt, at first setting out, for posterity to laugh at, after we are regotten for everything but the mistakes which we committed d left behind us as monuments that we wanted proper gracity."

In 1808 Bishop Jarvis wrote to Bishop Claggett expressing preference regarding the title of the Constitution and Canons in the "The whole headed by Constitution and Canons of the "Formed instead of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the ited States. I am confident such a head would be more constent with correct notions of the Church."*

It is to my own mind clear that no change in the title ought be determined upon until it is evident that the change is to effected with something like unanimity. Moreover, such a ange as is proposed cannot be forced. It comes, if it comes all, not by violent effort but quietly, in the thought and speech men; and votes of Conventions would only register a change ready accomplished.

It is now evident that anything like unanimity regarding question proposed is at this time impossible. None the less, purtesy to the committee would demand some response. Calm nd reasonable discussion has always seemed to me something of to be feared or discouraged, but rather likely to be fruitful f good somehow. At this juncture sincerity would seem to emand a frank expression of opinion. Therefore I make no pology for entering upon the subject, trusting that it will be inderstood that I am only saying how I personally look at the natter.

Such a question it is possible to approach with superficial ought on one side or the other: either to dismiss the proposion as unworthy even to be considered, or rashly to suppose it thing to be carried through off-hand and at once. Deeper * Ibid.

thought will inquire whether this dissatisfaction on the part of many does not mean something which it is worth while to consider; and at the same time will recognize that it is not a light matter to propose to change a name closely associated with the most tender, solemn and sacred experiences of many souls.

Twenty years ago in the General Convention of 1883, I stood up in the House of Deputies with a very small minority; (if my memory serves me, we numbered eighteen,) to cast my vote in favor of striking from the title of the Prayer Book the words "Protestant Episcopal." I have seen no reason to change my mind.

Let it be observed that dissatisfaction with the term Protestant in its title does not necessarily imply a desire that this Church should change its historic position in regard to the inventions and assumptions of the Roman Church, any more than objection to the term Episcopal in the title would necessarily imply conversion to Presbyterianism. I, for one, am far from thinking scorn of the movement known as the Reformation, or of its re-assertions as to personal faith and responsibility. It is unnecessary here to express gratitude for that uniquae reform of the Church of England which carefully maintained her continuity and sacrificed nothing essential to Catholic faith and order. I am not to be counted in favor of any attempt to set back the clock or reverse the march of history. God forbid that this Church should be entangled again in bondage to array. man or any fables of man's devising whether in the ninth or the nineteenth century after Christ. God forbid that she should not always stand fast in and for the liberty for which Christ set us free.

Surely there should be no weakening of this position now, when in the past half-century we have had object-lessons in the processes and methods of additions to the faith once for all delivered, and in the development of Papalism. The elimination of the word Protestant from the title would not necessarily mean a weakening, rather it might indicate a strengthening of the Anglican as opposed to the Roman position; as was case certainly when from the Litany was omitted in Quarter Elizabeth's time the deprecation, "From the tyranny of Elizabeth's time the deprecation, "From the tyranny of Elizabeth of Rome, and all his detestable enormities."

nere is a distinction between Papalism and Catholicity. So us this distinction is confused in the ordinary use of the l Protestant, so far as that word stands in the popular mind the opposite of Catholic, so far unfortunate is its employ: in the title of a Church that cherishes the Catholic ritance.

ne term Episcopal might denote all Churches that have ops; but its connotation or implication is limited, implying one element of the Church's constitution, the sacred Minisand referring only to one order of the Ministry. Likewise term Protestant, while it is wide as to what it denotes, ying to very many varieties of believers and non-believers, also on the other hand certain inevitable limitations. It is rm in its origin too modern well to comport with this rch's ancient lineage. It has come to be a negative term. ers, for example, Presbyterians and Congregationalists, have seen fit to employ it in their corporate names. Not only is signation questionable which thus negatively expresses sition to another part of the one Body of Christ, but also : important for a Church than protest is positive affirmation. oreover, in its origin and associations the word Protestant o polemic fitly to designate a Church whose providential ion would seem to be to mediate between widely separated nunions and be the Church of the reconciliation. thes the note of theological and ecclesiastical controversy er than of Christian charity. The word was born in an age introversy and strife. It is possible to be not unmindful of I then won, and yet have vision, although it be from afar, ome better thing than could be discerned amidst the battle le German Reformation.

ne world moves. The outlook of our age is bright with a nise that did not illumine the sixteenth, seventeenth, or eighth century. The spirit of this age is synthetic. Beneath rences are sought and found more fundamental unities, s of Christendom separated by distance and division have thrilled by common currents of Catholic thought. To this sch, at once Catholic and free, would seem to belong a liar mission to fulfill, and also singular advantage and opporty. The present title, while it does not invalidate, is inadeto express, this Church's historic and rightful claim in the Catholic inheritance; nor does it express her Catholic yearning for the visible unity of Christendom. There is reason for asserting that it is found to be not adapted for use in the foreign mission field, where we confront heathenism and are in close contiguity with other Christian bodies. Among our own people, aside from formal documents, it has practically fallen into disuse.

The great difficulty in my mind regarding the change of the present title lies in the second question, What is to be substituted therefor? There has been much advocacy of the name American Catholic. This name might seem to be large enough. It is a question, however, whether its adoption would serve the purposes for which it is desired. A body of Christians, small in numbers, but as regards tenets and ritual exceedingly interesting, has for some time called itself The Catholic Apostolic Church. I doubt whether that name has attracted any appreciable degree of attention to its claims and hopes. To me it seems likely that the proposed title, if it were to be now adopted, would be by most people either ignored or else misunderstood to be an imitation of the name Roman Catholic.

I am inclined to think there lies a graver objection again st this suggestion of combining a universal and a restrictive adjective. There is clearly a distinction between the Church Catholic and any particular branch. There is to be observed, if I mistake not, in the matter of formal title, a degree of reticence as to the application to a national branch of the great word which the creed applies to the whole Church. To me this seems a just and proper instinct. The national Church, if truly a branch, has its right in all the notes of the One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic Church. That is not, however, a reason for the assumption of all or any of those notes in its legal title.

What I myself should desire would be as little name as possible. The ideal title would be merely a territorial designation like the name of the Church of England. In 1783 the Cler sy of Connecticut addressed formal communications to the Archbishops of Canterbury and York. In each of these letters, signed by Abraham Jarvis as Secretary to the Convention, occurs the language, "The Church in America"; and also in the communication to the Archbishop of Canterbury, three times, "The merican Church."* In 1784 the Clergy of Connecticut, in a minimunication to their brethren of New York, New Jersey and ennsylvania, three times refer to "The American Church."† There was certainly some fitness in thus designating then is daughter of the Church of England. Had the name been that early day adopted, I myself should now be profoundly ateful. As a matter of fact it is to-day the designation most mmonly in use among ourselves. There are considerations in vor of its peculiar appropriateness now. This Church is the ly religious body, not owning a foreign allegiance, which has once covered with its organization every part of the national ritory, and also not perpetuated the sectional divisions of the ril war; while those divisions have been perpetuated in the se of others, for example, the Presbyterians, the Lutherans, e Methodists.

For the formal adoption, however, of this or a similar title, believe the time has not come. Nomenclature is not everying. American though we be in our character and ideals, t we should at present, as things are in this land where our ssion lies, find scant recognition as "The American Church"; d the recognition is not likely to be furthered by our calling releves so. It needs no sharp eyes to see how this would be sunderstood and resented as savoring of arrogance.

Let me acknowledge my own hesitation to advocate any action, respect of our title, which might have the effect of widening e separation between us and the great mass of our native-born 11ow Christians. We hold in trust something which I venture believe these brethren of other names will appreciate more 1d more. While we have much to learn from their zeal and vish devotion of themselves and their means, I believe they e more and more regarding, not merely with respect but with pe and confidence, this Church as a trustee of Catholic truth 1d order. We shall fulfill the ideal of the American Church 7 holding loyally and yet generously that trust, by earnest Ideavor to meet moral and spiritual needs of the nation and its reial needs to-day, and by quickened devotion to the Lord's Ork in America, sooner than by the formal assumption of a ume that to very many would suggest at best a far-off ideal, ther than practical and present reality.

In view of objections which seem at present to lie agains any substitute which has yet been proposed, in view also of the fact that it would evidently cause offence and grief to man faithful members of the Church, I find myself unable to vote to a change in the Church's legal title at this time. My desire to go no farther than we find ourselves able to go with su stantial unanimity.

My own judgment would be, on the title page of the Pray Book, to omit the particularising and restricting words, so the title would read, "The Book of Common Prayer as Administration of the Sacraments and other Rites and Cemonies of the Church." Thus we might set it forth as precious heritage for all people of English tongue in this lar The Book of Common Prayer has approved itself to many our fellow Christians. More and more it wins its way wi minds and hearts. Although it is not in itself an essential our position, none the less—it may be all the more—is the Pray Book an effective missionary of Catholic truth and for Catho unity. This missionary adaptability and effectiveness of t Prayer Book might gain in freedom and power by the suggest removal of restrictive words from its title. Farther than the I do not see how we can at present go.

Yet, and although there be no further issue in definite activate this time, I venture to express the confidence that much the recent discussion of this subject may prove to have been rewithout significance or fruit. It shall be found, I trust, to me that under a divine leading we are moving up and on, to potions whence are gained higher and larger views. More a more we look over and beyond the lines of division where me have narrowly parcelled out God's heritage, have run up the partition-walls and called the lands after their own names; lift our eyes to God's horizon, to behold the city of God whit is the mother of us all. More and more the Catholic ideal comands men's contemplation.

The Spirit of God is, I trust, inspiring larger purposes a hopes than may find expression in the legal title that became ours a century ago. If, in love to Christ and in sympathy we His prayer for the oneness of His disciples, our purposes a ideals be thus larger than our legal title, and if concerning the appellation more and more among us are touched with a disciples.

content which, as I think, is not without some reason and not ignoble, none of us need be alarmed on the one hand, nor on the other need any be impatient. In God's own time and in His own way He may, using, as I trust and believe He is using, this Church as a factor toward that result, bring about such a unity of His people in this land as may without gainsaying be called "The Church in the United States of America."

There are questions whereof we may trust the sure years to bring the right outcome. Meanwhile it were well for us to remember the true proportion of things, and to see where plainly confront us our chief duty and responsibilities. There are things more important than names, and things which we in our day and generation must see to. The genuine power of the Church lies not in her name or her claims, nor again in her numbers, nor by any means in the wealth of her members. The power of a Church lies, under God, in her ideals and purposes, in her faith and devotion; lies, that is to say, in the character of her members, and in the degree to which they are intelligently and loyally devoted to those purposes and ideals.

The Church's genuine strength will be found not in agitation and controversy, not in any noise and demonstration; rather in the quietness and confidence of deepening convictions of truth as it is in Jesus; convictions of men's need of that truth and of the righteousness which is of God; convictions of the presence and power of His Spirit'in His Church.

Discussion of the title might seem almost trivial when we think of the Divine commission and of vast empires that know not the Lord. It is the business of the Church to extend His Kingdom among men. An adequate conception of that Kingdom involves large views of the Church's mission and of the obligations of her members. Imperative are certain particular duties here and now. In a democratic society it is especially needed that the Church bear a certain witness to the civil authority, that she shall witness to the State as having a more than merely secular significance, and standing for more than material things; that she shall witness to the moral foundations whereon the State rests, and the moral grandeur investing its authority; that her influence shall uphold the majesty of law, and make men recognize the necessity of order, and also appreciate the dignity and responsibilities of citizenship.

It is for us in this commonwealth and nation to see that the Church uphold the institution of the family, and the inviolable sacredness of marriage which makes the home. It is ours to see to it, so far as in us lies, that the Church is a mother to all children in need, be it of care and training or of rescue or championship; that she is making manhood stronger and more generous, and womanhood more pure and noble; to see to it that her influence is steadily against evils that beset our American life; against what is sordid and mean and base; against heartless luxury and idleness and self-indulgence and pride; against selfish greed and exaction, on the one hand, and against envious hatred and strife on the other; that her influence makes for personal, civic and social righteousness; for justice and genuine liberty; for the simplicity and dignity of life, and the recognition of large meaning and high purpose therein; for true brotherhood and brotherly kindness among men, for Christ's sake.

Great are the opportunities before the Church in this land. May we, in Connecticut, carry on our work, in our personal lives and as a Diocese, in the sobering and steadying and yet uplifting power of genuine convictions of truth to be believed and lived, and of duty to be done in the name of Jesus Christ, and of the privilege and joy of service to that Lord and Master under the guidance and by the help of His Holy Spirit.

Diocesan Office,

MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN, October 1st, 1902.

To the Secretary of the Diocese of Connecticut:

Dear Sir:—I hereby beg to inform you officially that at the recent Annual Council of the Diocese of Milwaukee, held at the Cathedral. Milwaukee, September 16th-17th, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz.:

"Whereas, Recent events that have been widely published and discussed in the public press, have illustrated anew the grave evils resulting from the neglect in this Church to make canonical provision for extra-diocesan Courts of Appeals in cases of the trial of a clergyman; a neglect that renders both the minister who may be defendant, and the Bishop who may act as trial judge or may pronounce sentence after trial, liable to the gravest injustice or suspicion of injustice, by reason of the impossibility of granting or receiving a new trial upon appeal to a higher court; therefore be it

"Resolved, That the Diocese of Milwaukee, which has happily been free from any instances of the trial of any of her clergy for a long term of years, earnestly petitions General Convention to grant some form of relief, by provision for extra-diocesan Courts of Appeals, for the protection alike of the Bishops and the other clergy of this Church; and

"Resolved, further, that such relief can, in the opinion of this Diocese, be most satisfactorily effected by means of a wise provision for the grouping of Dioceses and Missionary Districts together in a Provincial System designed to embrace the whole country, by due provision of Canon, according to the terms of Article VII. of the Constitution; and

"Resolved, That the Secretary of the Council be and is hereby instructed to communicate this action to the Secretaries of the several Diocesan Councils, Conventions, and Synods of the Church in this country, with the request that it be brought to the attention of each of the said Diocesan bodies; and that this Diocese earnestly requests the cooperation of each of such bodies, if it shall seem good to any of them, in presenting to the General Convention of 1904 a body of petitions from ever Diocese embodying the preamble and the first or the first and second these resolutions, or others of like import, at their own discretion, the end that the mind of the Church at large on this important are pressing matter may be distinctly shown; and this Diocese would appreciate the courtesy of any other Diocese that would inform their Secretary what action, if any, might be taken therein under this invitation."

In obedience to this resolution, I respectfully request you to bring to communication to the attention of your Diocese (or Missionary District at its next conciliar meeting, and will greatly appreciate the courtesy you will inform me what action, if any, is taken in respect thereto, a under this invitation.

The Rev. William G. Andrews, D.D., presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON PAROCHIAL ARCHIVES

The Commission on Parochial Archives respectfully presents its annual report.

The Secretary, as copyist of Archives, has made copies at East Haddam and Bloomfield of records relating to other Parishes, and the search for similar material is not quite completed.

The Records of Convocation, the publication of which, with annotations, was authorized by the last Convention (Journal, p. 45), have been copied at our request under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Hart; while the Rev. Mr. Hooper, a member of the Commission, associated with Dr. Hart in this matter, has in hand the work of annotation. It is expected that the whole will be published in the autumn, and that five hundred copies can be printed with the money appropriated ($250). The Commission has been left to its own discretion with regard to the distribution of these early records, but would willingly receive instructions from the Convention on that point.

It is hoped to secure catalogues or abstracts of manuscripts of great historical interest among the Johnson, Seabury and Schroeder papers, and steps have been taken in that direction.

The records of two extinct Parishes, St. Thomas's Church, Canterbury, and St. Paul's Church, Central Village (as also a pewter baptismal bowl from the former Parish), have been obtained by a member of the Commission for delivery to the Registrar, who will also, no doubt, report them.

Photographs of pictures of the Rev. Samuel Peters, and of him with his daughter, were not long ago procured. Some of his manuscript sermons are in the possession of one of our number.

Some correspondence with descendants of Connecticut loyalists in the British provinces, while not throwing light on ecclesiastical documents, has elicited fresh evidence of warm interest in this commonwealth, and of the utmost readiness to give information. It does not yet appear that manuscripts of an historical character from the hands of the emigrant Clergy are numerous; but future inquiries may increase our knowledge in this direction.

A member of the Commission has had the great pleasure of restoring to St. Helena's Parish, Beaufort, S. C., the records of its Vestry, dating from 1726, and missing since the civil war.

Prepared by the undersigned under the authority of the Commission, W. G. Andrews, Chairman, F. W. Bailey, Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Andrews, it was

- e letter of resignation and the Minute adopted by the Trustees are lows:

LETTER OF RESIGNATION

CHESHIRE, CONN., March 19, 1903.

- Reverend Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., President Board of Trusees, Episcopal Academy of Connecticut, Hartford, Conn.
- with the Academy, dating from September, 1865, I am exceedingly and ought to retire from school work. The school has had varied ne, but is now in good condition, and its prospects for the immediate e are encouraging. It should, however, be in the hands of a younger a man in sympathy with whatever is best in the various educational ods, full of enthusiasm for his work, and especially one who is in rime and vigor of life.

therefore beg leave herewith to tender you my resignation as cipal of the Cheshire Academy, to take effect at the end of the ent school year, June 30th, 1903.

Yours respectfully,

E. D. Woodbury.

MINUTE

accepting the resignation of Professor Woodbury as the Principal e Episcopal Academy, the Trustees desire to enter upon their record, to send to Professor Woodbury, a minute expressing their deep of obligation for all that he has done for the School, their regret severing of his connection with it, and the assurance of their regard.

r nearly forty years he has been almost continuously connected the School; and a great company of men, taught and trained by hold him in affectionate remembrance. They have gone from his with profound sense of his justice and kindness, and of his love hat is honorable and true. They have carried from his teaching ife an inspiration to serve their generation well. Few teachers are ht of with so much affection by so many men. The School has 106 [1903 been greatly blessed in this long term of service by Professor Woodbury; and we are sure that we speak for a great company in expressing the highest appreciation of what he has been and has done in our Diocesan School, and in wishing him every blessing in the desired and well earned rest from the work of teaching.

He will carry with him, wherever he may go, the respect and good will of the Trustees and of all the great number of men who have come under his teaching and the influence of his life.

Into the place of Professor Woodbury the Trustees have chosen Mr. Roland J. Mulford, Harvard LL.B., Johns Hopkins Ph.D., as Principal with the title of Head Master. Mr. Mulford has had experience as a teacher in St. Mark's, Southborough, and the Pomfret School; and also as Head Master of the Country School, Baltimore. The Trustees believe that he will bring to the old Diocesan School of Connecticut the best experience and the highest ideals, and that the School will go on under him holding a place among the first Preparatory Schools of the country, and commending itself to all who desire the education of boys under the gracious influence of good religion.

For the Executive Committee,

EDWIN S. LINES, Secretary.

June 9, 1903.

LEASE OF THE PROPERTY

Certain alumni of the Academy have formed a new corporation under the laws of the State of Connecticut, by the name of "The Cheshire School, Inc." Mr. Joseph W. Harriman, of New York, is President, and with them are associated Bishop Brewster, the Rev. Dr. Lines, the Rev. Dr. Luther, Prof. Phillips and Dr. Mulford.

To this corporation the Trustees of the Episcopal Academy have leased all the real estate, buildings, etc., for ninety-nine years, with the privilege of renewal for an equal period, at a varying rental sufficient to defray the interest on all moneys owed by the Trustees. The new corporation also has the option of purchasing the property for a sum sufficient to liquidate all indebtedness of the school; or it may cancel the lease after three years, upon restoring the property to the Trustees in as good condition as it now is, in the mean time keeping it abundantly insured so as to prevent any possibility of loss by fire. The new corporation is expending a liberal sum in repairs, improvements and new equipment, for the purpose of putting it in perfect condition and bringing it to the highest standard of the present day. There is good reason to anticipate for the school a new era of great prosperity and usefulness.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

To the Convention:

Pursuant to Article V. of the Constitution, the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society makes its annual report of Appropriations and other proceedings for the year 1902-1903, as follows:

APPROPRIATIONS AND APPORTIONMENTS

The last Convention (see Journal 1902, page 68) appropriated a sum not exceeding $12,000 for carrying on the missionary work of the Diocese during the then ensuing year, in addition to the proceeds from the funds of the Society and other sources available for the purpose; and it was ordered that said sum be apportioned among the several Archdeaconries on the basis of "Current Expenses (including Salaries)," as reported in the last Journal; and that said sum be appropriated among the several Archdeaconries, as the Directors of the Society might deem best.

The net proceeds from the funds held by the Society and from other sources were estimated at about $850, thus making, with the $12,000 to be raised, the sum of $12,850 for missionary work.

For this work Appropriations were made as follows, viz.:

To Fairfield Arch	deaconry,	•		•	•		$1,700.00
Litchfield	"			•		•	1,375.00
New Haven	"	•		•		•	1,700.00
Hartford	• 6		•		•		2,700.00
Middlesex	46	•			•		1,875.00
New London	" (inc	cluding t	the incor	ne of	the Tra	acy-
		Eaton	Fund),	•	•	•	3,500.00
Total A	Appropriati	ions,			•		$12,850.00

To meet these Appropriations said sum of $12,000 was apportioned among the several Archdeaconries, as follows, viz.:

Fairfield Arch	ideaconry		•	•	•	•	$3,403.00
Litchfield	••					•	1,092.00
New Haven	66			•	•	•	3,677.00
Hartford	4.6	•			•	•	2,075.00
Middlesex	44	•				•	7 61.00
New London	44	•		•	•	•	992.00
Total A	pportionme	nts.		_			$12,000,00

Pursuant to the rule of the Board, made some years ago, only the difference between the Appropriation and Apportionment in each Archdeaconry is in fact paid to, or paid by, the Treasurer, as the case may be. The sums actually paid to and received from the several Archdeaconries were as follows:

Paid to Litchfi	eld Arch	deaco	nry,	•			•	$ 198.83
Hartfo	ord	46	•	•			•	363.69
Middle	esex	• 6	•	•			•	1,114.00
New L	ondon	•6		•				2,508.00
								$4,184.52
Received from	n New H	[aven	Arche	deaconr	y:
Balance 19	000-1901,	•	•	•		$ 161.00
On account	t 1901-190	02,	•	• .	٠.	1,530.00	$1,691.00
Received from	m Fairfie	ld Ar	chdeac	conry:			ψ1,091.00
Balance in	full prior	to 1	900-19	01,		$234.00
On accoun	t 1900-19	юі,	•	•	• .	566.00	_	$2,491.00
						Differe	ence,	$1,693.52

This difference has not been met entirely from the Society's income and Apportionments, and it has been necessary to borrow for that purpose.

There is due from the New Haven Archdeaconry at this time, as follows:

On account of the year	1901-19	902,	•	•	•	$ 409.00
For the year 1902-1903,		•	•	•	•	1,977.00
Totals						$2.286.00

There is, therefore, due from the two Archdeaconries at this time $6,579.70.

The amount paid Litchfield Archdeaconry was in fact $283, but $84.17 was returned, the same not being required for the uses of the Archdeaconry.

Donations

The Board gratefully acknowledges the receipt of special offerings from Pequot Chapel, New London, Trinity Church, Hartford, and Holy Trinity Church, Middletown; contributions have also been received from The Women's Church Missionary Association of New Haven, and Mr. James J. Goodwin.

LEGACIES

The balance of the legacy under the will of Caroline L. Sanford, late of Stamford, deceased, amounting to $107.87, has been paid. Notice has also been received of a devise of valuable real estate in Bridgeport, under the same will, subject to two life estates.

NOANK MISSION

The Advent offerings of the Sunday School Auxiliary for this purpose amounted to $577.51. This sum, together with $1,171.11, previously contributed by the Sunday Schools of the Diocese, has been expended during the year in the erection of Grace Church at Noank. This Church was onsecrated on the 18th of April last.

LIABILITIES

The liabilities of the Society are now $8,500. Four thousand dollars of this has arisen because of the failure of Fairfield and New Haven Archdeaconries to meet their Apportionments in full, and has been incurred for the running expenses of the Society only. Owing to the illness of the Treasurer a year ago and his inability to attend to the matter, the Sanford legacy was by mistake used to reduce the Society's indebtedness, on the supposition that the legacy was not restricted in its use; but as this legacy in fact was restricted so that only the income can be used, the legacy has been restored, and the indebtedness stands as before ($8,000), with $500 additional incurred during the year.

Conclusion

For the names of the several Parishes and Missions contributing to the Society, with the amount of their contributions, and for the names of the Parishes and Mission Stations receiving aid, with the amounts paid to them, as well as for a description of the condition and progress of missionary work in the Diocese, we refer you to the reports from the several Archdeaconries which are herewith presented.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board,

BURTON MANSFIELD, Secretary.

New Haven, Conn., June 9th, 1903.

REPORTS OF THE ARCHDEACONRIES

I.

Fairfield Archdeaconry

the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Fairfield respectfully reports that the Archdeaconry given aid to the same Parishes and Mission Stations, eight in nber, as last year.

thrist Church, Easton, being strictly speaking a rural Parish, there is y little chance for growth. We cannot desert the few faithful souls re, yet neither is there prospect of betterment in the conditions. The y solution of the problem seems to be the present one, of granting to ton an Appropriation to be given to the Rector of Christ Church, hua, for regular ministrations.

t. Paul's, Huntington, is still under the efficient care of the Rev. rnes L. Everest, who has been faithful and diligent in all the parish k. The services have been well attended, and there is very much he outlook for the Church's work here to encourage us.

he Rev. Mr. Goldsborough continues in charge of St. Peter's Church, nroe. There is nothing new to note. It is only by the assistance of Archdeaconry that the Parish is able to pay its Rector a living salary. here has been little change in matters pertaining to Trinity Church, hols. Services have been maintained as usual, though the series of my Sundays during the past year rendered traveling very difficult kept down in some degree the attendance of the people. Steps have a taken for the repainting of the Church. Expenses have been met, it has been by the utmost loyalty of the few who remain in this little ish. The movement is away from the town. Several of the younger notes of the congregation are in business in the city, but still return heir home Church and contribute to its support. This has kept the ish out of debt.

Redding the Church property has been fully repaired, and the ish has been strengthened by receiving one family, and one Comicant, and having eight confirmed.

on losing ground, even if it does not gain much. It has discharged its obligations, and the people are united and hopeful.

Ine Missions at Byram and Round Hill in the town of Greenwich tinue to prosper under the care of the Rev. W. I. Magill. Your Missionary has held in the past year 156 Sunday and week-day services, celebrated the Holy Eucharist 32 times in public, and on several occasions in private. He has made 475 pastoral calls and traveled about 1700 miles. "Financially this has been by far a much better year than any of my incumbency," he writes. "While my official acts are much less in number than in some former years, this is in a large measure due to the fact that an unusually large number of the same were reported last year."

At St. Luke's Mission, Bridgeport, hard and faithful work has been done by the Rev. Eaton W. Maxcy, D.D., in spite of considerable disability owing to illness. Services have been maintained without interruption, the people seem deeply interested, and the future prospects are encouraging.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

Louis N. Booth, Archdeacon of Fairfield.

Litchfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Litchfield begs leave to report:

That the conditions of the missionary work in the field are very satisfactory. Every Parish to which aid is granted is at present filled, and good work is being done in all.

Bridgewater was left without a Rector July 1st of last year, by the resignation of the Rev. Wilfrid H. Dean. It remained vacant for about four months, when the Rev. Gideon D. Pond. of Winsted, was called to take charge. Mr. Pond has taken up the work with all the enthusiasm of a young man in his first Parish and the wisdom which maturity brings. The Parish has met all its canonical obligations and its Apportionment for General Missions. It is now on a solid and substantial basis, and the outlook is bright for many years of quiet growth.

In the Parish of Christ Church, Canaan, few changes are to be noted. A little advance has been made, which is all that can be looked for. The Rector, the Rev. Milton H. Mill, also holds service once a month just over the line in Clayton, Mass.

St. Andrew's, Kent, a venerable Parish, is having a hard struggle against adverse circumstances. Good work is done by the Rector, the Rev. G. H. Smith; and in spite of continuous removals, the Parish about holds its own.

Plymouth, East Plymouth and Terryville are still under the care of the Rev. J. D. Gilliland. The report of work there speaks eloquently of the untiring zeal of the faithful Rector. The services in East Plymouth are held monthly, and at Terryville every Sunday afternoon. The Terryville Mission is of considerable promise.

In Riverton the congregation seems to be growing smaller instead of larger. However, the Missionary who serves that station, the Rev. Henry Tarrant, of Pine Meadow, has done remarkably efficient work in a large section of well-nigh abandoned country. The Archdeacon feels that the Appropriation granted nominally to Riverton is warranted by the fact that it enables the one receiving it to minister to many scattered settlements in which there would otherwise be no possibility of maintaining services.

Christ Church, Bethlehem, decided at Easter to discontinue the arrangement under which it has been served by the Rector of Woodbury. The desire for a resident Rector and for morning service prompted the step. While we should rejoice if they are able to maintain a Rector, the Archdeacon does not feel justified in asking for a separate Appropriation from the Missionary Society for the Parish.

St. Paul's, Woodbury, continues to prosper under the Rector, the Rev. L. Robert Sheffield. The withdrawal of Bethlehem affects to some stipend of the Rector of Woodbury, but no additional help has 1.

ity Parish, Northfield, the experiment of a resident Rector, encouraged with some misgiving last year, has proved successod year's work has been done by the Rev. A. P. Chapman, and k is hopeful.

olk the services were maintained during the summer months. greatly appreciated by the people. This work, of course, asks com the Missionary Society, but it is none the less a useful work, in affording a Church home for those who are away rch influences. The year has been a successful one, and the or the coming season is good.

ssion at Oakville has prospered under the care of a lay reader. y A. Dixon. This work is part of the work of Christ Church, n, and is therefore a Parochial Mission. There is, however, f considerable growth, and the time may come when the Misociety will again be asked to help maintain a Priest.

the work above reported, a great deal has been done in the thoolhouse services. There are many districts far from our some indeed far from any Church. It will be the policy of eaconry during this coming year to push the matter of schoolvices in the most remote districts. If the results are satisis probable that next year a larger Appropriation for General er the Archdeacon will be asked for, to pay for horse hire, etc. s year the Archdeaconry asks for the same Appropriation as Parish and Mission has paid its Apportionment for Diocesan in full.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. Plumb, Archdeacon.

New haven Archdeaconry

the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of New Haven respectfully reports:

Eleven Parishes and one Mission have been aided during the past year. The assisted Parishes are Christ Church, Bethany; Grace Church, Hamn; Christ Church, East Haven; St. Luke's Church, New Haven; Zion nurch, North Branford; St. Andrew's Church, Northford; St. John's nurch, North Guilford; St. Peter's Church, Oxford; Christ Church, naker Farms; St. James's Church, New Haven (Westville); and the nurch of the Ascension, New Haven. The assisted Mission is in South eriden, under the care of the Rev. Robert C. Tongue, Rector of All nints' Church, Meriden.

St. James's Church, New Haven (Westville), is in a most encouraging ndition, under the efficient care of the Rev. J. Frederick Sexton. Large provements in the Church building have been made. A neat Sunday thool and Guild Room in the basement of the Church has been finished, if the Chancel of the Church enlarged. Owing to the kindness of friend of the Rector, choir stalls have been presented to the Parish and sum of money given to defray the cost of preparing the Chancel for the provements.

Christ Church, East Haven, continues under the care of the Rev. John Jackson. In his report he says, "We are moving onward slowly but rely. The Guilds of the Parish have done splendid work during the ar, and the members' love for and devotion to the Church is the one ight spot in an otherwise cloudy sky." The Guilds of the Parish have it all the incidental expenses of the Church.

St. Luke's Parish, New Haven, our only work in the Diocese among colored people, deserves special mention. Under the rectorship of Rev. Eugene L. Henderson, the Parish is showing strong life. The control building has become too small to accommodate the conception, and the people are now looking forward to the day, which by hope is not far distant, when they shall have a new edifice in which worship. A desirable lot has already been purchased. Two classes Confirmation have been presented the past year.

it. John's Church, North Guilford, and Zion Church, North Branford, under the spiritual care of the Rev. A. MacDougall, Ph.D. The stor writes, "The great difficulty in both these Parishes is the scarcity material." There seems to be no growth, but rather a decadence in these Parishes.

race Church, Hamden, is still served by the Rev. James E. Coley, as ister in charge. He reports the Parish to be in a flourishing condition as far as working interest goes, and fairly so financially. The peop have been able to meet all the current expenses of the Church, and gives something to outside objects. Grace Church is now the happy possess of a handsome Parish House, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. William Brewst of Mt. Carmel. The building was dedicated by the Bishop of the Dioce on October 17, 1902.

The Rev. Lewis F. Morris, Rector of Christ Church, Bethany, with that the Parish is simply holding its own. It is strictly what might called a rural Parish, and consequently it has suffered much for removals and is weaker numerically and financially to-day than it wone year ago. Our Church is the only Christian body that has a reside Minister in Bethany and the only House of Worship in which the Sac ments are regularly administered. Many of the young people have go from Bethany who were trained in the Church, and are now the use members of our town and city Parishes.

Christ Church, Quaker Farms, and St. Peter's Church, Oxford, and a most happy and encouraging condition. The present Rector, the ! Theo. M. Peck, is the right man in the right place. Parish affairs Oxford and Quaker Farms one year ago looked rather dark and disc aging; but the clouds have lifted, and through the tactfulness of Rector, both Parishes are putting on new life. Most of the disaffer have been brought back, and the services are now well attended in b places. Harmony prevails. The endowment fund of Christ Chu Quaker Farms, has been increased the past year by two gifts, one $4,000 and one of $2,000. St. Peter's Church, Oxford, has received increase in the endowment fund of $3,000. No return in interest man has been received as yet from these gifts, as the funds have but rece been invested. The people of St. Peter's Parish, Oxford, have purch property, consisting of a house and farm, for the use of the Rector. was done largely through gifts of money from friends of the par ioners.

The Rev. J. D. S. Pardee, Rector of St. Andrew's Church, North writes that "the attendance at the services of this rural Parish is encouraging. The people are loyal, but not overburdened with world's goods."

The Archdeacon has received no report from the Rector of the Ch of the Ascension, New Haven.

A movement is on foot to have the services of the Church revive the town of Madison. Several years ago the Archdeaconry appropr $75.00 a year for the expenses connected with this Mission. The Peter L. Shepard, the Rector of the Church of the Holy Advent, Cli had charge of the work, and held services during the summer mountil the Mission was abandoned. Lately the Archdeacon has requests from Church families residing in the town, that service again held during the months of July, August and September. It set to be worth a trial this summer, as the resident Churchmen of the and the summer cottagers have promised their loyal support.

It will be seen from the above report that practically all the Approriations made by the Archdeaconry have been to established Parishes. In many cases there seems to be little if any encouragement as to growth and enthusiasm in the work of the Church; and yet we have no right to deprive the faithful few Church people in our rural districts from having the benefits of the Church, her services and her Sacraments.

The Parishes and Missions receiving assistance have been paid their Appropriations. It is gratifying to note that the Parishes have paid their Apportionments exceedingly well. Thirty-one have paid in full, and six have paid in part. Only two Parishes have failed to meet in whole or in part their Archdeaconry obligation. The total amount received by the Treasurer is about the same as last year; but the sum of the Apportionments remaining unpaid is smaller.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

George Hickman Buck,

Archdeacon of New Haven.

DERBY, CONN., June 8, 1903.

hartford Archdeaconry

the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Treasurer's report of the Hartford Archdeaconry will show that has been given to 13 Churches. No new work has been attempted, two Sunday Schools have been started in Hartford by students in nity College, which promise good to the Church in the future. No urch has come to self-support; but two have been dropped from the of aided Churches for the present.

Ir. Rogers, a student at Berkeley, took charge of St. Gabriel's Mis1, East Berlin, last autumn, under the most discouraging conditions.
1 has been very successful. He rallied the people about him, united discordant elements, and organized a choir and young people's club.
2 results are most gratifying. The Sunday School has grown, the ome increased, attendance at Church doubled, and a class of 15 has n presented for Confirmation. The people are greatly encouraged, I hope to have the valuable services of Mr. Rogers another year.

The Rev. H. B. Pulsifer left the people of the Church of Our Saviour, sinville, in an almost hopeless state of mind. Since his departure they been faithfully served by the Rev. Robert H. Burton, a Deacon from rtford. They are slowly recovering themselves. They have not asked aid this year.

A good degree of interest in Missions is shown by the Churches of Archdeaconry. There is a determination to pay all canonical assessnts, and a hearty disposition to pay the sum asked for by the General urch Missionary Society.

The Churches in Collinsville, Unionville, Windsor Locks and Suffield, we suffered from the loss of their Rectors. Two of them are now nirably supplied. The Rev. A. F. Lewis came to Unionville May 1st. persuaded the people to purchase a rectory, an absolute necessity Unionville. This, I think, marks the beginning of a new and hopeful in the history of the Parish..

czey, formerly in charge of Grace Chapel, Hartford. We gladly come him back to the Archdeaconry. Collinsville is to be congratued.

The Parishes in Windsor Locks and Suffield are about to extend a call the Rev. A. MacDougall, Ph.D., of North Guilford. He is a strong I successful Minister. We expect good to come to these discouraged rishes with his advent.

Morrison, of Bristol. Their Chapel has been improved by the comtion of the basement.

138 [1903

A new and commodious Rectory has been secured to St. James's Church, Glastonbury, by the united efforts of the people and the Rector, the Rev. Wilfrid H. Dean.

The Rev. J. F. George reports excellent progress in St. John's Church, Rockville, in the reduction of their ancient burdensome debt. He thinks he sees the beginning of the end of their struggle.

There is nothing of special moment to report from Newington, Southington, South Glastonbury and Tariffville. They hold their own. Their Ministers are fine examples of faithfulness and self-sacrifice.

The outlook for the whole Archdeaconry is hopeful. We must pay larger stipends if we are to get men fitted for the work to be done. The stipends we have been paying will not answer. To this end we ask for $2,800.

Respectfully submitted,

JACOB ALBERT BIDDLE, Archdeacon.

June 8, 1903.

Middlesex Archdeacoury

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Middlesex begs leave to report:

The record of our work for the past year has been particularly uneventful, with little change and almost nothing new. This means that the work has been carried forward quietly and faithfully, with as fair a degree of success as could have been expected, considering the hard conditions of slender means and thinly scattered populations, which generally prevail in eastern Connecticut.

Assistance has been extended to the same old Parishes and Mission Stations, which have been helped for many years, as shown by the Treasurer's Report in the accompanying tables, and we regret to say that we can see no immediate prospect of any of these Parishes or Missions becoming entirely self-supporting; from no want of being faithfully developed, but from the want of industrial conditions which would bring new people in, or at least keep the young from drifting away from them to the cities. This is notably the case at places like Clinton, Durham, Middlefield, Middle Haddam, Killingworth and Hadlyme; places, however, where the light having been kindled and nobly sustained in better days, the Church cannot afford to let it go out, both for the sake of the faithful remnant who are left, and for the important work of forming the characters of the young, before they are launched upon the life of larger and more trying communities. The Ministers in charge of nearly all these stations report Baptisms, Confirmations, some increase attendance on the services, and a commendable zeal on the part of the people in giving and doing so far as they are able.

A fine building site has been procured at Ivoryton, with the hope that ere long a Chapel may be raised upon it, to minister to the growing number of young people, who are employed in the factories of the place. The Mission is still in charge of the Rector of St. John's Church, Essex, we reports a good attendance at the services; and who deserves grate acknowledgment for having given a service and lecture weekly during Lent to each of the Missions within his reach. The lectures were subjects bearing upon Church principles and customs, and were larged attended by outsiders as well as our own people.

The Westbrook and Chester Missions have been very efficiently serv during the year by Lay Readers from the Berkeley Divinity School, M. R. D. Baldwin at the former, and Mr. J. W. Lord at the latter. Contions are as promising as could be expected at both. At Westbrook the are endeavoring to raise money to put their building in thorough repand at Chester they have begun a sinking-fund for a Chapel, which greatly needed.

ground has been occupied within the year, services having at Shailerville, and conducted by Mr. Eugene Peck, of the vinity School; who, as there was no Appropriation to meet has made the work largely a labor of love. The attendance been most encouraging.

G. W. Griffith, to whose efforts the erection of the Chapel at is largely due, and whose energy in this regard was duly i our last report, has removed to another Archdeaconry; and R. Parker, having succeeded him as Rector of St. Stephen's it Haddam, is now in charge of the Mission in Hadlyme, y, although in his eighty-fifth year, still conducts service on of every Lord's Day, giving a commendable object-lesson like zeal of a high order.

leacon has been petitioned by many at East Hampton to send sionary or even a Lay-Reader, to open services there. The inportant one to occupy, as the place is a growing manufac-

New London Archdeaconry

ne Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of connecticut:

other year of Missionary work in eastern Connecticut is closed, and rehdeacon is happy to report it as an unusually prosperous one. All tree of the stations have been personally visited; some of them have several visits, and the Archdeacon has been in constant touch with few changes have been made in the personnel of the Priests. The Theodore D. Martin, Jr., resigned Grace Church. Stafford Springs, was at once succeeded by the Rev. William Morrall. With the it of Mr. Morrall new life seemed to come to the Parish, and the e have taken hold of their work with a willing mind. Extensive and needed repairs and improvement in the real estate have been made aid for by the members of the Parish.

- e Rev. Richard D. Hatch resigned Calvary Parish, Stonington, but rare devotion continued to act as Rector till his successor, the Rev. st H. Blunt, could take up the affairs of the Parish. Having had ate acquaintance with Mr. Blunt from his student days, I am sure oble aims of his predecessor will be carefully followed in building good, churchly Parish.
- Rev. Theodore M. Peck resigned the Missions in the Lymes last mber, and so far it has been a difficult task to find a suitable person dertake that field of great promise, demanding hard work. I hope have now found the right man for the place.
- s Roberts has continued a year of hard work at Niantic, South, Flanders and Millstone. Those who have most thoroughly known ork speak of it in terms of highest praise. Dr. McCook gave his er vacation freely to the needs of the Niantic group of Missions, ing about thirty adults and children.

Philip's, Putnam, has more than held its own this last year. The phary very wisely refuses to join in any sensational methods of tising himself or his work.

Alban's, Danielson, is fulfilling the pledges it made when raising for a Rectory. Such advance has been made here that we may tably expect it soon to surrender the aid received from your Board ecome an independent Parish. St. Peter's, Moosup, a Mission of St. is enjoying its share of prosperity so largely due to the energetic ration of the Rev. Geo. A. Alcott. A beautiful lot of land for a the has been given by Mr. Milner, and we are preparing to raise for a suitable building.

St. Mark's, Mystic, under the Rev. Albert Corey Jones, has shown renewed vitality. It is gradually recovering from the severe blow dealt it a few years ago. Judging by the marked increase of its congregations we may hope St. Mark's will soon ask to have its parochial standing restored to it.

Grace Church, Noank, a Mission of St. Mark's, is rejoicing in its comely stone Church built by the Sunday Schools of the Diocese, and recently consecrated. The Baby's Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary gave the handsome granite font, and various people who are interested in this unique Church have given the altar furnishings and chancel carpet. Other memorials are promised.

Seabury Memorial, Groton, continues in the spirit of work with which it began its new life a few years ago. The Rev. Millidge Walker is again laying strong the foundations of a Mission where he first laid them in 1875. The Galilee Chapel, Eastern Point, has been most generous in its help this year, providing funds for repainting and repairing the Church property in Groton.

St. James's, Poquetanuck, is in a region where the population remains nearly stationary, and the Parish itself, one of the oldest in the country cannot, under the circumstances, be expected to make much progress.—

The generous supporters of a century and a half ago have but few representatives left to bear its cost of support. This makes it the more necessary that all the energies of the Parish should be directed to its support. I am sure that some system of pledges, like the envelope system, would materially increase the offerings in all the Missions.

St. Peter's, Hebron, is another Parish from which we can expect no growth till the beautiful old homes in this charming spot are against occupied.

Calvary, Colchester, has done nobly, entering most heartily into all the work pertaining to a live, healthy Parish. The Rev. John H. Fitzgerald continues his vigorous missionary zeal, visiting Andover, Turnerville and school districts, a faithful Priest to all the region round about.

St. Paul's, Willimantic, continues to develop the vigorous life reported upon a year ago. Some generous person or persons sent with the heartiest approval of the authorities, Deaconess Ella M. Taylor to inaugurate work amongst women, for which she is so worthily celebrated. Begun as an experiment, it proved successful beyond our most sanguine expectations.

Lucius Martin Hardy, Archdeacon.

Church Scholarship Society

ANNUAL MEETING AND REPORT

St. Andrew's Church, Meriden, June 9, 1903.

The annual meeting was held at this time and place, the Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., President, in the chair.

In the absence of the Rev. George T. Linsley, Secretary, the Rev. Oliver H. Raftery presented the following

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The business of the Church Scholarship Society during the past Correction year may be summed up as follows:

Fifty-nine Parishes have complied with the canonical requirement take up an offering for this work. The amount thus received is $679550 being a little more than last year. Twelve notes have been paid in fixed and four in part, aggregating $395; also a slight gain. This income with that from invested funds has been sufficient to pay all grants for the year. No applicant has been refused by the Board for lack of funds in its treasury.

But this does not mean that the apparent present prosperity of the Society is the result either of awakened interest in its work on the passed of the Church people of the Diocese, or of any renewed enthusiasm regard to it on the part of the several Parishes. When nearly 100 Passed ishes persistently ignore the Canon requiring an annual offering there not much cause for congratulations, but rather for searchings of hear the several parishes.

Twelve students are now being helped by the Society, eight in Berkley Divinity School and four in Trinity College. While this number larger than that of last year, it is only about one half the number assist in some years. It is fortunate for the Society that no more application were made; it is not, however, an evidence of increased Diocesan interest that the financial showing is so good for the time being.

The historical pamphlet about to be published and sent to all the meaning bers of the Convention, reviewing the seventy-five years of the history and work of this Society, makes further report at this time unnecessary. Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE T. LINSLEY, Secretary-

On motion, the report was accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal of the Diocesan Convention.

Report of the Connecticut Sunday School Auxiliary to the Board of Missions

Grace Church, Noank, was consecrated on Saturday, April 18, 1903, by the Bishop of the Diocese. Mr. Kellogg and Mr. Wheeler, of Mystic, received the Bishop at the Church door. The instrument of donation was read by the Rev. W. H. Jepson, Rector of St. James's, Poquetanuck; and the sermon was preached by the Rev. E. C. Acheson, Rector of Holy Trinity, Middletown.

The inception of the work of the Church in Noank was as follows. The Rev. Joseph Hooper, Rector of Mystic during the six years preceding 1894, held occasional services in the home of Mrs. Brooks, and looked after the few Church people whose love for the old mother Church prevented their affiliation with either of the Christian bodies represented there. In 1894 members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew at Mystic assisted the Rector, the Rev. H. L. Mitchell, in holding the first public service in the Temple of Honor Hall. These services were maintained until Mr. Mitchell left in 1895. During the next two years no work was done. On the resumption of the work in Mystic by Mr. Mitchell, the Mission at Noank was revived. In 1899 the matter was brought before the notice of the recently formed S. S. Auxiliary, and it was decided to aid Noank to erect a small Church. Local interest was aroused and a lot purchased. The Rev. L. M. Hardy, the Archdeacon of New London, took charge of the erection of the Chapel, and by his deep interest he created interest. Gifts were received and everything made ready for the consecration. The Chapel is the first one built by the Sunday Schools of Connecticut. It received the Advent Gifts for 1899, 1900 and 1903, amounting to $1,700.03.

The Auxiliary took up last fall the work of equipping libraries in Alaska. The following stations were chosen and supplied with books, from nine to twelve books having been sent to each place: St. Mary's, Nome, by St. John's, Waterbury; Christ Church, Anvik, by Christ Church, Pomfret; Church of Our Saviour, Tanana, by Holy Trinity, Middletown; St. Andrew's, Rampart City, by Trinity, Hartford; St. Stephen's, Yukon; Heavenly Rest, Circle City, by Christ Church, Greenwich; St. Thomas's, Point Hope.

The Treasurer's report is appended.

E. C. Acheson.

The basement of the Chapel has been made into a Guild Room and paid for. Mrs. Hart Welch gave us ten feet of ground surrounding our lot on two sides.

We have lost two of our chief supporters of the Mission, one by death and the other by removal.

Since the last report an elegant and commodious Parish House has been erected, at the cost of $2,000, the very generous gift of Mr. and Mrs. William Brewster, as a memorial to their uncle, the Rev. Joseph Brewster, father of the Bishop of Connecticut, and sometime Minister of this Parish. It was dedicated October 17th, 1902. This noble gift is highly appreciated, and is proving of great advantage to the Parish.

A pair of handsome brass altar-vases have also been presented by the family of the late William Henry Austen, once a Vestryman of Grace Church.

In addition to the financial report given above, the "Ladies Parish Aid Society" has raised $120.87, has furnished the Parish House, and has sent a box of clothing to a Southern Mission.

Handsome altar hangings have also been provided by the ladies of the Parish.

During the year a new pipe organ has been installed in the Church at an sense of $2,504.65, all paid, but the money not all raised during this year. The former Rector, the Rev. George Russell Warner, was obliged, on account continued ill health, to give up Parish work the middle of February, 1903, resigned at the end of his fourteenth year, May 19th, much to the regret not only his parishioners among whom he had done such faithful work, his hosts of friends all over the city.

For years the Communicant list has not been revised. After three yeareful search only 105 Communicants can now be found who actually retheir Communion at the Church of the Ascension. There are many channes which cannot be traced; some of these names represent Communication who have lapsed or removed, but have never requested a transfer.

For the first year in the history of the Parish (during 1902-1903) ther been no deficiency. The receipts have paid all current expenses, which, ever, have been considerably reduced.

St. Andrew's is not a Parochial Mission of Christ Church. The property is owned and liabilities assumed by the Church Missions Association of New Haven, and the work is dependent financially upon the contributions of Church people generally. The work of conducting the Mission has been entrusted to the Clergy of Christ Church, but that Parish assumes no financial responsibility beyond any other Parish. Since October first the services rendered by the Priest in charge have been given gratuitously, and the small stipend turned over to the Assistant. The work has been carried on with the most rigid economy, and every obligation met.

The present Rector took charge of the Parish on the first Sunday September. Since that time the Parish has received a legacy from the estate of Mrs. Nancy E. T. Wirth of $2,000, the fund held in trust by the Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes, the income to devoted to the care of the cemeteries, insurance on Church buildings, and repairs. Also from the Merrill Estate a legacy of $4,000 held by the same Trustees, the income to be used at the discretion of the Vestry.

During Advent the Woman's Auxiliary sent a box to Corning, Kentucky valued at $3.50. During Lent a box was prepared and sent to the hospit at Orlando, Florida, valued at $6. Altogether the prospect for the future seems promising.

The new Rectory finished and occupied last summer makes St. Paul's one of the most completely appointed rural Parishes in the Diocese. The building, which was erected at a cost of $6,036.81, is commodious and attractive, equipped with all modern conveniences and lighted with gas. It stands upon a valuable plot of land containing an acre and a half, extending from the Church site to the shore, with 180 feet of water front. The Rectory was fully paid for when completed, and a little over $500 was set aside as the beginning of an endowment fund for its maintenance. Among the recent memorials placed in St. Paul's Church, a notable one is the unusually beautiful brass eagle lectern in memory of the late Edward Huntington Brinley, M.D., which was unveiled with appropriate benediction, October 19th, 1902.

Clerk:-WALTER D. DASKAM

The Senior Warden, Mr. Walton Ferguson, has endowed the Edward Ferguson Memorial Building, given by him and his wife some years ago, by presenting to the Parish a fund of $20,000, for the maintenance of the fabric and of the work carried on in it.

Two other persons, who wish their names withheld, have given the Parish, one the sum of $15,000, and the other the sum of $3,000, both to be used for building a Club House for men and boys connected with St. John's Parish House and for the maintenance of the work done in it.

Two windows by the Tiffany Glass Co. have been placed in the Church: the one in the chancel by Josephine Leeds to the memory of Jno. W. and Eliza Leeds, and the other in the south aisle in memory of Capt. Edmund D. Smith, U. S. A. Beside the latter is placed a tablet to the memory of Capt. Smith, given by the officers of his regiment, the 19th Infantry.

Educational and Charitable Institutions

MAINTAINED OR CONDUCTED BY CHURCHMEN, AND LOCATED IN CONNECTI-CUT, BUT NOT UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE DIOCESE

In 1901 the Journal contained information from various institutions of this class, and a new one was described in 1902. It seems unnecessary to reprint this every year; so the inquirer is referred to the Journal of 1901, pages 282-287, and the Journal of 1902, page 290, for a brief statement of the history, object, endowment, management and terms of admission of each of the following institutions:

TRINITY COLLEGE, HARTFORD; Vernon and Summit Streets.

THE POMFRET SCHOOL FOR BOYS.

THE WIDOWS' HOME, HARTFORD; 133 Market Street and 13 South Hudson Street.

THE CHURCH HOME, HARTFORD; 123 Retreat Avenue.

THE OPEN HEARTH, HARTFORD; 73 Grove Street.

THE CURTIS HOME, MERIDEN, (for women and children); South Crown Street.

St. Luke's Home for Destitute and Aged Women, Middletown; 157 Pearl Street.

THE TRINITY CHURCH HOME, NEW HAVEN; 301 George Street.

St. Paul's Church Home for Aged Women, New Haven; 600 Chapel Street.

PRINTED FOR THE DIOCESE

Matters of especial interest

The Bishop's Address discusses Marriage and Divorce, Courts of Appeal, the Revised Version, and Missions. (Pages 58 to 77.)

It was resolved to petition the General Convention to establish Courts of Appeal (pages 49 and 50), and to grant the permissive use of the Revised Version or the American Revision of the Scriptures. (Page 83.)

The Rev. Dr. Samuel Hart having completed thirty years as Registrar of the Diocese, a Minute was adopted expressing appreciation of his valuable and unremunerated services. (Pages 41 to 44.)

The Records of Convocation from 1790 to 1848 having been published, with annotations, the Rev. Dr. Hart and the Rev. Joseph Hooper were thanked for their labors. (Page 86.)

Deputies were elected to the General Convention. (Pages 78 and 79.)

A revised Form for the Organization of Missions in the Diocese was submitted and referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons to consider and report next year. (Pages 83 to 85.)

The Special Committee on Church Work among the Colored People of Connecticut made a careful Report, which was referred to the Archdeaconries for further action. (Pages 50 to 54.)

The Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese presented a report of unusual interest. (Appendix E.)

No new Parishes were admitted; and no change was made in the Constitution, Canons or Rules of Order.

The Assessment for the Convention Fund was restored to its former rate of three-fourths of one per cent. (Page 81.)

The application of the Apportionment Plan for General Missions was again referred to the Committee to Coöperate with the Board, with power to make Apportionments. (Page 87.)

A Resolution was adopted requesting the Bishop to substitute portions of his Annual Address for the Sermon customary at the opening of the Convention, in order to save time for business. (Page 82.)

Special Committees were appointed to consider the advisability of providing a House or Room for the business of the Diocese, and an Episcopal Residence (pages 85 and 86); to consider a proposal to merge the Diocesan Funds for Infirm Clergy with the Fund known as "General Clergy Relief" (page 86); and to devise additional means for safeguarding Diocesan and Parochial trust funds. (Page 87.)

A list of all the Clerical and Lay Deputies from Connecticut to the General Convention from the beginning in 1785 is given in Appendix U.

Confirmations in the Diocese since 1820 are tabulated in Appendix V.

JOURNAL

SAINT PAUL'S CHURCH, NEW HAVEN; 1
TUESDAY, JUNE 14, 1904.

This being the day appointed by the Constitution and the place designated by the Bishop, the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut assembled at 9.30 A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Right Reverend Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Doctors Storrs O. Seymour, Samuel Hart and William G. Andrews, and the Rev. George T. Linsley, of the Standing Committee; the Rev. Doctor Thomas R. Pynchon; and the Rev. James De Wolf Perry, Jr., Rector of the Parish.

The Sermon was delivered by the Rev. Henry Ferguson, LL.D., Professor in Trinity College, from I John iii., I; "Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God."

The music was rendered by a male choir, vested, and reinforced with Clergymen.

The Offertory was for the Missionary Society of the Diocese.

The service ended, the Bishop took the chair about 11.30 A. M.

On motion, the roll-call was dispensed with; and, by means of cards deposited at the door, it was ascertained that 148 Clergymen were present, whose names are indicated by an asterisk in the list on pages 13-21. Lay Delegates to the number of 159, representing 105 Parishes, were also present, whose names are marked with an asterisk on pages 28-34.

A quorum of both orders being present, the Convention was declared duly organized.

The Rev. Frederick W. Harriman, D.D., was by ballot unanimously elected Secretary; and he appointed as his Assistants the Rev. John F. Plumb and the Rev. Samuel R. Colladay.

On motion of Archdeacon Booth, the Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted without change.

MINUTE

The Rev. Samuel Hart, D.D., D.C.L., having completed thirty years' service as Registrar of the Diocese of Connecticut, this Convention nereby records its appreciation of his work.

The office of Registrar was created in 1866, with the function, as lefined, of taking "charge of all documents, papers and records belongng to this Diocese." Its importance, and to some extent its purpose, were indicated by the unanimous choice of the Rev. Dr. Beardsley of New Haven, the historian of the Diocese, as the first incumbent. 'On Dr. Beardsley's resignation in 1873, the appointment of Professor Vibpert of the Berkeley Divinity School emphasized the fact that the position belongs to a scholar. But before he could enter on the duties of his office Professor Vibbert removed to Philadelphia, and Professor Hart, then of Trinity College, was made Registrar in 1874. He received he Archives directly from Dr. Beardsley, and may therefore be regarded is the second incumbent of the office. He soon began the effort, which ne has continued ever since, to secure a more rapid enlargement of the naterials for diocesan history entrusted to him, by requests for books, pamphlets and manuscripts in any way bearing on the subject, by exchanges, and sometimes by purchase. His appeals for gifts were esponded to from within and often from without the Diocese; and while ncreasing, in the end immensely, the amount and value of our historical collections, he undoubtedly saved many important documents which vould otherwise have been utterly lost. In one case he rescued from in unfortunate Registrar, whose Diocese had instructed him to sell most of its archives for waste paper, eighteen copies of Connecticut Convention Journals. The wide range of his acquisitions is doubly illustrated by the fact that he once received from the Registrar of South Carolina a manuscript history of Guilford in this State. In 1881 his predecessor, Dr. Beardsley, contributed a large collection of manuscripts gathered in the course of his historical labors, and of special value as respects parochial history. The widows and children of deceased Clergymen who had been students and collectors sent now and then the accumulations of a lifetime, including in more than one instance hundreds of pamphlets. Thus year by year the Archives grew under the Registrar's diligent and patient care. Dr. Hart's efforts were not directed to the building up of a great library, or even of a fairly full historical library, but to the making it possible for students to read the story of Anglican Christianity in Connecticut in the crabbed original. Five years ago he needed two large rooms in which to store his material for diocesan history and make it accessible. He had now, for example, one hundred and thirty-eight bound volumes of Convention Journals, those of other Dioceses being generally complete, at least from 1874, and often helpful to a knowledge of the oldest of all, and of the fortunes of "Connecticut Churchmanship."

To the labor of gathering was added that of arranging, classifying, and cataloguing, a severer task. Thus the perplexity experienced in preparing for the binder twelve volumes of pamphlets, in 1895, can only be appreciated by those who have spent days in sorting pamphlets, many of which seem to defy classification because they are each sui generis.

The Archives are our own, but Dr. Hart, as becomes a scholar, has wished to make them useful far beyond our borders. He has not only received very many duplicates, but, especially in the case of Connecticut Journals, he has constantly sought for them. And, besides their obvious utility for exchange, they have gone, as historical material, to individual collectors all over the continent, and to institutions perhaps as widely. Various Clergymen and others in Connecticut have thus been enabled to complete sets of our Journals. But other Registrars now want them for their Archives (in pleasing contrast with the one who was directed to send them to the paper-mills); and in 1897 Dr. Hart reported a constant call for them from important public libraries in the United States. And a set, with other volumes of like character, has been sent to the Church House in London, which would apparently receive with pleasure a duplicate of our whole collection, and be prepared to equip some future English historian of the Diocese of Connecticut.

Our Registrar has repeatedly been called on, or has consented unasked to use most laboriously for our benefit what he has gathered so laboriously. And so we possess an invaluable index of the Journals (from 1792 to 1897), and lists of Ordinations and Convocations and Conventions, and of extinct Parishes and of Parishes which have changed their names. To one task of this general character Professor Dexter of Yale University said that he owed valuable information which he could find nowhere else. But few know how much the result of such work is worth, or what it cost the unpaid workman.

But our appreciation of Dr. Hart's work as Registrar will be utterly inadequate unless we make some account, inadequate as that, too, must be, of his value in other kinds of service. The cost of any labor increases with the costliness of the tools; and what we possess in our Archives is not merely their visible contents, but the rare intellectual and moral force, acting steadily through half a lifetime, of an accomplished scholar and self-sacrificing man. Having been Optimus and Valedictorian at Trinity, he returned to a Greek tutorship, soon to be exchanged for the chair of Mathematics, from which he retired after thirteen years, to hold that of Latin for sixteen years; until at last, as the only possible successor of Bishop Williams, he took the two related, yet quite distinct, departments of Theology and the Prayer Book at the Berkeley Divinity School. Meanwhile he had become a member of half a dozen learned societies of national character, and been president of one of them; not to speak of the presidency of the Connecticut Historical Society, which he has held since 1900.

To record here all the testimony that the Diocese itself, through its Bishop or its Convention, has given to Dr. Hart's ability to serve her in other ways, is impossible. But we would not forget that just twenty years ago he was one of the four Presbyters, with Dr. Beardsley at their head, who went with the successor of Seabury to commemorate Seabury's Consecration in the city where it occurred a century before, and to deliver to the successors of his Scottish consecrators a message from Connecticut which he had aided in preparing. Far less would we forget that in 1886 he took his seat, as one of our representatives, in the General Convention, and what came of that. The House of Deputies at once employed him, a new member, on the great task of that period, Liturgical Revision; and he was also appointed Custodian of the Standard Prayer Book, a position which makes his name honorably known throughout the Church. His share in the task of revision grew larger, until, in 1892, it was his duty to bring it to completion in the House of Deputies by taking charge of the amendments then to be finally passed on. By his lucid explanations, we are told, he aided the dispatch of business to a degree which it would be hard to overestimate and "impossible to praise too highly." During the same session there was presented a report from the Committee on the Standard Prayer Book which Dr. Dix, the President of the House, called "very wonderful," a report which "the whole American Church had reason to be proud Dr. Huntington, the brilliant leader of the Revision movement, said that this high praise was due the Secretary of the Committee, Dr. Samuel Hart, and that the report ought henceforth to bear his name. Finally, when, at the same session, near its close, it was announced that he had been chosen to the important position, which he still holds, of Secretary of the House of Bishops, the Deputies unanimously voted the expression of their earnest hope that the election would be declined. The whole General Convention gave sufficiently emphatic testimony to the value of his services when its two branches were in a manner contending for them. It need only be mentioned that in 1898 Dr. Hart was made Historiographer of the Church; while in 1893 he declined the Episcopate of Vermont; and later a chair in the General Theological Seminary. He has virtually given his life to Connecticut; and the gift has included a wealth not only of intellectual and moral but of spiritual power, put forth in priestly ministries such as the best of Parish Priests might have been thankful to be equal to. And the modest office of Registrar, in which he has for almost a generation wrought so untiringly and unselfishly, would seem furnished in him with an instrument far too costly for such uses, were it not that he has wrought so fruitfully as to make those uses seem worth the cost.

This is saying much, for though the cost to us is nothing, it may easily have been to him the sacrifice of laurels, to be green for generations, which he could have won in Christian literature. But he has the consciousness of having served his own generation by the will of God. And we, seeking to offer an appreciation not only of his great service but of his great sacrifice, can take pleasure in the thought that he is still in his intellectual prime, and while continuing, as we desire, the services so valuable to us, may yet accomplish some other work, sure to be invaluable to us because worthy of him; possibly erecting his monument out of the very stones that he has quarried.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM G. ANDREWS, EDWARD E. BRADLEY,
GEORGE HICKMAN BUCK, FREDERICK J. KINGSBURY,

Committee.

The Report was accepted; the Minute was adopted unanimously by a rising vote; and the Committee was discharged.

The Rev. Dr. Goodwin moved the following Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Finance:

Resolved. That for the purpose of providing for the salary and expenses of the Bishop, an assessment of three-fourths of one per cent. be levied upon each Parish and Mission on an amount equal to that paid for "Current Expenses (including Salaries)" during the year ending at this Convention, as printed in the Journal of the Convention for 1904; and that this assessment be paid by the Treasurer of each Parish to the Treasurer of the Bishop's Fund on or before January 1st, 1905.

Mr. English reported two vacancies in the Board of Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, and also in that of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund, caused by the elevation of the Rev. Edwin S. Lines, D.D., to the Episcopate of Newark, and the death of the Hon. John C. Hollister.

On motion of Mr. English, it was Resolved, That the list of Parishes delinquent in contributing to those two Funds be printed with their Reports in the Journal.

Mr. Johnson reported one vacancy in the Board of Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes, caused by the removal and resignation of Mr. Frank H. Sperry.

The Rev. Dr. Hart presented the following

Resolved, That the Report of the Committee to prepare a Form for the Organization of Missions in the Diocese be referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, to consider and report to-day.

The Rev. Dr. Hart, for the Committee appointed last year on Constitution and Canons, presented the following Report, which had been printed and distributed to all the members of the Convention about two weeks beforehand.

REPORT OF THE

COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden on the second Tuesday in June, 1904.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons begs leave respectfully to report in regard to the matters which have been referred to it.

(1) The last Convention (Journal, pages 44, 72) referred to this Committee the following resolution offered by the Rev. Harry I. Bodley:

Resolved, That Section 5 of Canon I. be amended by the addition of the following paragraph:

"(6) By habitual absence from all regular and special meetings of the Parish for a space of three years; the fact to be determined in each case by the Vestry, as provided below in Section 7."

The Committee is of the opinion that the proposed amendment should be adopted by insertion into paragraph (2), with a change in its phraseology which would make the Vestry the judge as to whether there had been satisfactory excuse for habitual absence from meetings; and it recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That paragraph (2) of Section 5 of Canon I. be amended so that it shall read as follows:

- "(2) By removal from the Parish, or by absence without excuse from all regular and special meetings of the Parish for a space of three years; the fact to be determined in each case by the Vestry, as provided below in Section 7."
- (2) The Committee has been asked by Mr. St. John Merrill of Norwalk to consider whether in case the foregoing resolution is adopted an amendment should not be made to Section 7 of Canon I., requiring that the Clerk shall at each Parish-meeting call the roll of members and enter upon the minutes the names of those who are present.

In regard to this matter the members of the Committee have not been able to come to an agreement, two of them being of the opinion that the proposed amendment of the Canon should be made, and two being of the opinion that the matter should be left to be regulated by the by-laws of the several Parishes.

(3) The last Convention (Journal, pages 44, 72) referred to this Committee another resolution offered by the Rev. Harry I. Bodley, as follows:

Resolved, That Canon VII. be amended by substituting for "The Church Scholarship Society" the words "Theological Education in this Diocese."

The Committee has had the matter under consideration, and is of the opinion that the phraseology of the proposed amendment is too indefinite, and that if it were adopted it would be impossible to enforce the requirement of the latter part of the Canon; and the Committee asks that it may be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Sylvester Clarke, Morris W. Seymour, Samuel Hart, Gardiner Greene, Committee.

On motion of Archdeacon Raftery, the first Resolution proposed in the Report was recommitted for further consideration.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Hart, the Committee was discharged from further consideration of the second and third subjects mentioned in the Report.

Mr. Morris W. Seymour, for the Committee appointed last year to negotiate with certain alumni of the Episcopal Academy with reference to leasing the property to them, reported verbally that the lease was effected in the summer, and that a new corporation entitled "The Cheshire School, Incorporated," has conducted the institution during the past year. The terms of the lease were stated on page 106 of the Journal for 1903. The improvements made and the present policy of the School are described in a statement which he submitted, and which was ordered to be printed with the Journal. (Appendix C.)

The Report was accepted and the Committee discharged.

About one o'clock a recess was taken until 2.15 P. M.

TUESDAY, 2.15 P. M.

The Convention having reassembled, the Rev. William A. Beardsley presented the Report of the Committee on the Distribution of the Prayer Book; which was accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal. (Appendix N.)

On motion, it was

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed with power to act in respect to the distribution of the Book of Common Prayer in this Diocese. The Committee shall report to the next Convention the amounts of money received and expended.

The President reappointed the same persons, so that the Committee stands as follows:

COMMITTEE ON DISTRIBUTION OF THE PRAYER BOOK Rev. WILLIAM G. ANDREWS, D.D.

Rev. WILLIAM A. BEARDSLEY FREDERICK D. BUCKLEY

Mr. Charles A. Pease George E. Beers The Rev. Frank W. Baker, D.D., for the Committee on the Proposal to print Financial Reports before Convention, presented the following

REPORT

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut to be holden June 14, 1904:

The Committee appointed in 1902 (see Journal, page 72) to consider a proposal to print and circulate before Convention the financial reports of all Boards of Trustees and Committees, respectfully report, that they have given the matter careful thought, and are of the opinion that the inconveniences involved in so doing, including changes in two of the Charters, would outweigh any advantages to be derived. They therefore ask to be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

Respectfully submitted,

F. W. Baker, F. W. Harriman, Elijah C. Johnson.

Mr. Walton Ferguson and Mr. Schuyler Merritt dissent from the opinion of the majority of the Committee.

New Haven, June 14, 1904.

The Report was accepted and the Committee discharged.

The Rev. Dr. Seymour presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON COURTS OF APPEAL

The undersigned, being a Committee appointed by the last Diocesan Convention to consider a communication received from the Diocese of Milwaukee asking that this Diocese unite with that in a memorial addressed to the next General Convention, petitioning the same to establish a Court of Appeals to which the decision of Diocesan Courts may, if desired by either party, be referred for review, respectfully report, that in view of the fact that, since Diocesan Courts are necessarily made up of those who are inexperienced in judicial proceedings, there exists a liability that the defendant in any cause may have injustice done to him, in which case he now has no relief, it would be well that the General Convention should exercise the liberty which is granted to it by Article IX. of the Constitution, and establish Courts of Review for the determination of Diocesan and other trial courts. Therefore,

Resolved, That the Diocese of Connecticut assembled in Annual Convention unites with the Diocese of Milwaukee in its request that the General Convention will, if deemed advisable, take such action as the Ninth Article of the Constitution authorizes it to do.

Resolved, That our Deputies to the General Convention be requested to present the foregoing Resolution to the House of Deputies as a Memorial from this Diocese; and that a copy of the same be sent to the Secretary of the Diocesan Council of Milwaukee.

Respectfully submitted,

STORRS O. SEYMOUR, Wm. H. Lewis, GARDINER GREENE, A. HEATON ROBERTSON, Committee.

Both Resolutions were adopted, and the Committee was discharged.

The Rev. Ernest deF. Miel presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EXTENDING THE WORK AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE OF CONNECTICUT

The census of 1900 reported for Connecticut a colored population of 15,226. A conservative estimate of the increase during the last four years places the figures at 20,000. New Haven has seen the greatest growth in colored population, due in large measure to accessions from the Southern States, and numbers to-day approximately 5,600 colored residents, as against 3,000 in 1900.

As a preliminary measure your Committee has made a canvass of the colored population in the cities of New Haven, Hartford, Bridgeport, Waterbury, New Britain, Meriden, Norwich, Norwalk, Ansonia, Derby, Stamford, New London, Danbury and Middletown. This canvass was undertaken in the belief that these were the most populous centers, though it is quite possible that in some of the rural districts a large percentage of colored people may be found. Investigation and inquiry revealed the fact that no statistics are kept by the State or municipal officers with respect to the number of colored residents as distinguished from the white; and, therefore, it was found necessary to procure our figures from those who are in immediate touch with the colored population, and familiar with the facts concerning its composition. For this reason the results of our canvass are hardly more than an approximation, and are based almost entirely upon figures furnished by those who are engaged in religious work among these people. We believe, however, that the accompanying table will be found substantially correct, and will furnish sufficient data for any action this Convention may see fit to take.

It appears from an examination of these figures that sixty-six per cent. of the colored population of the State reside in the thirteen cities included in this canvass. In New Haven, Bridgeport, Hartford and Waterbury a condition of religious need is found to exist, which naturally points to these centers as places where missionary activity on the part of our Church is demanded. The population would seem to be steadily increasing in these quarters, without a corresponding increase in the number and size of the religious agencies already at work there.

Out of a colored population of 5,600 in New Haven, we find not more than 2,194 souls accounted for as being reached by the seven colored Churches, together with the other religious organizations in that city. As we are already on the field with a parish organization which promises steady and healthy growth, it would seem inexpedient at this time to undertake new work in this locality.

In Bridgeport, with a colored population of 2,000, three religious societies are at work, together with two small Missions. Notwithstanding, fifty per cent. of the people seem to be without any church connection. There may be here a fruitful field which would justify an expenditure of money and labor on the part of this Church.

In Hartford the colored population is reckoned at 2,000. There are four congregations already in existence, which minister to some 1,100 souls. It is estimated that about 180 attend other Churches. This would leave some 720 who are not accounted for. How many of these would be drawn to a colored Church of our communion, missionary effort alone would reveal.

In Waterbury, with a colored population of 900, 340 individuals would seem to be without church affiliations. The present rate of increase would suggest the advisability of missionary effort there in the near future.

Before recommending that work be undertaken in these places by our Church, we feel that the local situation should be carefully studied by the Clergy and laity who are immediately interested and responsible for the religious status of these communities. We understand, in the appointment of this Committee, that the Convention did not intend to create a Commission on colored work, but simply to appoint a body which should inquire into and make known the facts and needs, and point the direction of such missionary activity as may be required. Dur missionary system, following the lines of administration through Archdeaconries, leads us to suggest that the first step to be underaken is for each Archdeaconry to make the possible extension of our Church among the colored people a special object of consideraion, and to appoint, if need be, a local Committee which should secure he facts we were unable to obtain, namely, how many colored families vithin their limits belong to our own Church, and how many are nclined that way; to ascertain, in fact, the number of those who might be available as a nucleus for the beginning of a Mission.

There is no money set aside by our Missionary Society for the expense of such work; nevertheless we believe that should any work of this kind be undertaken upon the recommendation of an Archdeaconry, part of the support should come from the Missionary Society. This may necessitate the setting aside of a certain percentage of our contributions to Diocesan Missions for work among the colored people, and should be kept separate from the appropriation that is now made for the established Missions of each Archdeaconry. We therefore beg to recommend to the Convention the following action:

Resolved, That the report of the Committee on Extending the Work among Colored People be referred to the several Archdeaconries of the Diocese for special consideration at their next regular meetings; and, in cases where the local conditions would seem to warrant such action, we recommend that a special Committee be appointed by each Archdeaconry to investigate the religious condition of the colored people within its boundaries, with a view to inaugurating missionary work among these people, such as their needs may require.

Resolved, That this Convention authorize the Missionary Society of the Diocese to set apart five per cent. of the offerings annually made toward Diocesan Missions, to be expended in promoting new work among colored people in those Archdeaconries where such work is undertaken and such aid asked for.

Respectfully submitted,

ERNEST DEF. MIEL, EUGENE L. HENDERSON, EDWARD E. BRADLEY,

For the Committee.

The first Resolution was adopted; the second was lost; and the Committee was discharged.

The Rev. Dr. Andrews presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON PAROCHIAL ARCHIVES

The Commission on Parochial Archives respectfully presents its annual report.

Our first Secretary, the Rev. Frederic W. Bailey, having completed his work as copyist of archives (the results of which are reported by the Registrar), and removed from Connecticut, has resigned his secretary-ship after more than five years of useful service, and has been succeeded by Mr. F. Clarence Bissell, a member of the Commission.

The Records of Convocation, copied for publication at our request under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Hart, and annotated by one of our number, the Rev. Joseph Hooper, appointed to act with Dr. Hart, have been carried through the press by Mr. Hooper. His work as annotator occupied the greater part of the summer and autumn of 1903. He has since revised the proof-sheets of the text, and by great exertion has the printed Records and Notes ready for examination, only the index being unfinished. This task called for much time and patience, nd some parts of it for prolonged research. Owing to the absence of ne custodian of the Johnson papers, the careful examination needed for ne completion of the abstract hoped for from Mr. Hooper could not e made. He trusts that he will be able to complete it during the comig year. Mr. Hooper is to have from Professor Seabury, of the Genral Theological Seminary, every facility desired for the examination of ne valuable papers of the Rev. Samuel Seabury and his son, the first lishop of Connecticut. The Schroeder papers at New Milford have been artially examined, and results are to be embodied in due form early in ne autumn. The few papers of the Rev. Ashbel Baldwin in the ossession of the Rev. William A. Beardsley have been examined, but n abstract has not yet been made. Through the kindness of Mr. dward C. Beecher of New Haven, Mr. Hooper has under examination ne voluminous and entertaining diary of the Rev. Dr. Harry Croswell, nd he is making an abstract embracing matters of special interest. Ie has found in the "Christian Journal," edited by Bishop Hobart etween 1817 and 1830, details of that Bishop's visitations in Connectiut from 1816 to 1819, which seem to have been overlooked. An abstract could add to our knowledge not only of those years, but of a longer eriod of diocesan history. Mr. Hooper has been authorized to transribe from the "Christian Journal" and contemporary periodicals statenents relating to Bishop Hobart's administration of this Diocese.

The special importance of the task entrusted to Dr. Hart and Mr. Iooper as regards the Convocation Records, and the value of the results ow attained, as well as the admirable diligence of Mr. Hooper in this nd kindred labors, entitle both to the formal thanks of the Convention. Renewed efforts to secure information about papers of interest to the Diocese left by our loyalist Clergy who removed to the Eastern Provinces f Canada, have added little to our previous knowledge. The utmost eadiness to furnish information, and to seek for it, has been shown y the present successors of those Clergymen, and by others, and it eems probable that not much material of the kind sought is now known y anybody to exist. A diary was left by the Rev. Frederick Dibblee (son f the Rev. Dr. Dibblee of Stamford), who was ordained by Bishop nglis in Halifax; and it has been learned incidentally that his father's etters of orders, declaration of conformity, license from the Bishop of ondon, and commission from the Venerable Society, are carefully preerved by descendants in California.

In the prosecution of these inquiries various facts of a personal ature, illustrating the relations between Connecticut and the provinces, are been gathered, many of them, it is probable, not generally known ere. It seems right that they should be preserved somewhere in our Diocesan records; and having been for the most part reported to the Commission and having awakened some interest, we venture to include hem in our own report. The account does not pretend to be even pproximately complete.

Our clerical emigrants, as became them, were useful otherwise than as llergymen. For example, John Beardsley, born and educated here, though he had served in New York, was thought to be as good a farmer as preacher, wielded a broadaxe in his shirt sleeves on the frame of the first Church in St. John, New Brunswick, and was of inestimable service in rousing the disheartened refugees to manly effort. Roger Viets and his son and successor at Digby, Nova Scotia, Roger Moore Viets, received no stipends because they could support themselves in abundance on the proceeds of their lands. James Scovill built his own house at Kingston, N. B. Another, Isaac Browne, who, though born at West Haven, and a graduate of Yale, had served in New Jersey, and whom old age and many hardships had rendered unable to work after his arrival in Nova Scotia, interests us particularly as the brother of Daniel Browne the Yale tutor, who declared for Episcopacy with Cutler and Johnson, was Johnson's intimate friend, and died in England just after taking orders. A laconic tribute to the wives of two natives of Connecticut whose earlier work had been done here, deserves to be quoted: "I cannot tell you of the good that Rachel Clarke and Hannah Andrews did."

The children and descendants of such men and women have shown the power of heredity. It has already been mentioned that the son of Roger Viets took his father's place; and it is perhaps sufficiently known that Richard Samuel Clarke was also succeeded by his son, and James Scovill by his son and grandson, the last surviving until 1876. The three served the Parish of Kingston for ninety years, and the Church, together and severally, for one hundred and thirty years. The name of Oliver Arnold, one of those who were ordained after leaving Connecticut, is One of his sons was his successor, and he had another son in Holy Orders. Our record of later clerical descendants must be very far from complete. It can be stated, however, that ten Clergymen (one of them now Rector of an important Parish in Central New York), and two young men preparing for Orders (one of them now a student at Harvard), have descended from three of those who had served in Connecticut, Clarke, Scovill and Viets, and from three others who were natives of Connecticut, Arnold, Beardsley and Dibblee. It may not be unfair to add to the number one dead and two living descendants of Mather Byles (one of them formerly of this Diocese). For Mather Byles, though a native of Massachusetts, acquired his churchmanship in Connecticut while a Congregational Pastor at New London, and can reasonably be said to have begun there his journey to England for Some of these men have attained prominence or Episcopal ordination. even distinction, like the late Canon Ketchum of St. Andrews, N. B., and the Rev. W. O. Raymond of St. John, who is the chief authority on the eccelesiastical history of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, and who has been of great assistance in these researches. Mr. Raymond descends from three Connecticut Clergymen, Beardsley, the elder Dibblee, and Punderson, as also, in the male line, from a loyalist family of Nor-Another New Brunswick Clergyman, and the wife of a Rector in Ontario, came of Connecticut loyalists; and the wife of an Archdeacon in British Columbia, himself of loyalist ancestry, is a descendant of John Sayre of Fairfield, who, after he was forbidden to pray for the King, used to read the Homilies and omit the Liturgy.

Other children of the emigrant Clergy have been prominent in secular life. A son of Samuel Andrews was long high sheriff of Charlotte County, N. B.; and a grandson, whose father returned to the United States, became mayor of Rochester, N. Y., and a Member of Congress. A grandson of Roger Viets was high sheriff of Digby County, N. S.; a son of John Beardsley was a lawyer of distinction in New Brunswick and Ontario. The late Judge Mather Byles DesBrisay, apparently a greatgrandson of Mather Byles, was, apart from his prominence in his profession, the historian of Lunenburg County. A name which does not fall in precisely the same category, but is of special interest to us all, is that of David Seabury, youngest son of the first missionary sent to New London, and half brother of the first Bishop of Connecticut. He lived for more than twenty years in Nova Scotia, where the Bishop evidently visited him on his return voyage from England, and where he was long a magistrate, and was lieutenant-colonel of the Annapolis County militia, besides being twice declared elected to the provincial parliament. Outside of all our categories except that of Connecticut descent, combined with personal adhesion in early life to the Church of England, and therefore perhaps unwarrantably introduced, is the name of Sir Charles Tupper, a member of the Canadian Privy Council. His Connecticut ancestor went from Lebanon about 1760, and is therefore not reckoned even among the loyalist emigrants.

On the whole, not only the clerical exiles, but their wives and their little ones did honor to the mother who once felt bound to be ashamed of them. As a commonwealth she seems to be learning with the other original States to be a little ashamed of herself; as a Diocese she has had no reason to be ashamed in either respect.

Three volumes destined for the library of the Berkeley Divinity School, from which information about the matters just noticed has been gleaned, have been placed at the service of the Commission by the kindness of Dr. Hart. They are the Histories of Annapolis and Lunenburg Counties, Nova Scotia, and the Genealogy of the Viets family.

It is obvious that work of the kind described in the earlier portion of this report cannot be done thoroughly without expense. It is for the Convention to decide whether anything can be appropriated for such a purpose.

Prepared by the undersigned under the authority of the Commission.

W. G. Andrews, Chairman. F. Clarence Bissell, Secretary.

The Report was accepted; and, on motion of the Rev. Dr. Andrews, it was Resolved, That the Standing Resolution of 1894 (see Journal 1903, page 97) be amended by inserting after the words "Donations and Bequests," the words, "Or the Secretary of the Commission on Parochial Archives."

On motion of Mr. Edward B. L. Carter, it was

Resolved, That the election of Deputies to the General Convention be made the Order of the Day immediately after the Bishop's Address.

The President read his Annual Address, as follows:

In the course of these visitations and at other times I have officiated on two hundred occasions, preached or delivered addresses two hundred and fifteen times, celebrated the Holy Communion thirty-nine times, solemnized two marriages, officiated at three funerals, baptized two persons, and confirmed one thousand six hundred and ninety-four persons.

There have also been confirmed on my behalf, by the Bishop of Nebraska, in Christ Church, Norwich, twenty-one; in St. Andrew's, Norwich, twenty-nine; in Trinity Church, Norwich, eight; also by the Bishop of New York, in the Chapel of Salisbury School, five; making the total number of Confirmations one thousand seven hundred and fifty-seven.

Besides attending the meetings of the several Diocesan Boards, and of the Trustees of the Berkeley Divinity School, I have, except when detained by Diocesan duties, attended the meetings of the Board of Managers of the General Missionary Society. In October last I attended the Missionary Council, and also the very interesting Conference, at Washington, of the Bishops of our communion in North and South America and the dependent islands.

Within the year have died the Rt. Rev. Dr. Thomas March Clark, Presiding Bishop; the Rt. Rev. Dr. Dudley, Chairman of the House of Bishops; and, within a week of each other, two noble Missionary Bishops, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Abiel Leonard, Bishop of Salt Lake, and the Rt. Rev. Dr. James Addison Ingle, Bishop of Hankow.

Bishop Clark was Rector of Christ Church, Hartford, when he was elected Bishop of Rhode Island, an office which he held for forty-nine years. In 1899 he succeeded Bishop Williams as Presiding Bishop. His genial and sparkling humor and the generous breadth of his sympathies endeared him to many; while his commanding abilities, particularly his eloquence in the pulpit and on the platform, won him distinction and power. He lived to be the oldest Bishop of the Anglican Communion, and throughout this land was venerated and beloved.

Bishop Leonard had labored abundantly in his Missionary District, immense in territory and made more difficult by the strange problems presented in Mormonism. In a noteworthy courtesy of bearing and spirit, in wisdom of administration, in energy and enthusiasm of service, he left an example to his brethren.

The foreign field suffered irreparable loss in the death of Bishop Ingle, who had quickened both the evangelistic and the educational work in his jurisdiction, and remarkably impressed himself upon all who knew him. A man of Apostolic spirit, although hardly two years a Bishop, "he being made perfect in a short time, fulfilled a long time." The memory of him is an inspiration.

Thomas Underwood Dudley, Bishop of Kentucky, was laid to rest on the twenty-ninth anniversary of his Consecration to the Episcopate. A man of distinguished abilities, gifted in speech and wise in administration, of generous sympathies, and throwing himself earnestly into various forms of service to Church and State, he was much more than a Diocesan Bishop. As member of the Board of Managers of Missions, as head of the Commission for Work among the Colored People, and as Chairman of the House of Bishops, he filled a large place in the life of the Church, and largely illustrated the possibilities in the office of a Bishop.

The Canadian Church has lost her Primate, the Most Rev. Robert Machray, Archbishop of Rupertsland, a great missionary.

The American Church has lost an honored Presbyter, the Rev. Dr. John S. Lindsay, President of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, who was for a time connected with this Diocese as Rector of St. John's Church, Bridgeport.

During the year death has removed five of the Clergy of the Diocese.

The Rev. Eaton Whiting Maxcy, S.T.D., was for many years Rector of St. John's Church, Bridgeport; and, after an interval spent in the Diocese of Albany, came back in 1899 to labor in the same city at St. Luke's. At once childlike in heart, and in robust physique and sturdy mind and spirit very much of a man, he exercised a ministry of remarkable power. I doubt if in that large city any other Minister of any name ever came in close touch with so many souls. Very many men and women loved him as pastor and friend, and thank God for his faithful ministrations.

The Rev. Oliver Sherman Prescott fell asleep peacefully at Priory Farm, Verbank, N. Y., on the evening of November 17, 1903. He was at the time of his death next to the eldest of our Clergy in date of ordination, having been ordained Deacon by Bishop Brownell in September, 1847. He served in North Carolina; at the Church of the Advent, Boston; Trinity Church, Newport; Christ Church, West Haven; with the St. John the Evangelist Fathers at Cowley; in the slums of London, with Mrs. Gladstone as his helper; at St. Clement's, Philadelphia; in the Diocese of Fond du Lac; at the Church of the Transfiguration, New York; and, at the last, for seven years as Rector of St.

Luke's, New Haven. Personally acquainted with the leaders, and himself prominent among the early adherents, of the "Oxford Movement," Father Prescott was unswervingly faithful to his convictions of Catholic truth. In the face of misunderstanding and opposition he never faltered in what he believed to be his duty. In the more than fifty years of his devoted priesthood he ministered with unusual effect to a great multitude, and many will remember him before God.

The Rev. Henry Tarrant, having served in the Parishes of Grace Church, Hamden, St. Paul's, Huntington, and Trinity Church, Lime Rock, and also in Parishes outside this Diocese, was at the time of his death Rector of St. John's Church, Pine Meadow. He was scholarly in his tastes and attainments, painstaking and earnest in the pulpit, diligent in shepherding his flock and in seeking the scattered sheep of Christ.

The Rev. Edward Rutledge Brown, after a faithful ministry in Christ Church, Unionville, (whence he began the services in Collinsville and Farmington); in St. Michael's Church, Naugatuck, St. John's Church, New Milford, and Grace Church, Stafford Springs, was obliged some years ago to retire from active work on account of ill health. We can but rejoice that he has been released from infirmity and pain, and is at rest in Christ.

The Rev. Lindall Winthrop Saltonstall, coming of families honored in the history of Connecticut and Massachusetts, spent his ministry in these two Dioceses as Rector of St. Mary's Church, Dorchester, and, for ten years, of Christ Church, Hartford. He was a studious and thoughtful man, a strong preacher, earnest in convictions, and of the highest character. a Christian gentleman.

Among the Laity, not only this Parish but the whole Diocese has met with a loss in the death, at a ripe old age, of Mr. John C. Hollister. Judge Hollister was for fifty years a Warden oi St. Paul's Church, New Haven; and for more than half a century was Superintendent of its Sunday School. He also served the Diocese in manifold ways, especially in building up the Fund for the Infirm Clergy; and has left an example of high character, earnest devotion and faithful service.

Other laymen who are missed here and in their Parishes are Mr. James W. White, benefactor of Trinity Church, Thomas-

; Mr. Louis Gates and Mr. Edward Bacon, the first Waris of St. Paul's Church, Waterville; Dr. Alonzo Shaffer, nior Warden of St. John's, Essex; Judge Levi E. Coe, of Andrew's, Meriden; Mr. Uri T. Church, of Trinity Church, rrington; Mr. G. A. Shepard, of St. Thomas's, Bethel, who only was generous while he lived, but took thought for the incial welfare of the Church long after his decease; Mr. incis Taylor, for forty-five years Senior Warden of St. ce's Church, South Glastonbury; Mr. David A. Baldwin, nior Warden of St. John's Church, New Milford; Mr. J. olcott Wheeler, for many years an officer in St. Michael's urch, Litchfield; Mr. Henry Cornwall, Senior Warden of St. er's Church, Milford; Mr. George B. Spencer, for thirty rs Warden, and for fifty years a member of the choir of rist Church, Guilford; Mr. Bennett Jeralds, Senior Warden the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Yalesville; and Mr. uben W. Linsley, of St. Paul's, Huntington, a member of first Convention after the death of Bishop Brownell; a n of sterling integrity and devotion to the Church, and who re her two of her best Parish Priests.

We are meeting with a Parish which has during the year lost not only its Senior Warden but also its Rector. The fact that one of our Clergy has become the Bishop of Newark has made us poorer throughout the Diocese, and particularly in this city, where Dr. Lines had won his place in the history of the Church beside the names of Bela Hubbard and Harry Croswell. These three men by their faithful pastoral work have been the largest factors in winning for this Church the position it has in this community. In this city Dr. Lines was probably looked to for pastoral offices by more people than any other Minister of any name, and at the time of his departure was generally recognized to be in many respects the leading citizen of no mean city. The Diocese had given him many evidences of its confidence. It had repeatedly elected him at the head of its delegation to the General Convention and a member of the Standing Committee. He had been the Secretary of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, and of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund, and had served the Diocese in many ways. I doubt if any man had the ear of this Convention as he had. I know I voice the feeling of all when I say that our good wishes and prayers go with him. His successor is with us to-day. As Bishop of the Diocese I give him a hearty welcome, and congratulate him that he is to be Rector of a Parish than which there is none nobler or more loyal in this Diocese.

While I am speaking of personal matters let me remind you that the Rev. Dr. Hart completes at this Convention thirty years of service as Registrar. In this office, as well as in other relations to the Diocese, he has done a vast amount of unremunerated and unrecognized work, which I venture to say not another man could have been found to do at once so willingly and so well. In things pertaining to the Church, as also in regard to a great many other things, his is the mastery "of them that know."

The Berkeley Divinity School, chartered and located at Middletown in 1854, this year completes a half-century of existence. The institution would seem successfully to have passed through the inevitable crisis which followed the death of its great founder. The number of students, from widely separated Dioceses, has recently increased from year to year. For next year some thirty are already entered.

In the preparation of Candidates for the sacred Ministry this Diocese has held an honorable record. It is my earnest desire that this record be in nowise lowered. The general Canon explicitly says: "No examination at any theological or other literary institution shall be held to be equivalent to any one or more canonical examinations, or allowed to supersede the same." I hereby give notice that this requirement of the Canon it is my intention hereafter strictly to adhere to. As one of the Examining Chaplains of the Diocese I have appointed the Rev. Arthur J. Gammack.

Early on Sunday morning, February 14th, the beautiful stone Church of St. James's Parish, Glastonbury, was destroyed by fire with all its contents, including interesting memorials which cannot be replaced. The Church was insured for a part of its value. To carry even this amount of insurance has involved effort and sacrifice; yet I am prompted to impress the lesson to be learned and heeded by those entrusted with the responsibility of trusteeship of Church property. An important part of such responsibility is the securing of the property against visitations like that which has befallen this Parish. I earnestly hope this duty may nowhere be neglected or slighted.

Aside from the personal and other losses which have been referred to, the year has been for the Diocese not particularly eventful, but, I trust, a year of quiet progress. There have been no Confirmation classes so large as those which have distinguished other years, yet the general average has evidently improved; for the number of persons confirmed exceeds by nearly one hundred and fifty the number reported last year, and exceeds by one hundred and thirty-nine the largest number previously reported.

In order not too long to detain you from important business, I pass over this year matters upon which I had desired to dwell. Before the approaching General Convention are coming certain questions of importance. They may call for no specific action here. You may not think it well that your Deputies should be here "instructed" to a degree which would bind them as to their action there. By no means is it my desire unduly to influence the action of this Convention. These questions, however, do call for intelligent interest on the part of all our people, and demand the recognition of great principles to be applied to their settlement.

First and foremost is the subject of Marriage and Divorce. The unit of society is not the isolated individual but the family. Considered ideally, the family is an institution as divine as the State or the Church. Considered historically, the modern family is the goal of an age-long social evolution. Considered practically, this institution holds together the structure of our civilization, as the keystone of the arch. In this elementary and typical form the social organism is to-day seriously threatened. The continued existence of the family is menaced by the facility and the frequency of divorce from the marriage bonds which create the family, and, binding it together, maintain its integrity. In this land the number of divorces has for some time exceeded the number in almost all other civilized countries taken together, and has been recently rapidly increasing. in large parts of our country prevails what is really an epidemic of social disease to a degree which justifies, not an unreasoning panic, but certainly serious thought on behalf of our national life, and vigorous measures to safeguard society from further infection.

The problem has for some time engaged the attention and earnest effort of wise men, and not without good result. Civil legislation regarding divorce is notably advancing in the right direction. The thing greatly to be desired is uniformity of divorce laws. This it was long hoped to secure by a Federal law of marriage. Some are still looking for help from that quarter. Thoughtful men, however, recognize the prejudice against interference by the Federal Government and the difficulty of securing an amendment of the Constitution of the United States.

As long ago as 1881 ex-President Woolsey suggested that the object desired might best be secured through concurrent action by the several States. This method of State-coöperation would seem to be now that which promises most results. Some thirtyfive States and Territories have appointed commissions for conference upon uniform legislation regarding several matters. A uniform bill for a law of divorce procedure has been prepared and is to be considered at the next conference. There are reasons for hoping that we may see before long enacted by a large number of State legislatures a uniform law regarding Meanwhile may be noted approaches to uniformity in better legislation on this subject by several States. Already there is an increasing comity in the recognition by one State of the stricter marriage laws of other States. All the signs are full of promise.

If the State should concern itself for the preservation of the family, how much more the Church? No subject of more momentous and practical importance, socially and ethically, could engage the attention of our Church people. This Church already stands for a high ideal of marriage, and discountenances divorce. Her Canon forbids her Ministers to solemnize the marriage of any person who has a divorced husband or wife still living, if such husband or wife has been put away for any cause arising after marriage. To this prohibition there is one exception, based upon the report in a single Gospel of words of our Lord differing in this particular from the report given in two other Gospels. Not only has the interpretation of this passage been disputed, but also its genuineness has been doubted; and the doubt finds support in our Bible with Marginal Readings.

Into these questions I shall not at this time enter. I content myself with referring to the familiar fact that our canonical exception based upon this passage has proved to be an open door inviting many appeals of cases claiming to come within the spirit if not the letter of the Canon. These appeals the Bishop, who is usually without training in the weighing of evidence, is asked to decide, having before him only so-called evidence which is presented by interested persons and is altogether ex parte; so that an affirmative decision involves the blackening of the character of a person whose side is unheard. Nor is this all. Within my knowledge, because within my own experience, have been attempts by gross misrepresentation to deceive the Bishop, attempts fortunately detected in time to prevent decisions which, in view of the actual facts, would have involved inevitable scandal to the Church and disgrace to the Bishop's office.

Thus I have been led to conclude that, even without pronouncing positively upon the genuineness or the meaning of the Scriptural passage in question, and considering the subject only with regard to the present condition of things, it is time that this open door for such a train of evils should be closed. The refusal of the Church to solemnize the marriage of any divorced persons would in some cases bear hard upon individuals. But here the interest of the individual must give way to the interest of society. In the words of Dr. Peabody of Harvard, "social wreckage must not obstruct social navigation."

There is another matter on which I feel constrained in this connection to speak. Reference has been made to a comity between States regarding divorce. Still more important would prove a certain ecclesiastical comity regarding the solemnization of matrimony; and such comity would seem to be at least as attainable between Christian Churches as a like comity between civil States. In view of the practical importance of the attitude and practice of Christian Ministers regarding marriage, and the influence upon the community of their attitude and practice; in view, moreover, of the momentous gravity of the subject, and the seriousness of the evil which threatens society, I now venture to call, so far as properly I may, the attention of our brethren, Ministers of other communions in our Commonwealth, to this matter of ecclesiastical comity, regarding the performance of the marriage ceremony. In all fraternal courtesy, I would, so far as in me lies, earnestly appeal to these brethren, and ask them, even before and apart from action by their own recognized authorities, to go as far themselves as each one conscientiously can, in refusing to perform the marriage ceremony for any person whose marriage there is reason to believe is forbidden by the laws of the Church wherein such person has membership. Such an attitude, if taken generally by the Ministers throughout the State, would accomplish much toward reducing to a minimum an evil now widely acknowledged.

Upon you, brethren, the Clergy of this Diocese, I earnestly enjoin that you diligently, and if need be, persistently, instruct the people committed to your charge in appreciation of the spiritual and sacred side of all these matters as that has been revealed through the Gospel of the Incarnate Son of God. I enjoin that our young people be taught, so far as they properly can be, a Christian reverence for the mystery of life and the issues of life; that our young women be taught to appreciate the seriousness of marriage, its solemn import and its sacred responsibilities; that our young men be taught to revere womanhood and motherhood for the sake of their own mothers and the Mother of our Lord, that so their purity may be no mere prudential restraint, but a generous and chivalrous Christian knightliness. Let there be inculcated devotion to high ideals for Christ's sake. Let there be preached, not the mere duty to keep one's self pure, but a very passion for purity "as He is pure." Let our youth be taught to value the blessedness of human love made constant by the consecration of that divine love that may hold all our lesser loves within its compass. Let all be taught that marriage and family life are not dependent upon selfish desire or mere caprice, but are institutions ordained of God, and designed, like other ordinances of God, with a view to the education, the formation and discipline, of character. Thus let there be earnest endeavor that the estate of matrimony may be entered into not, as so often now, "unadvisedly or lightly; but reverently, discreetly, advisedly, soberly, and in the fear of God."

Surely it is high time to remind men that Holy Matrimony has a sacramental character. It is not an outward ceremony without inward and spiritual meaning and grace. It is more than a secular partnership, more than a civil contract blessed by the Church. It is, as the Prayer Book describes it, "Holy Matrimony." The twain becoming one flesh St. Paul declares to be a great mystery. It symbolizes the mystical union between Christ and His Church. Divine grace alone can hallow love of man and woman, and enable them surely to perform and keep the vow and covenant betwixt them made. From the divine Fatherhood comes the consecration of marriage and its beginning of a human fatherhood on earth. St. Paul prays to the Father from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named. Hence may be learned the lesson of the binding sanctity of the marriage bond and the sacredness of the family, that institution divinely designed, that through the love of fathers and mothers the children of men should rise to apprehend the love of the God and Father of all. Hence men may learn to hallow their home, to honor its hearthstone and step with reverence over its threshold: hence learn to rear their family altar to Him who is the God of Isaac and Rebecca, the God of the household.

There will be an earnest effort on the part of certain Dioceses, for example, Milwaukee and Pennsylvania, to induce the General Convention to exercise the power, with which it is now under the provisions of the Constitution clothed, to provide for the establishment of Courts of Review or a Court of Appeals. Some such provision is imperatively demanded for the protection of the other Clergy from possible injustice, for the protection of Bishops from the consequences of error or the suspicion of injustice, and to supply a lack which may any day bring upon the Church grave scandal. This question is sure to press itself upon the conscience of the Church until it is somehow settled. The question may have been suggested by cases of passing notoriety. It may be associated with ephemeral contentions. Nevertheless it involves the profound principle of justice, and that eternal right whereunto Churches as well as States must conform if they are to stand. The provision called for may necessitate the adoption of some kind of provincial But I know not if that be a reasonable or valid objecsystem. tion.

A petition to the General Convention from the Diocese of California, sent to our Secretary, brings up the question of the Revised Version of Holy Scripture. For some time I have been in favor of permission to read in Church the Lessons from the Revised Version. It was as a step in that direction that I welcomed the Bible with Marginal Readings. I would not be lacking in a due regard for the feelings of those who take a different view. As between the Revised Version and the King James Version there will during our time be conflicting preferences. The latter has the advantage of age. The processes of time have made the walls of the Doge's Palace at Venice fairer for their very stains. Even the faults of the old version have become endeared through the hallowing power of long association. To me the important matter is that there have been such real gains in accuracy that the Revised Version does, bring us nearer to the Holy Scripture itself as it was written for our learning. Those who oppose its use in public services plead the spell of the familiar language of the King James Version and the music of its rhythm. Those who advocate the reading of the Lessons from the Revised Version do so with the desire to bring to the people a more faithful and exact rendering in English of the sacred Scriptures. Largely the issue would seem to be: on the one side the pleading of a not unnatural sentiment and the claims of that which is an acknowledged literary standard; on the other, contention for a profound principle. As between the two I could not hesitate, especially when all that is proposed is simply permission to read the Revised Version. When the Authorized Version was "appointed to be read in Churches," the authoritative sanction was, I am inclined to think, not exclusive, but only permissive. that age different versions were, to quote Bishop Westcott, "used concurrently, and at last the 'fittest' prevailed. We may, I believe, still trust to the action of the same law."

There are other questions which present yet more difficulty, for example, the grave problems touching our brethren of the black race. These are not problems to be solved offhand by mere theories, or in passion and prejudice. They demand dispassionate and patient attention. Out of the confusion and perplexity two things are clear to my mind, and I hope to yours. First, it may be necessary to devise some new machinery, or adjustments in the present machinery, of ecclesiastical organization. But a note of the Catholic Church is unity. There must be no breach of the Church's unity, not even an entering wedge that may threaten or make possible any actual division on lines of race or color. An African Episcopal Church there may be, let us hope, in Africa, but never on this continent. In the American Catholic Church all are, and are to be, one in Christ Jesus. Second, there ought to be a very much more vigorous prosecution of our work among those people, for the sake of our country wherein they make one in ten of the population, and for Christ's sake whose sheep they are.

So this question is only a part of the great problem that presses upon us everywhere, the problem of Missions. Some of you are weary of the "Apportionment Plan." But those of you who have loyally given it an honest trial, as many have, in large Parishes and in small Missions, know that, while it is in some details open to improvement, yet it has aroused in the people a deeper interest, which is enough to overbalance all adverse criticism. Its success depends chiefly upon the clergy. Everywhere is to be found interest on the part of the laity when they have been informed.

Some affect not to believe in Foreign Missions. But either they do not really believe in Jesus Christ, or else, if they do, God is opening their eyes to-day by the dramatic events He brings to pass. Just half a century after the United States opened the door into Japan, the island empire throws itself wholly into an intelligent and heroic struggle, while at the same time the stars in their courses seem to fight, for an outcome which shall surely hasten the dawn of a day such as the world has not seen, and the coming of that Kingdom of God which is to embrace East and West in a unity grander and spiritually richer far than either half of the world alone could be.

The Missionary Society of the Diocese is able this year to make the most gratifying and encouraging financial report which has been presented in many years, and the reports of the work are all along the line satisfactory and significant of progress. By many our Diocesan Missionary work is not appreciated, nor the fact that in parts of this Diocese there is going on, and there is urgent call to push forward, the same kind of aggressive work that is done in the newer western fields.

Aside from the obligation and privilege of furthering missionary work, General and Diocesan, a signal blessing therein is that it lifts us out of parochialism. Altogether out of place in this Church is anything like parochialism. The Parish is not an integral unit of Church life and power. To some degree there is in Connecticut still wanting an adequate sense of unity and solidarity as a Diocese, one household of faith.

Let us welcome conceptions of our work and its relations larger than may be circumscribed within parish bounds or measured by any number, or any mere aggregation, of parochial and therefore partial units. Let us endeavor more and more to rise to the true level of a Diocesan consciousness and of Diocesan responsibilities. That genuine Diocesan consciousness will be something other than a natural pride in the honorable history, the traditions, or the churchmanship of Connecticut. It will behold and recognize, practically, the Diocese as a true paroikía, a community which is an integral component part of the great commonwealth of the Church.

The Council of this Diocese here assembled has this day brayed God "so to direct, sanctify, and govern us in our work, by the mighty power of the Holy Ghost, that the comfortable Gospel of Christ may be truly preached, truly received, and truly followed, in all places." This is the purpose of the Church of Christ, which is His body, receiving His life and filled with His Spirit, in order to bring to the apprehension and to the needs of the present age the everlasting Gospel of Him who is the same vesterday and to-day and forever.

Of that unique Personality men's views will inevitably somewhat vary, as they approach Him from different sides; for He is the manifestation of the infinite God, and in Him dwells all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. The vitally important thing is that what the Church regards and presents to the world shall be not only systems of doctrine about Him, not schemes which are to be worked apart from Him and in a spirit perhaps alien to His, nor machineries out of which any spirit at all has vanished; but that the Church shall steadfastly contemplate, and so be able to show forth to the world, Jesus Christ Himself, the personal living Lord, mighty to help and to save. May we to-day here assembled so truly have sought His presence and His Spirit, that, as from a mountain-top of vision, affording a wide and luminous view and a sense of the true proportion of things, we may return to labor at our appointed work with hearts enlarged and enkindled, with quickened motives and braver faith, and to labor not in vain, because more and more in His Spirit of love and power!

CANON III.—Of Offences for which Ministers can be tried

Every Minister shall be liable to presentment and trial for crime or immorality; for holding and teaching publicly or privately, and advisedly, any doctrine contrary to that held by the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; for violation of the Constitution or Canons of the General Convention, or of this Diocese; for a persistent disregard of the order of this Church in the use of the Book of Common Prayer; or for conduct unbecoming a Clergyman of this Church. On being found guilty he shall be admonished, suspended, or degraded, according to Canon IV. of this Diocese, entitled "Of the Trial of a Clergyman."

CANON IV.—Of the Trial of a Clergyman

SEC. I. In order to bring a Clergyman to trial, a charge shall be made in the first place to the Standing Committee, in writing, under the proper signature of at least two Communicants of this Diocese, one of whom shall be a Presbyter. If the Standing Committee shall deem the offence charged as coming within the offences enumerated in the Canons of the Diocese of Connecticut, or of the General Convention, they shall present the charge to the Bishop in the following form:

To A. B., Bishop of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Standing Committee of this Diocese respectfully represent that C. D. has been accused under the hands of E. F. and G. H. of [here recite the charge or charges], and the Committee are of opinion that there is sufficient ground for presenting the said C. D. for trial, agreeably to the Canons in such cases made and provided.

[Signed by the Standing Committee.]

SEC. 2. Upon the receipt of the foregoing presentment, the Bishop shall summon nine Presbyters to meet, not within ninety days, at some place within the County where the accused shall reside or officiate for the time being; not less than five of whom shall constitute a Court for the trial of the charge or charges; and the accused may object to any two of such members, at his discretion, and to any for cause or favor, the sufficiency of which objection for cause or favor shall be determined by the other persons so summoned; or if by reason of such objections the number shall be reduced below five, the Bishop shall designate Presbyters to supply such vacancies. The Standing Committee shall have the same right to object, provided they exercise the right alternately with the accused, he being allowed the first privilege. All of such Presbyters not objected to or found disqualified shall sit as a Court.

- SEC. 3. The Bishop shall forthwith furnish to the Standing Committee and to the accused a list of the Presbyters summoned to constitute the Court, accompanied with a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Court. The Standing Committee shall act as prosecutors in the case, and at least sixty days before the trial shall furnish the accused with a copy of the presentment, notice of the time and place of trial, and a specification of the facts on which they expect to maintain the charges. And the accused, at least thirty days before the trial, shall furnish the Standing Committee with a statement of the ground of his defence on each specification.
- SEC. 4. At the time fixed for the trial, the members of the Court shall assemble and choose a President from their own number, and a Secretary, either from their own number or otherwise, as they shall see fit; and they shall, before they proceed, adopt and declare the rules by which the trial shall be conducted. A member of the legal profession, who is a Communicant of this Church and a resident in this Diocese, shall be selected by the Court as assessor, who shall sit with and advise the Court upon all legal questions that may arise, whether in regard to the admission of evidence or other points, but shall not be entitled to vote upon charges contained in the presentment.
- SEC. 5. If the accused shall appear, the Court shall proceed to the trial on the presentment, and shall adjudge him guilty, or not guilty, according to the evidence; and if he be found guilty, the Court shall declare to the Bishop to what ecclesiastical censure he ought, in their judgment, to be subjected. But if he shall neglect or refuse to appear, or to answer in person, according to the notice served on him as aforesaid, except for some reasonable cause to be allowed by the Court, they shall proceed to pronounce him in contumacy, and thereupon the Bishop shall suspend him from the functions of the Ministry. And if he shall not appear within six months, the Bishop shall proceed to depose him from the Ministry of this Church.
- SEC. 6. The Secretary shall keep a record of all the proceedings, which shall contain a copy of the presentment, of the specifications, of the notice to the accused, and of his answer, with a statement of all the evidence, both oral and written, and the final judgment of the Court; and an attested copy of this record shall be forthwith delivered to the Bishop. If the judgment be not guilty, the Bishop shall give a certificate of acquittal to the accused, embracing a copy of the presentment and specifications; and the accused shall not be subjected to a second trial on the same charges. If the Court judge him guilty, on one or more points at issue, the Bishop may disapprove the judgment and order a new trial, stating his grounds for such a decision; or he may approve the judgment; and in that case he shall, within thirty days, proceed to such ecclesiastical censure as the case may, in his judgment, require, whether it be admonition, suspension, or degradation from the Ministry; provided the penalty be not greater than that expressed in the judgment of the Court.

SEC. 7. Every summons, notice, or citation mentioned in these proceedings shall be deemed to be duly served, by the delivery of a written notice or paper to the person to be summoned, notified, cited, or by leaving it, or a certified copy of it, at his residence, or last known residence, by a person duly appointed in writing by the Bishop, Standing Committee, or Court, as the case may require.

CANON V.—Of Clerical Settlement and Removal

Report of the Registrar

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden on the second Tuesday in June, 1904.

The Registrar of the Diocese begs leave to present his report.

There have been sent me in the course of the past year, in part upon special request, the Journal of one Diocese for 1902 (completing our set for that year), the Journals of twenty-four Dioceses and eleven Districts for 1903, and those of one Diocese and two Districts for 1904. I have also received from the Secretary Journals of many of the Dioceses and Districts for 1903. The Bishop has sent to the Archives forty-nine Journals of various Dioceses and Districts of recent dates. The Church Club of the Diocese has sent a copy of its Manual for 1904.

I am indebted to the Bishop of Vermont for twenty Journals of Connecticut and twenty-four of other Dioceses (the latter all lacking from our sets); to the Registrar of Rhode Island for eleven Journals of Rhode Island (these also lacking from our sets); and to the Rev. Professor Denslow of the General Theological Seminary for Journals of Connecticut, 1818-19, 1819 Oct., 1821-30 inclusive, bound in one volume with the reprint to 1820, and also the Journals for 1820 and 1834-1838 inclusive; also nine Journals of Ohio. I have also purchased a set of Connecticut Journals from 1792 to 1856 inclusive, those before 1820 being in reprint, once the property of the Rev. Dr. William Cooper Mead.

Miss Frances E. Cole of Marbledale has sent me a large number of Church papers of various dates, including twenty-five numbers of The [old] Churchman needed for our sets, numbers of The Calendar in the years 1847-1865 inclusive, The [present] Churchman for 1868 and 1872 complete, for 1867, 1869, 1871, and 1874 nearly complete, with part of 1870 and 1873; The [New York] Guardian for nearly four years 1879-1883; sixteen numbers of The Church of To-Day needed for our set; and many numbers of The Church Journal 1856-1878.

Mr. E. S. Gorham, of New York, has presented, from the library of the late Rev. Dr. Maxcy, The Churchman for the first half of 1876, for 1881, 1882, and 1883 complete, and for more than half of 1885. I have myself presented the numbers of The Churchman for 1903.

Our set of The Churchman being thus complete from 1876 to 1901 inclusive (twenty-six years), together with 1868, 1872, and 1903, I have had these years bound in an inexpensive but fairly substantial form, and with them The Connecticut Churchman for 1866, that they may be available for consultation. At the end of this report I add a list of numbers of The Calendar and The Churchman needed to make our sets complete, hoping that it will meet the eye of some one who can send all or part of the missing numbers. We have ten years (1851-1860) of The Calendar bound, and three others (1846, 1862, 1863) ready for binding.

The Rev. J. A. Crockett has at my request sent me four numbers needed to complete our set of The Church of To-Day, of which he was editor.

Mr. John H. Sage, of Portland, has presented a copy of the Journal of General Convention of 1829 and also volumes I. and V. of The Evergreen, bound; and Mr. Richard A. Edwards, of Portland, has presented volume IV. of The Evergreen, bound.

Mr. James Shepard, of New Britain, has presented a copy of the records of Christ Church, Newington (sometimes called Worthington, Kensington, Berlin, and Wethersfield), from 1797 to 1827, first made by the late Mr. Roger Wells, and compared with the original by the donor, with other documents relating to the Parish.

The Rev. Canon Meredith, of Crieff, Scotland, has presented two bound volumes of "American Episcopal Tracts," once belonging to the Library of St. Andrew's Church, Aberdeen, including inter alia the Journals of General Convention 1832 and 1838 with Pastoral Letters, Missionary Reports, a sermon by the Rev. William Richmond on Bishop Brownell's Mission through the Valley of the Mississippi River (London 1830), and an Appeal in Behalf of the Church Scholarship Society (Hartford 1831).

APPENDIX C.

The Episcopal Academy of Connecticut

The Committee appointed by the Convention a year ago to consider and rrange the terms of a lease of the property of the Episcopal Academy o the Cheshire School fulfilled its duties, and the lease was approved by the Trustees of the Academy, as stated in the Journal of this Convention for 1903. The new corporation began to carry out its plans, and the School opened September 30th under the new Head Master, Dr. Roland J. Mulford.

The new corporation has exceeded its promises. The School buildings have been so completely renewed and equipped that they invite comparison with the best schools in the country. The front of Horton Hall has been improved by the addition of a broad piazza. The front loor now opens into the Main Hall, a large colonial reception room, off which are the Head Master's study, the office, a small reception oom and a class room. The color scheme is red, the walls being covered with red burlaps, while the woodwork of the large open fireplace and he columns is white. All the recitation rooms are now in the main milding, and have been rearranged to the best advantage. Behind the bession Room is the Common Room, where the magazines and papers re kept and two pianos; this is the boys' recreation room. Below his is the Science Laboratory.

The corridors with the boys' and masters' rooms are on the two pper floors. At the end of each is a lavatory containing ten showeraths and marble wash-basins.

The buildings are all lighted by electricity, the same engine being sed to pump the water from a new artesian well. An entirely new rainage and sewerage system has been installed, with the most modern anitary plumbing.

The old Bowden Hall is now a large airy and thoroughly equipped ymnasium, with a locker-room containing shower-baths, wire lockers, tc., joining it with Bronson Hall. The lower floor of the latter is ow a beautiful library. The Chapel above has been repainted and ecorated, and the organ put in perfect condition. In short, the buildings are been gone over from top to bottom, and renovated and renewed meet the best demands of modern education. A large four-story ring added to Horton Hall contains a trunk room, a dormitory or the engineer and janitors, the matron's apartments and school linen noom, and a dormitory for the maids.

As much has been done to the grounds as to the buildings. The thletic field is now levelled off, with a cinder track around the football eld and baseball diamond, and a grandstand at one corner. There is lso a smaller field for the younger boys. A terrace has been made for tennis courts, and all the grounds graded and enclosed by a privet hedge. Stone walks lead from one building to another, and a broad cloister joins Bronson and Bowden Halls.

The School is one in which every Churchman may well take pride, and on which the Diocese may be greatly congratulated. It needs as much as ever the support of the Diocese and of the Clergy of Connecticut. It is very glad to welcome any and all of the Clergy and laity, and hopes most sincerely that their interest in it will keep strong, and that it can rely on them still, as it always has in the past.

The 110th Anniversary will occur June 16th, and all are most cordially invited to attend.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

o the Convention:

Pursuant to Article V. of the Constitution, the Board of Directors of he Missionary Society makes its annual report of Appropriations and ther proceedings for the year 1903-4, as follows:

Appropriations and Apportionments

The last Convention (see Journal 1903, page 68) appropriated a sum lot exceeding $12,000 for carrying on the missionary work of the Diocese luring the then ensuing year, in addition to the proceeds from the funds of the Society and other sources available for the purpose. It was ordered that said sum be apportioned among the several Archdeaconries on the basis of "Current Expenses (including Salaries)," as reported not the last Journal; and that said sum be appropriated among the several Archdeaconries, as the Directors of the Society might deem best.

The net proceeds from the funds held by the Society were estimated t about $1,100, thus making, with the $12,000 to be raised, the sum of 13,100 for missionary work.

For this work Appropriations were made as follows, viz.:

o Fairfield Arch	deaconry		•	•		•	$1,700.00
Litchfield	"	•	•	•	•	•	1,375.00
New Haven	"	•	•	•	•	•	1,750.00

To meet these Appropriations said sum of $12,000 was apportioned mong the several Archdeaconries, as follows, viz.:

Litchfield	"	•	•	•		•	1,150.00

Pursuant to the rule of the Board, made some years ago, only the difference between the Appropriation and Apportionment in each Archdeaconry is in fact paid to, or paid by, the Treasurer, as the case may be. The sums so paid and received were as follows:

The Board recommends that an effort be made during the coming year to wipe out the Society's indebtedness. Towards this end it respectfully asks that Fairfield and New Haven Archdeaconries each pay to the Treasurer the sum of $1,000 on account of unpaid Apportionments, in addition to the Apportionments for the current year, with the understanding that if said sum of $1,000 is paid, the balance of the unpaid Apportionments be abated, and each Archdeaconry released from further claim thereon. The Board also urges that each of the other Archdeaconries contribute towards the outstanding indebtedness the sum of $250. This will give the Society $3,000, which, with the legacies and contributions to be received during the year, will enable the Board to pay its indebtedness in full.

The amount paid Litchfield Archdeaconry was in fact $225.00; but $83.33 was returned, the same not being required for the uses of the Archdeaconry.

DONATIONS

The Board gratefully acknowledges the receipt of special offerings and contributions as follows:

St. Luke's Chapel, Middletown; Pequot Chapel, New London; Christ Church, Hartford; The Women's Church Missionary Association, of New Haven; and Miss Juliette Wheaton, of Marbledale.

LEGACIES

The legacy under the will of Edward N. Shelton, late of Derby, of $1,000, has been paid during the year, with interest thereon from 1895, at four per cent., amounting to $311.66, or a total of $1,311.66. This legacy, being unrestricted as to its use, has been applied towards the reduction of the Society's indebtedness.

Notice has also been received of a legacy of $2,000 under the will of Miss Sarah B. Harrison, deceased, sister of the late Governor Harrison, who was in his lifetime a valuable member of the Church in this Diocese.

Notice has also been received of a legacy of $300 under the will of Ann D. Smith, late of Norwalk, deceased.

Both of these legacies are without condition.

New Missions

In August last Mr. Edwin Milner, of Plainfield, deeded to the Society a tract of land at Moosup, in that town, for the uses of the Church there. The thanks of this Society are due to Mr. Milner for his generous gift, and also to the Sunday Schools of the Diocese for their Advent offerings, given for the erection of a Chapel upon this land. These offerings amounted to $506.46, and are now on deposit in the Connecticut Savings Bank of New Haven, awaiting the erection of the Chapel.

A lot has been purchased at Ivoryton, in the town of Essex, at a cost of $400, for the purpose of erecting a Chapel thereon. This action was taken in accordance with the vote of the Directors two years ago. The people at Ivoryton have promised to erect a Chapel. The Mission is known as All Saints' Mission.

SPECIAL MATTERS

The Convention, one year ago, requested the Board of Directors to enquire into the spiritual condition obtaining in those portions of the State which were without the ministrations of religion, in order to determine the duty of this Church in regard to them; and to make such recommendations at this Convention as the conditions found might warrant.

It also empowered the Board to employ a special agent during the year, at an expense not exceeding $1,000 and charges.

Both of these matters having been duly considered by the Board, it was decided not to press the work in either direction; and the Board recommends in consequence thereof that no further action be had.

LIABILITIES

The liabilities of the Society are now $6,100. Of this sum, $4,500 is on account of improvements made many years ago at Rockville for a rectory, and at Willimantic and Bridgeport, for parish houses. The other $1,600 of the Society's liabilities is on account of running expenses. This sum is the accumulation of many years, but it is very gratifying to say that it is $2,400 less than it was one year ago. This is due largely to the payment of the Shelton legacy, above referred to, and to the large contributions and offerings to which we have also referred. But it is also due in part to the fact that both the Fairfield and New Haven Archdeaconries have paid more fully their Apportionments this year than in any year for a number of years. The Society also by reason of this situation has been able not only not to increase its indebtedness, but to materially reduce it; and also to purchase and add to its assets the lot at Ivoryton.

REVIEW OF OUR WORK

The work of this Society is, as everyone knows, of two kinds, viz.: The sustentation of old and feeble Parishes; and the organizing and maintaining of Missions proper. Until the Diocese shall see fit to separate these two kinds of work, the situation must remain substantially as it is and has been for many years. There must be a difference in the zeal with which we approach the work in these two aspects. It is not to be expected that the work of sustaining old and feeble Parishes can inspire as much enthusiasm as that of making and sustaining new Missions. Yet no one can truthfully say that the former of these is not of very great importance. Old Parishes, where the services of the Church have been held for many years perhaps, deserve our warmest recognition. They deserve it for the duty that now exists on our part to furnish them with Church services so long as there are people to minister unto; they deserve it for the good they have done in rearing up and sending forth their young men and women into the larger centers of this and other Dioceses; they deserve it because of the evidences to be found in many sections of a returning population, to whom the Church should minister. It is not the size of a town or its location which in all cases determines what the Church shall do. There may be some doubt in some minds possibly as to whether the Church, with the urgent demands upon it, is bound to enter depopulated fields where other religious bodies may have planted themselves; but there can be no doubt as to the duty of the Church in such places where she has already been planted.

Along with this work runs that other work of the Society, more interesting perhaps, but not in all its aspects more important, the work of planting and maintaining Missions.

In 1877, when the present system of Archdeaconries was established, there were, according to the report in the Journal for that year, twenty Parishes receiving aid, and fifteen Mission Stations. Many of these so called Mission Stations were Parishes, however, which had not given up their parochial organization, but whose work was done largely by the Missionary Society. These twenty Parishes and fifteen Mission Stations, scattered then as now in all parts of the Diocese, had in charge 1,138 families, 1,351 Communicants and 2,683 baptized persons.

According to the reports of the several Archdeaconries for the year now closing, forty-seven Parishes and twenty-five Mission Stations have received aid during the year. From their reports, taken from the Journal of last year, the forty-seven Parishes contain 2,057 families, 3,276 Communicants, 5,127 baptized persons and 1,475 Sunday School scholars. The twenty-five Mission Stations minister to 803 families, and contain 1,057 Communicants, 1,174 baptized persons and 803 scholars. The size of this work is fairly shown when we say that there is but one Missionary District, foreign or domestic, which has as many Communicants as are found in our aided Parishes and Mission Stations; and there are but two that report as many Sunday School scholars. No comparison as to families and baptized persons can be given, as the data are not at hand.

It has always been true that our aided Parishes are in the main located west of the Connecticut River; and that our Mission Stations are principally located east of the Connecticut River, or else near its western bank. It has been the policy of the Board, during the last twenty years at least, to send the Church into the larger and unoccupied places, and plant her Missions here. A dozen or more such places will readily come to your mind. Bridgeport (St. Luke's), Norfolk, Terryville, Forestville, Southington, East Berlin, Westbrook, Ivoryton, Chester, Danielson, Willimantic, Putnam, Black Hall, Niantic, Noank, South Lyme and Moosup are all evidences of this. Few of these places were on our list a score of years ago. It is substantially true that in no Diocese in the land, with the exception of Washington, is the Church population so dense as it is in Connecticut. One in about every twenty-two of its people west of the Connecticut River is a Communicant; and one in about every forty-three east of the river is a Communicant.

Of course you have noticed the large increase in the number of aided Parishes since the inauguration of the Archdeaconry system. The system is not responsible for this; but the result, outside of our cities, is due to a condition which everyone knows and recognizes, namely, the emigration from the country town, where there is little to attract or hold, to the larger town or city, where there are many attractions and inducements. So long as this condition continues, so long must we maintain our work in these places, and expect an increase rather than a diminution in the number of Parishes aided.

With this situation as it is, we cannot expect to find our aided Parishes again becoming self-supporting; and our Missions as a rule are not becoming so. Yet there are instances, however, in the former case where the good which this Society has done in bridging over temporary needs, if nothing more, is clearly evident. Bristol, Pomfret, Washington, South Manchester and Thompsonville have all been upon the list within a score of years, but are now self-supporting and contributing to the support of others.

The number of families ministered to by this Society in one form or another is two and one-half times greater than it was in 1877. The number of Communicants is considerably more than three times as many; the number of baptized persons more than twice as many, as is also the number of Sunday School scholars; and yet the money which you are asked to appropriate for this work, and which you have appropriated annually for a number of years, is only fifty per cent. greater than in 1876, when the amount was $8,000; an amount which seems to have been appropriated for several successive years, from twenty-five to thirty years ago; although in 1874 the sum of $12,000 was appropriated, the same amount as now. The appeals then made for help, the lack of interest shown, the failure to pay the Missionaries, the neglect of Parishes to respond, were as great and urgent then as now; in fact, a condition less encouraging and less successful by far than what we find at present seems to have prevailed then.

The reports of the Archdeaconries at this time will show that the full amount apportioned was paid in Litchfield, Hartford and New London; and that the returns from the others are more complete upon the whole than has been the case for several years.

There are one or two features of this work which have not in years gone by been sufficiently considered. There are places growing, prosperous and populous, where the Church needs just as active, able and energetic men as may be found in almost any Parish in a larger city: places where the tact, judgment, energy and the intellect of the men are taxed quite as much. It has been the policy of the Board in more recent years to recognize this situation, and, as far as possible, to supply the demand with a living salary and a living man. On the other hand, there are places where there should be a combination of effort, where two or more Parishes should be combined, not only to their advantage, but to the advantage of the Missionary in charge. Only those familiar with the difficulties connected with this situation can realize what it means for an independent Parish, feeble though it be, and receiving aid, as it is, no doubt, to give up that independence, and come under the charge of a man who can give it but a portion of his care and ministrations. Yet there are cases where such combination should be made, and where the parties themselves will soon realize that it is for their best interests.

Upon the whole, your Board feels that it may congratulate you and the Diocese upon the work as now conducted, although it is well aware of the pressing needs which now exist and which to some extent must continue to exist; and also aware of its inability to meet these needs, except as God shall give it strength.

Conclusion

For the names of the several Parishes and Missions contributing to the Society, with the amount of their contributions; and for the names of the Parishes and Missions receiving aid, with the amounts paid to them; as well as for a description of the condition and progress of missionary work in the Diocese, we refer you to the reports from the several Archdeaconries, herewith presented.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board,

Burton Mansfield, Secretary.

New Haven, Conn., June 13, 1904.

REPORTS OF THE ARCHDEACONRIES

I.

Fairfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Fairfield respectfully reports that the Archdeaconry has given aid to the same Parishes and Mission Stations as last year, with the exception of Monroe.

Christ Church, Easton, continues under the spiritual care of the Rector of Tashua. The great difficulty in this old Parish is the scarcity of material. There seems to be no prospect of growth, but rather a decadence; and yet we have no right to deprive the faithful few Church people in this rural community of the benefits of the Church, her services and her sacraments.

At St. Paul's, Huntington, we record with regret the resignation of the Rev. Haynes L. Everest, who has so faithfully and efficiently continued to minister there during the past year. He leaves the work in good condition, we are glad to say, and there is no more room for discouragement.

Trinity Church, Nichols, is also for the moment without a Rector. This Parish has had a hard struggle against adverse circumstances, for which the people were not responsible. With the advent of a new Rector the Parish will, we feel sure, be much encouraged.

The Rev. W. H. Jackson took charge of Christ Church, Redding, and Emmanuel Church, Weston, last autumn. He has been very successful, and the results are most gratifying. The work is now on a solid and substantial basis, and the outlook is bright for many years of quiet growth.

There is nothing of special moment to report from the Missions at Round Hill and Byram in the town of Greenwich. They hold their own. Their Minister is a fine example of faithfulness and self-sacrifice. He has held in the past year 126 services, celebrated the Holy Eucharist 32 times in public, and on 5 occasions in private. He has made 425 pastoral visits, and traveled 1,664 miles. Both Missions have met their obligations to the Missionary and the Archdeaconry, and have done something for outside objects. An offering for General Missions will be made by each in the month of June.

St. Luke's Mission, Bridgeport, was left without a Minister August 1st of last year, by the death of the faithful and devoted Dr. E. W. Maxcy. It remained vacant for about two months only, when the Rev.

E. L. Wells was appointed to take charge. He is the right man in the right place. For seven months he has worked with untiring zeal; and as a result things are in a most happy and encouraging condition. A long standing debt of $200 has been wiped out, as well as floating obligations amounting to $232. All current expenses have been promptly paid, and the Mission is now free from debt. The Choristers' League, composed of members of the choir, is doing an excellent work; it meets all the expenses of the music and the salary of the choirmaster. The Sunday School is large and flourishing; and there is a children's guild composed of those between the ages of ten and fifteen, which numbers over 50 children. Owing to the industrial and financial conditions which prevail in that part of Bridgeport where this Mission is placed, we do not see any immediate prospect of releasing the Archdeaconry from any portion of the Appropriation hitherto granted.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Louis N. Booth, Archdeacon of Fairfield.

Litchfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Litchfield respectfully reports that seven Parishes and Missions in the Archdeaconry have been aided by the Board during the year.

In Bridgewater the conditions have greatly improved under the faithful and devoted ministrations of the Rev. Gideon D. Pond. A period of quiet and steady growth seems beginning, in spite of the fact that the town is not gaining in population.

Christ Church, Canaan, holds its own. The Rector's illness during the year has somewhat interfered with the work; but the report is on the whole satisfactory.

In Kent the annual list of removals is smaller than usual, and three families have moved in. The Rector, Rev. G. H. Smith, consequently feels somewhat encouraged in his work.

In Northfield the Rev. A. P. Chapman continues to do good work. The dissensions which have harassed the Parish for many years are now a thing of the past.

Plymouth, East Plymouth and Terryville remain under the care of the Rev. J. D. Gilliland. It is a pleasure to speak of the faithful work done in these places. Terryville, without doubt, has a future. It is growing rapidly, and already measures have been taken to secure a building lot and to erect a Chapel as soon as possible. The Church people are still few in number, but earnest and enthusiastic, and deserving of encouragement and assistance in their undertaking.

St. Paul's, Woodbury, in charge of the Rev. L. Robert Sheffield, remains as usual. There appears to be no opportunity for aggressive work; and all that can reasonably be expected is being done.

Pine Meadow and Riverton were left vacant for a time by the death of the Rev. Henry Tarrant. There is a large and thinly settled region about these places, and Mr. Tarrant was very faithful in his ministrations to the scattered population. The work has now been taken up by the Rev. George M. Stanley, and will, no doubt, be well done.

In Norfolk the services were maintained as usual last summer. The cold, wet season interfered seriously with the attendance, and consequently the expenses were not quite met by the offerings. The outlook this year is more promising.

Besides the regular work in Parish Churches and Missions, an effort has been made during the year to reach some of the outlying districts by schoolhouse services and Sunday Schools. A number of such services are held, and in two places Sunday Schools with promise of permanence are established. To aid in this work the Archdeaconry at its own expense is employing Miss Cora Roberts, Deaconess, during the summer.

Every Parish and Mission has paid its Apportionment for Diocesan Missions in full.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. Plumb, Archdeacon.

New haven Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of New Haven respectfully reports:

Eleven Parishes have been aided during the past year.

East Haven. Christ Church was under the care of the Rev. John H. Jackson until the first of the present year, when he resigned to accept a call to St. Paul's Church, Bantam. Mr. Jackson's removal was a serious loss to East Haven. It is hoped that the new Rector of Grace Church, New Haven, will be able to take charge of Christ Church, in connection with the work at Grace Church. Members of the Berkeley Association of Yale University have been holding services from Sunday to Sunday in Christ Church since the vacancy in the rectorship; thereby the Church people of East Haven have not been deprived of a chance to worship in their own town.

North Guilford, St. John's Church, and North Branford, Zion Church, have been without a Rector for nearly a year. The Rev. Dr. MacDougall resigned these Parishes last July. It is a problem hard to solve, to know what is the best thing to do regarding these two rural Parishes. There is apparently no growth, but rather a steady decadence; yet it is hoped that when a Rector is secured some new life will be infused.

Northford. St. Andrew's Church is doing well under the rectorship of the Rev. J. D. S. Pardee. The only drawback is the lack of money for the support of the work. The Rector reports 12 persons confirmed during the year; which certainly shows that the Church is not dead in this strictly rural community.

Bethany. Christ Church is still under the rectorship of the Rev. Lew's F. Morris. The Church building has recently been renovated and improved at a cost of $1,635.00. The Rector reports that as to numbers the Parish is simply holding its own.

Oxford, St. Peter's Church, and Quaker Farms, Christ Church, have steadily improved since the Rev. Theodore M. Peck assumed the rectorship. Entire harmony prevails, and the labors of the Rector for the spiritual welfare of the Parishes is seen and felt in the community. At Quaker Farms the interior of the Church has been completely renovated. At Oxford a house and an acre of ground have been purchased for the use of the Rector, and both are being improved. When completed an ideal home for the Rector will be obtained. The money for the Rectory Fund has been raised through private subscription. The cost of the property when completed will be about $1,400. The Bishop confirmed a class of seven persons in St. Peter's Church on Ascension Day. The outlook for these two Parishes, under the present Rector's care, is most encouraging.

Hamden, Grace Church, the Rev. James E. Coley, Rector. This Parish is holding its own and is doing well under the leadership of its faithful Rector. The parishioners are making an earnest effort to pay off a debt upon the ground on which the Memorial Parish House stands.

New Haven (Westville), St. James's Church. This Parish has had a year of prosperity under the efficient care of the Rector, the Rev. J. Frederick Sexton. The services are well attended, and much interest is shown by the people. The interior of the Church has recently been redecorated; and, with other improvements made a year or more ago, the building to-day presents a most beautiful house of worship.

At a special service on Whit-Tuesday, the Bishop of the Diocese was present and gave his blessing to the building, Rector and parishioners.

New Haven, Church of the Ascension. The Rector of this Parish, the Rev. Ernest H. Mariett, reports that the work is going on as usual, and that harmony prevails. "The only discouraging point is the financial strain due to the constant removals from the Parish. The section of the city is rapidly filling up with foreigners, who are almost all Roman Catholics. The Parish debt has been reduced to less than $400."

Last summer Church services were held under the supervision of the Archdeacon, in Madison, the beginning, it is hoped, of a Mission in that town. The Rev. Peter L. Shepard had charge of the work. Services were held in the Chapel of the Congregational Church during the months of July and August, and a part of September. The average number of persons present on each Sunday was forty. The offerings at these services almost covered the expenses, as the Archdeaconry was called upon to pay but a few dollars. The only drawback to holding the services near the summer cottages is the lack of a suitable room. Mr. Shepard's ministrations were most acceptable, and it is the desire of those in charge of the Mission that he shall take the oversight again this year.

The New York City Mission Society having summer cottages for the "Fresh Air Children" at Walnut Beach, near New Haven, held public Church services last summer in the Union Chapel, at which there was an average attendance of 150 persons in addition to the 100 "Fresh Air Children." These services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Kimber, the Superintendent of the New York City Mission Society, assisted by his clerical and lay helpers. Services were also held in the hotel at Laurel Beach by Mr. Kimber and others.

New Haven, St. Luke's Church. The Rev. Eugene L. Henderson is still in charge of this Parish, the only aggressive work our Church is doing among the colored people of this Diocese. As no report has been received from the Rector, nothing definite can here be given.

The Archdeacon has visited several of the aided Parishes, the Mission at Madison and the work of the New York City Mission Society at Walnut Beach.

The Appropriations of this Archdeaconry for the past year have been used for the support of established Parishes almost entirely. In some cases there is not much encouragement for the future; and yet it is most desirable that the services of the Church should be given to the few who are still loyal to the Church in which they were born and baptized.

The Apportionments have been paid either in full or in part by every Parish with the exception of three.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEORGE HICKMAN BUCK,

Archdeacon of New Haven.

DERBY, CONN., June 12, 1904.

Hartford Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

With rare exceptions our Missions and Parishes have met their Apportionments, and a few have paid somewhat more than was asked of them.

Trinity Church, Hartford, spends five hundred dollars per annum on a local Mission, over and above its gifts to the Diocesan Board.

This Archdeaconry strongly encourages the building of rectories. It is the very best form of endowment. We strenuously discourage the use of its means by any assisted Parish or Mission for extravagances of Church decoration or furnishing. Luxuries in Churches as in families are allowable and lawful only where they can be afforded.

Trinity Church, Collinsville, has in hand nearly enough money to purchase a lot and to build a rectory. The Rector hopes to have the house ready for use before the end of the year.

St. James's, Farmington, has purchased land adjoining the Church property, and is accumulating a rectory fund with which to build.

Christ Church, Unionville, has bought a house, and has refitted and repaired it at a cost of fourteen hundred dollars. Some debt remains, but the Rector is attacking it with energy.

St. Paul's, Southington, has a legacy of about twenty-five hundred dollars available for rectory purposes. We are looking for the right man for that important point. The Rev. George R. Warner, after a few months of service there, was obliged by ill-health to resign, to the great regret of all concerned.

St. John's, Rockville, has reduced its debt by one hundred and ten dollars. It will also shortly receive one thousand dollars left by the late George Sykes, Esq., which legacy will wipe out the remainder of the debt and permit the Church to be consecrated. This Parish should now gradually become self-supporting.

The Church of Our Saviour, Plainville, has maintained itself the past year by renting its rectory and availing itself of the services of the Rev. Robert H. Burton, a perpetual Deacon, who resides in Hartford. Though occupied by his business all the week days, Mr. Burton has done earnest work and rendered excellent service at Plainville on Sundays.

Another perpetual Deacon has long and faithfully labored at Grace Church, Newington. The Rev. Jared Starr lives at Newington, and does full pastoral work there for very small pay.

Bloomfield, Broad Brook and East Berlin have been in charge of efficient student Lay Readers. Each of these has been under the direct supervision and has received the assistance of a Priest.

The Rev. Samuel Hart, D.D., is really an unsalaried General Missionary in this Archdeaconry. He administers the Holy Communion regularly at East Berlin and Newington, and occasionally at Plainville. He also gives generously of his time and service at the Church Home and at the Hartford Hospital.

New promise attaches to St. John's Chapel, Forestville, owing to a considerable increase of business and population in that village.

A great misfortune came upon St. James's, Glastonbury, on Sunday. February 14, 1904, in the burning of its unique and pretty stone Church. Rector and people have bravely faced the effort to rebuild. The insurance, the subscriptions of the parishioners, and the gifts of friends have already provided a considerable part of the necessary funds. They still need all their friends, however.

All of our Parishes and Missions have been open and supplied with regular ministrations during the year past with only temporary interruptions.

The present Archdeacon gratefully acknowledges the cordial cooperation of his fellow laborers and cheerfully recognizes the harmony which has characterized the entire body over which he has the honor to preside.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

- HARRY I. Bodley, Archdeacon of Hartford.

Middlesex Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Middlesex begs leave to report:

The same aid has been continued to the same Parishes and Mission Stations which have been helped hitherto, viz., the Parishes at Clinton, Durham, Killingworth, Middlefield and Middle Haddam; and the Missions at Chester, Hadlyme, Ivoryton, Ponsett and Westbrook.

Service both morning and evening, with a Sunday School between, has been regularly held throughout the year at St. Luke's Mission, Chester, by Mr. J. W. Lord, a student at the Berkeley Divinity School. The Mission is in a healthy condition, and, in spite of some losses by removal, it has more than held its own, steadily adding to its fund for the Chapel which it so much needs. A class of seven was confirmed in February.

The Parish at Clinton has been without a Rector since the first of May, the Rev. George M. Stanley having resigned and removed to the Litchfield Archdeaconry. The Parish has a good property in Church and Rectory, entirely free from debt, and with a strong Rector, holds out the hope of becoming self-supporting.

The Rector and people of Epiphany Church, Durham, are to be congratulated on the acquisition of a neat and commodious Parish House, which will soon be completed and will greatly add to the Parish equipment.

Grace Chapel, Hadlyme, continues in charge of the Rector of St. Stephen's Church, East Haddam, who officiates on the afternoon of every Lord's Day; while Judge Willey, who is in his 86th year, regularly reads and exhorts on Sunday mornings, affording an example of zeal which is greatly appreciated by the Archdeaconry.

All Saints' Mission, Ivoryton, which for three years has been in charge of the Rector of St. John's Church, Essex, has come back again to the direct care of the Archdeaconry. A good work was done by Dr. Barnes in holding the congregation together and in interesting the young people of the place, for which the thanks of the Archdeaconry are due. Mr. Kline, a senior of the Berkeley Divinity School, whose experience as Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. especially fits him for this interesting and promising field, has taken up the work. In due time it is hoped that money will be raised to build a suitable Chapel on the fine site which has been purchased.

St. Paul's, Middlefield, has taken on new life through some valuable additions by removal. The Sunday School has grown, and a large class was recently confirmed.

There is nothing new to be noted about the work at the old Parishes in Killingworth and Middle Haddam, and the Mission at Ponsett, which is being carried on in the same quiet and faithful way as heretofore by their respective Rectors.

St. Paul's, Shailerville, which is the most recent of our Missionary ventures, is developing well, and will have to receive an Appropriation this year to secure the regular services of a student from Berkeley.

St. Paul's, Westbrook, presents one of our most difficult problems. It can be served from Middletown during the winter only at a great expense, little of which it can furnish itself; though in the summer it gets on very well with the help of the visitors. It must be united under one Rector with Holy Advent, Clinton.

The experiment of opening services at East Hampton, a busy manufacturing town of six thousand inhabitants, which was tried last year, without expense to the Archdeaconry, through the voluntary labors of the Rector of Christ Church, Middle Haddam, has more than fulfilled expectations and proved the need of a permanent Mission there. The attendance has steadily grown, even with the handicap of having to meet in a hall up two flights of stairs.

Speaking generally, the condition of the field in this Archdeaconry is healthy and hopeful, though no great growth in financial strength and numbers can reasonably be expected. Yet if the main work of Missions must be the patient pursuit of the individual, with the betterment of his conditions, there is no part of the State which calls for the care of the Church more than Eastern Connecticut.

With the most careful calculations, I don't see how we can carry on the work cut out for us this year short of $2,250.

It is gratifying to be able to report that all our Parishes and Mission Stations have paid up their Diocesan Apportionments in full, with one exception.

Respectfully submitted,

O. H. RAFTERY, Archdeacon.

New London Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon reports:

During the past year he has visited every Parish and Mission Station within his jurisdiction, with the exception of Hebron and Colchester; and at every place there has been a distinct gain during the year past. There is a large amount of new work lying before us, and unusual opportunities presenting themselves; but we lack the men and means necessary to do the work. We need money for five Chapels, and to pay salaries to two Priests and another Deaconess. At Turnerville there is no place of worship except the school house, where the Rev. Mr. Fitzgerald gathers the people and holds a service as often as his time permits. At Baltic, Taftville, Occum and Versailles, four villages between Willimantic and Norwich, there are nearly four hundred Church of England people (more than one hundred are Communicants), whose nearest Parish Church is St. Andrew's, Norwich. As these are mill villages, and the population frequently changing, we must recognize the conditions and minister accordingly. Miss Roberts has been working as Deaconess in this region, and deserves great praise for her efficiency. A Chapel at Baltic and another at Taftville are pressing necessities.

The little old Church building which was originally in the town of Canterbury, and for many years now has been the Church in Willimantic, is too small for its present congregation. The Church people and citizens of Willimantic will do their best toward a suitable Church building, but outside help will be needed. Deaconess Taylor has done effective work in this Mission during the past two winters; and the Archdeacon wishes to express his thanks to the Girls' Friendly Society and the faithful women who have made it possible for him to have the most valuable aid of Deaconesses in his missionary field.

The Missionary Society has received from Mr. Edwin Milner the deed of a valuable lot of land in the village of Moosup, on which we hope soon to begin to build St. Peter's Church. This is the Church toward which the Sunday School Advent offerings were donated. Unfortunately for us, last Advent was unusually stormy, and the offerings were not as large as we expected.

All of the Diocesan assessments were met in full, and about 72 per cent. of the Apportionment for Foreign and Domestic Missions was paid.

LUCIUS MARTIN HARDY, Archdeacon.

Church Scholarship Society

ANNUAL MEETING AND REPORT

St. Paul's Church, New Haven, June 14, 1904.

The annual meeting was held at this time and place, the Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., President, in the chair.

The Secretary presented the following

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Since the last meeting of the Church Scholarship Society the historical pamphlet, reviewing the seventy-five years of the history of the Society from 1827 to 1902 has been published and sent to all the members, that is, to all the members, clerical and lay, of the Convention of 1903. It is believed by the Board of Education that this printed history will well repay careful study on the part of all those who by the law of the State are numbered in the membership of this Society. Such increased knowledge of the methods and work of the Society will sooner or later bear more abundant fruit in awakened interest and more generous contributions.

Nine students are being helped by the Society at present, all of them in Berkeley Divinity School. Last year there were twelve. Some years there have been more than twice the present number. Four notes in full and four in part have been repaid by former beneficiaries within the past Convention year.

The income from the Parishes and Missions has been $750.80, the largest since 1897. This has come from seventy-three congregations, as against sixty-three last year. With income from these sources and that from invested funds, the Society has been able to meet its just obligations. In its wisdom the Board has seen fit to refuse some applications on the ground of insufficient standing in scholarship; but it has not been obliged to refuse any applicant on account of lack of funds at hand. But the Board of Education feels most keenly the lack of general coöperation on the part of a large majority of the congregations, especially when some of the largest and most prosperous of our Parishes are conspicuous in not being among the number of those contributing to this important work as required by Canon.

The appeal is again made to the Clergy and the Lay Delegates to see that their respective Parishes make some contribution to the Church Scholarship Society during the coming Convention year. The Board of Education further hopes that the day is not far distant when the invested funds will be so augmented by increased offerings or by generous bequests that they will yield sufficient income to make Canonical requirement of annual offerings from the Parishes no longer necessary. At present, however, the largely increased number of students at Berkeley Divinity School makes it certain that the demands upon the treasury of the Church Scholarship Society next year will be nearly doubled.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE T. LINSLEY, Secretary.

On motion, the Report was accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal of the Diocesan Convention.

In the absence of Mr. Ward C. Powell, Treasurer, his Report was presented by the Secretary, and was disposed of in like manner.

On motion, the following persons were then elected members of the

The late Mrs. Jennette Morehouse Downes, of Waterbury, bequeathed the sum of six thousand dollars ($6,000) to form a permanent fund, which became available January, 1902, the income to be used for the support of the Minister's salary, and for no other purpose, in the poor and feeble Protestant Episcopal Churches in the State of Connecticut. And the person who shall be the Bishop shall designate what Churches shall be aided in manner aforesaid; also designate the amount each shall receive from the income of said fund.

Mrs. Downes also gave fourteen hundred dollars ($1,400) in trust, for the benefit of St. John's Church, Washington, Conn., the income of the same to be applied on the Minister's salary and for no other purpose; and if said Church should become extinct, the said fund shall be added to the first fund, and shall be under the same management.

During the year the Church building has been thoroughly renovated and decorated at a cost of something over $5,000—all of which has been paid. The mortgage debt has been reduced $1,000. I have held some ten services in Union Chapels and school houses, in the country adjoining Danbury, with an average attendance of fifty, with a result that there have been thirteen baptisms and three confirmations in the outlying districts, while at least eight persons are awaiting confirmation. In one of the school houses we maintain a Mission Sunday School with an average attendance of about thirty children.

We have during the year paid for the rectory, but as soon as we knew this could be done our Church burned, leaving only the tower and walls. An insurance of $5,000 encouraged us to rebuild. From friends far and near. and some who once had here their Church home, we have received promises of $2,800, much of which has been paid. At least $1,200 will be needed in addition to enable us to rebuild without a debt, save that of abundant gratitude to those who have helped and will help us. We hope to reoccupy our Church early in October. I have made 450 calls, very many of them among people who are neglected by the religious bodies to which they belong by birth and education.

This Parish has been without Rector or services since last August. The Church, which was built in 1814, was struck by lightning some two years ago, and owing very largely to the handiwork of the late Rector was repaired, to the saving of $100 or more to the Parish.

The Chapel of Our Holy Saviour in this Parish is open every Sunday evening for divine service. The service is choral and is finely attended. The Chapel is nearer the business center of the place than the Church and its locality helps the services unquestionably. It is a lovely building, churchly and ornamented by fine glass, largely memorial work.

We have a Mission in that part of the town called East Norwalk Service is here held every Sunday night in a hired room. We have bought a lot, and paid for it, for a Chapel, and have five thousand dollars subscribed for the same. There is a small body of earnest workers at the point, all very desirous for a Chapel. We have a nice little Sunday School there gathered which meets every week. It is a promising point. The place grows, and there is a good lookout.

The Parish has just completed much needed repairs on its sheds. With regard to the rectory, reported as purchased but not entirely paid for, we are happy to report that it is now entirely paid for. The work of restoration has gone on during the year, and will soon be completed. While the whole sum required for this work has not yet been received, the generosity of former residents of the Parish has made it possible to pay for most of the work, and we expect to settle the account soon. The treasurer reports that from May 31st, 1903, to May 31st, 1904, there has been received in cash $526.90, in mortgage deed $200.00, expended on repairs $522.74, amount of deed and cash on hand $204.16. In addition, much has been contributed in the form of work. During Advent, the Woman's Auxiliary sent a box valued at $15.50; during Lent, a box valued at $17.85. On the whole, the Parish seems to be renewing its strength.

The Parish is doing a small work in a small and widely scattered community; consequently the statistics vary but little from year to year. During the past year the interior of the Church has been cleaned and decorated, and a handsome new carpet laid throughout, thus completing the work of putting the entire Church property in perfect order.

No Confirmations are reported, for the reason that there has been no visitation. But it is right to say that the Minister has prepared and presented for Confirmation three persons at the Westminster School. By the aid of friends we have been able to make the necessary repairs and improvements reported. Members of the Mitchelson family have placed a handsome stained glass window in the Church in memory of their father and mother, who were long prominent in the Parish. In addition I have to report that the interior of the Church has been renovated and beautified at private expense; the cost of which cannot be stated. No bills have been rendered; and besides, it was a matter with which the Parish had nothing to do, except to give its consent through its Minister and Wardens; and to gratefully accept when finished.

The repairs and improvements during the year included the repairing and painting of the Church building and the renovating and redecorating of the interior.

Besides this the Woman's Guild has recarpeted the Church at a cost of $175.00, which is not included in the report.

An earnest effort is being made to retain the services of the Rev. Mr. Reynolds, who has been Lay Reader in the Church from January 1, 1902, to June 8, 1904, and who is still conducting the services.

The Holy Communion is regularly administered by the Rector, the Rev. Mr. Wildman of Wallingford. During the year the Parish sustained a great loss in the death of Bennett Jeralds, for many faithful years Senior Warden of the Parish. After one year of suffering he passed away on the first day of February, 1904, in his 86th year.

During the past year the Parish has put some hand-carved oak pews in the Church, and they harmonize perfectly with the interior furnishings of the building. At Easter the pews were newly cushioned, a gift from a member of the Parish. The pews and cushions represent an outlay of $2,050.00. An effort is now being made to purchase an organ that will in every way correspond to the general style and tone of furnishings already in the Church. An Altar Guild has been started and the work on new hangings has been begun under the leadership of an expert in ecclesiastical embroidery. The Guild will receive orders for all kinds of vestments and hangings. Address all orders to Mrs. Harriet W. Houghton, Yantic.

Note.—"Sittings" and "Free Sittings" are given as last reported, usually in 1899, but sometimes earlier or later. These items, being permanent and not changing annually, were omitted from the form for Parochial Report by the Convention of 1899, on the understanding that the Secretary would publish them in a separate list. Omissions in the list have been supplied so far as possible.

Educational and Charitable Institutions

MAINTAINED OR CONDUCTED BY CHURCHMEN, AND LOCATED IN CONNECTI-CUT, BUT NOT UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE DIOCESE

In 1901 the Journal contained information from various institutions of this class, and a new one was described in 1902. It seems unnecessary to reprint this every year; so the inquirer is referred to the Journal of 1901, pages 282-287, and the Journal of 1902, page 290, for a brief statement of the history, object, endowment, management and terms of admission of each of the following institutions:

TRINITY COLLEGE, HARTFORD; Vernon and Summit Streets.

THE POMFRET SCHOOL FOR BOYS; POMFRET.

THE WIDOWS' HOME, HARTFORD; 133 Market Street and 13 South Hudson Street.

THE CHURCH HOME, HARTFORD; 123 Retreat Avenue.

THE OPEN HEARTH, HARTFORD; 73 Grove Street.

THE CURTIS HOME, MERIDEN, (for women and children); South Crown Street.

St. Luke's Home for Destitute and Aged Women, Middletown; 157 Pearl Street.

THE TRINITY CHURCH HOME, NEW HAVEN; 301 George Street.

St. Paul's Church Home for Aged Women, New Haven; 600 Chapel Street.

St. John's Church House, Stamford; Pacific Street and Woodland Place.

To these should be added:

THE SALISBURY SCHOOL, INCORPORATED, (for boys); SALISBURY.

The Bishop of Connecticut is Episcopal Visitor; there are nine Directors, including Bishop Potter, Bishop Worthington and the Rev. Dr. C. C. Tiffany; and the Head Master is the Rev. George Emerson Quaile, M.A.

APPENDIX U

Connecticut's Representatives in the General Convention 1785 to 1904

The Journals of the General Convention from the first show that the Diocese of Connecticut has been represented at the successive sessions by the Bishops, Clergymen and Laymen named in the following list. The Journals of the Diocese sometimes mention others as elected Deputies; but unless they presented their credentials at the meetings of the General Convention, their names are usually omitted here.

1785 Sept. 27 to Oct. 7, inclusive; Christ Church, Philadelphia.

Connecticut was not represented.

1786 June 20 to 26; Christ Church, Philadelphia.

Connecticut was not represented.

Adjourned Convention
